Mrs. H. M. Perkins Celebrated Her 75th Birthday

The seventy-fifth birthday anniversary of Mrs. H. M. Perkins was celebrated at the home of her son, Mr. R. E. Perkins, Victoria Square, on Friday evening, March 27th.

About sixty relatives neighbours and friends assembled to do her honour on this occasion. The guests sat down to tables laden with viands and delicacies and appropriately decorated with carnations presented by Miss Mary Fotheringham. A large birthday cake lighted by seventy-five candles represented years of health, pleasure and activity.

Mrs. Procunier, a concert pianiste and Mr. Manewell, baritone soloist and humorist, provided ample and suitable entertainment. Community singing of popular songs both new and old even escaped the gong of Major Bowes.

Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. K. Klinck and Mrs. Grace Boynton, the three ladies present who claimed to have seen the most winters as well as the most fun, contributed to the programme a trio which was not only well rendered but well received. Short speeches by the Rev. Mr. Macdonald, Mrs. Macdonald, Mr. Louis L. Nichols, Mr. H. O. Klinck, Mr. Ross Klinck, Mr. R. F. Boynton, Mr. R. E. Perkins and Mr. L. R. Perkins showered congratulations and good wishes on the hostess.

Mrs. Perkins was the proud recipient of many beautiful and useful presents, kind expressions of the respect and esteem in which she is held in the community.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Perkins and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Perkins and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. ## LEN CLEMENT HELD SUCCESSFUL SALE

The auction sale of farm stock, implements etc. of Len. Clement held at Elgin Mills last Thursday attracted a very large crowd and it was a most successful sale. Mr. Clement advertised "no reserve" and that is exactly what he meant because everything in the sale except a small quantity of hay was sold. It was a cash sale and the proceeds amounted to over $4000.00, excellent prices being obtained for stock and implements. J. C. Saigeon of Maple had charge of the sale as auctioneer.
