

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

Expressing confidence in the youth of today, Judge Mott of Toronto brought a timely message to the Junior Farmers' clubs at the meeting on Monday evening last, basing his remarks on the splendid poem of Henry Van Dyke, "Four things a man must learn to do, if he would make his record true. To think without confusion clearly, to love his fellowman sincerely; to trust in God and Heaven purely; to trust in God and Heaven purely; to trust in God and Heaven purely."

past year. Also the able assistance of Mrs. Perkin and Doreen was a great benefit to the social part of our Club.

Looking about for some suitable testimonial to present to you as a token of our appreciation and good wishes, decided to ask you to accept this case of Silver. Its money value is small, but with it we give you our unfeigned appreciation of your labors on behalf of our Club.

Signed: Ada L. Hood, President.

A. Summerfeldt, Vice-Pres.

W. L. Hiltz, Secretary.

Known as "Aunt Susan" to the young and old alike in her large acquaintance, Mrs. Jas. Gibson (Susan Glendenning) celebrates her 88th birthday on Friday. A reception is planned, the venerable lady herself supervising all arrangements as well as the making of the birthday cake. A direct descendant of "Mary Thompson, the Mother of Scarborough" Mrs. Gibson has many interesting stories to relate, regarding the happenings in the early days. Her keen interest in present day affairs makes her a most interesting companion. We extend congratulations and best wishes for many more happy birthdays.

Another of our venerable citizens has reached the 80th milestone and on Sunday next Mrs. David Coulson will celebrate at the home of her sister Mrs. F. Boadway. Mrs. Coulson was born on Con. 5, Markham on the Stiver Homestead where her brother R. L. Stiver now resides. Her father, the late Wm. Stiver, was one of Markham Township's pioneers and Mrs. Coulson has always lived within a few miles radius of the old home.

Mrs. Coulson relates that at the time of her marriage to Mr. Coulson in 1873, farm laborers received $15 per month and were able to live happily and save a bit toward the home they were planning for. That, however, was before the silk stocking and motor car era.

Mrs. Coulson has many friends who cherish her bits of homely philosophy and the good advice she offers from out her busy life's experience. Noted for her industry, Mrs. Coulson co-stars with her sister Mrs. Boadway who is seventy-three years old in the making of many beautiful patchwork quilts, hooked rag rugs, knitting many pairs of socks, mitts etc., many of which go to the needy folk in the district.

Four daughters and three sons as well as many grand children and a host of friends will offer congratulations to this estimable lady along with best wishes for many more happy birthdays.

It's Hi! Ho! Come to the Treasure Hunt! for the boy scouts next meeting time and the time is 6:45 p.m. We warrant there will be a record attendance, too. So, be no the spot, boys, if you don't want to miss any of the fun. Games and stunts in Order's field were a good finish for last meeting's activities, with Scout Master H. Stiver and Chas. Norris in charge. We offer apologies for overlooking the Scout report last week especially when we had the thrilling news of a trip to the city to see the picture "Capt. Blood." The boys had a grand time and express appreciation to Messrs Hill, Stiver and Norris for making possible the outing.

Human Nature! They say the world is round, and yet I often think it square; So many little hurts we get from corners here and there; But there's one truth in life I've found while journeying east and west, The only folks we really wound are those we love the best; We flatter those we scarcely know, we please the fleeting guest, And deal full many a thoughtless blow to those we love the best.

Magistrate—Do I understand you to say that when you heard a noise you got out of bed, turned on the light, and went to the head of the stairs—that a burglar was at the foot of the stairs and you did not see him? Are you blind? Witness (mopping his perspiring face and blushing furiously)—Must I tell the exact truth? Magistrate—Yes the whole truth and nothing but the truth. Witness (slowly)—Well, my wife was in front of me.
