Funeral of The Late W. H. Legge Held Wednesday

In the sudden death of W. H. Legge at his home, Jefferson, on Sunday morning, May 10th, the district lost one of its most widely known and most highly respected citizens, and the large number of friends and relatives who gathered to pay their last tribute at his funeral on Wednesday afternoon was evidence of the genuine sorrow occasioned by his sudden passing.

Although in failing health for about three years the late Mr. Legge was around as usual Sunday morning. After breakfast he enjoyed a walk about his garden and had just settled down to listen to his favorite church service over the radio when he was stricken suddenly and passed away in a few minutes.

A native of this district, Harry Legge as he was popularly known for many years, was an outstanding figure in the business, social and fraternal life of York County. During his very active life he came in contact with a great many people and wherever he was known he was honored and respected.

Following a private service at the home a service was held in St. John's Anglican Church, Oak Ridges. The service was in charge of Rev. W. F. Wrixon of Richmond Hill and assisting in the service were Rev. G. S. Despard of the Church of the Epiphany, Toronto and Rev. H. F. Battersby of Hastings, former Rectors. In his address Rev. Despard paid glowing tribute to the life of his friend, the late Mr. Legge. "I am glad of the privilege of having had him for a friend," he said, referring to his love of the church and his loyal and generous support given to its work. "He sincerely loved his church, he liked to mingle with his fellow men and be of service to them, and as a man he was the soul of honor."

In fraternal circles the late Harry Legge was very widely known and on many occasions was honored by his fellow members of the Masonic order for his distinguished service to the craft. He was Worshipful Master of Richmond Lodge No. 23 in 1908 and in 1916 was honored by election as District Deputy Grand Master and in this important office rendered outstanding service to the fraternity. He was a member of many city lodges and as well a member of the Royal Arch Masons and the Scottish Rite.

Always taking an active interest in public affairs, he was associated for many years with the Richmond Hill Agricultural Society and served for two years as president of the organization, and at the time of his death was honorary president. He also served as a director representing York and Peel Counties on the Fairs and Exhibitions Association of Ontario.

His wife, Elizabeth Ann Curtis, predeceased him 6 years ago and he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. P. C. Hill of Richmond Hill, two grandchildren, Miss Shirley and Master Harry Hill, three brothers, Edward and Ernest of Toronto, Frank of Whitechurch township, and five sisters, Mrs. Cappell, Oak Ridges, Mrs. Richardson, Aurora, Mrs. A. W. Brodie, Mrs. Freer and Miss Ethel Legge of Toronto.

This will necessitate immediate repairs which may prove to be fairly extensive.
