VELLORE

The play "Valley Farm" which was staged by the Vellore Junior Farmer Girls and Boys was presented in the Township Hall on Friday night. It was interesting throughout, good moral and enough comic to a satisfied audience. The cast is to be complimented on the presentation. Miss Elma Farr was presented with a bouquet of roses. Guitar selections were given by I. Price and Roy Snider and piano solo by Agnes McLean which added to the evening's entertainment.

Mr. Albert Rutherford and Margaret Watson, Kleinburg, Presidents of the Junior Farm Boys and Girls of York County visited the Stouffville Juniors this month. Miss Mary Constable, Miss Marion Phillips, Mrs. Wm. Craib and Mrs. C. H. Rutherford attended the First Annual Meeting of the Children's Aid Society of York County at York Cottage, Willowdale, on Wednesday. A presentation and party will be held in the Township Hall on Friday, May 22nd in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Graham. All groups and friends of the young people are cordially invited by the charivari boys, Pete Craib, Captain. George Constable, Frank Robson and Bob Julian—committee in charge.

HEADFORD

On Wednesday evening Miss Walker of Carrville gave a very helpful address on the King's English. Next Wednesday, May 27th, Mr. Grange will speak on his trip through the Panama. Everyone is urged to attend this meeting.
 The Annual Strawberry Festival will be held on June 24th. The Maple Y.P.S. will present the play, We are Coming. Please reserve this date and plan to attend.

NEWTONBROOK

The W.M.S. will meet next Tuesday, May 26th at 2.30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. H. B. Schmidt, Avondale Ave., Lansing. A shower will be held for the missionary bale and members are asked to bring their donations to this meeting.
 The Newtonbrook United Church Sunday School intend holding their annual picnic on Saturday afternoon, June 20th to Elm Park, Woodbridge.
 Temperance Sunday was observed last Sunday morning in the United Church Sunday School. Mr. Leslie Grisdale, Temperance sec'y gave a very interesting address. Another special feature was the presentation of Bibles or Hymnaries to thirty-five boys and girls for perfect attendance at Sunday School for two years.
 The Sisters of St. John the Divine of the Anglican Church are making a drive to raise $100,000 for equipment for the new convalescent hospital at Newtonbrook. They are hoping to open the hospital in the near future.
 Last Sunday was recognized as Flower Sunday in the United Church. The church was beautifully decorated with a profusion of pink and white blossoms which surrounded the altar and were placed in the windows. Suitable messages were delivered by the pastor, Rev. A. H. Halbert. Much credit is due the flower convener, Miss Edna Street, for the very lovely decorations.
 Mr. and Mrs. Lockyer and little daughter of Brooklyn, attended morning service in the United Church last Sunday and afterwards visited the former's brother, Mr. George Lockyer.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Soden and Miss Doris Soden spent last week end at their summer cottage at Balm Beach, Georgian Bay.
 Rev. A. H. and Mrs. Halbert attended a reunion of former ministers and friends at an anniversary banquet at Gifford United Church last week. Mr. Halbert was a junior pastor at Gifford some years ago.
 Members of the local W.M.S. are taking part in the prayer service at the Metropolitan Chapel next Friday at 10 a.m. The Auxiliaries of Lansing, Willowdale and Newtonbrook are in charge of this prayer service.
 The Sunday School executive will hold their regular monthly meeting in the S. S. hall of the Newtonbrook United Church this (Thursday) evening at 8 o'clock.
 The Girls' Mission Circle held their May meeting at the Parsonage last Thursday evening with a large attendance. Miss Irene Smith presided. The devotional service was conducted by Miss Lorene Brown and Miss Emma McPhail. Mrs. Frank McFarlane rendered two solos very acceptably. Miss Evelyn Pollett, secretary of Mission Circles of the W.M.S. Dominion Board, reviewed the Study Book on Africa, entitled "God's Candle Lights." A shower was held for the Missionary bale with a good response. It included a baby's lavette, knitted goods, quilt, children's toys, etc. A former member and officer of the Circle who is now living in Quebec sent a donation of knitted articles which were very much appreciated by the members. It was gratifying to know that although so far away she still took an interest in the Girls' Mission Circle at Newtonbrook. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Halbert and a social half hour followed.
 Rev. A. H. Halbert and Mr. Edward Brett attended Presbyterian meeting in Westminster Central Church, Toronto, last Tuesday.
 The Y.P.S. met last Monday evening with Mr. Jack Duggan citizenship convener in charge. Mr. W. T. New led in a discussion on "Youth building a new world," and current events. The closing meeting will be held next Monday evening with a banquet at 7.30.
