JULY 1ST CELEBRATION AT STOUFFVILLE
Come to Stouffville on July 1st. Baseball tournament in the afternoon for prizes of $25.00 and $10.00. Big Amateur hour in the evening in the arena. Ken Soble of CKCL will be master of ceremonies. Prizes of $20, $15 and $10 and the winner will be given an appearance on Ken Soble's Amateur hour over the air. Rehearsals at 5.30 in the arena. Applications received up until June 30th by Reg. Button, Stouffville.

GARDEN PARTY AT BUTONVILLE
Be sure to keep in mind the annual strawberry festival of the Butonville Women's Institute to be held at the home of Mr. Cline Burr 4th concession Markham just north of Butonville on July 8th. A real old fashioned home baked supper will be served. A program in the form of a play entitled "The Purple Tantrum" will also be provided. This is an excellent play and we think that no one will be disappointed. Supper will be served from 5 to 8.

WEDDING

EVANS-HAYES
An interesting wedding was solemnized in Maple United Church on Wednesday afternoon, June 17, when Evelyn Matilda Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hayes of Concord, became the bride of Mr. Ernest Arthur Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Evans. The church was prettily decorated with peonies, roses and carnations and the Pastor, Rev. A. M. Partridge, officiated. Mrs. Routley played the wedding music and during the signing of the register Mrs. Merritt sang "All Joy be Thine." The bride given in marriage by her father wore a gown of Ivory Applique Lace over white satin with embroidered veil flowing in soft folds from a Coronet of Pearls, and carried a bouquet of Talisman Roses, Lily-of-the-valley and Maiden hair fern. Mrs. D. Jarrett, sister of the groom, was Matron of Honor gowned in pale pink Organdy with white Crepe hat and carried a bouquet of Talisman Roses and Baby's Breath. The bridesmaids were Miss May Evans and Miss Hilda Luffman and they wore blue Organdy with white Crepe hats and carried bouquets of pink carnations. Mr. D. Jarrett, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man and Mr. Lester Smith and Mr. George Cameron were ushers. The bride's mother wore a silver crepe dress trimmed with lace, white hat, and a corsage of mauve Orchids. The groom's mother was attired in Rosewood Crepe with matching hat and corsage of mauve Orchids. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Concord, when guests attended from Rochester, Toronto, Maple and Concord. Later the couple left on a trip to Windsor and the Border Cities, the bride travelling in yellow crepe with accessories to match. On their return they will reside in Concord.

GOLD
The representative of Vimy Gold Mine Limited is visiting in the Richmond Hill district. He is Wm. Dowson who spent a number of years homesteading and later prospecting in the north. He knows the Kirkland Lake and Porcupine districts well, and is particularly interested in the Ramore-Hislop Camp. He has a fund of knowledge gained from actual experience with mines and mining in Northern Ontario. We recommend him to you as one who has interesting things to say and who will not unduly press the property he represents.
For information regarding any mine you may be interested in, write to him at box 13, Willowdale, Ontario.

VEJLORE

The June meeting of the W.M.S. of St. Paul's, Vaughan, was held at the home of Mrs. Nelson Kerr. Mrs. Jas. Robson presided and the Roll Call was answered by a Product of India. In the World Cruise of Missionary Study for the year India was reached and Miss Jennie Egan, Mrs. J. A. McNeil and Miss Edith Kingdon outlined the work, the stations and also how our missionaries shared their vocation. Mrs. J. A. McNeil gave Gleanings from the Glad Tidings and Mrs. J. Egan rendered a solo "There is a green hill far away." The hostess and the committee served a dainty luncheon at the close and a social hour was spent.
Misses Florence, Mary and Roberta Lindsay spent the week-end with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bates.
A number from the district attended the Cooper-Castator wedding in Teston church on Saturday. We all join in wishing the young couple long-lived happiness in their wedded life.
Congratulations to the Vaughan boys and girls for bringing back the most coveted Township Trophies donated by Wilford Duffy, Newmarket and the Provincial Savings Bank for the highest township teams in York County Judging Competition for the boys and girls projects.
Mr. Art McNeil called on his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McNeil last week.
Misses Jane and Sara McNeil joined the Normal excursion to Niagara Falls on Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rutherford attended the funeral of the late Mrs. (Dr.) Reynar of Palgrave on Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. A. L. McNeil, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rutherford and Geo. Brownlee attended the Warden's "John O. Little of Newmarket" picnic at Jackson's Point on Saturday.
Thirty-five of the members of the Vellore Women's Institute motored to the O.A.C., Guelph on Thursday to meet with the Associated Country Women of the World. At 12 o'clock luncheon was served by the College and at 2 p.m. a programme was staged on the campus with the use of amplifiers. A number of the husbands accompanied their wives and a live stock parade and sheep breeders' conference along with a survey of the ground offered entertainment for the men. A picnic luncheon before leaving when fifty-one in all enjoyed the eats and lemonade provided by the ladies.
The 48th anniversary of the laying of the corner stone of St. Paul's Church, Vaughan, will be held on June 28th. Rev. Mr. Mustard of Oakwood will conduct the services. Knox Male Chorus with Gordon McGillivray as leader will lead the Service of Song. A strawberry festival will be held on Tuesday, June 30th in the Township Hall grounds at Vellore. A play "An Old Fashioned Mother" will be presented by the Nobleton Anglican Young People and music will be provided between acts. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

KING CITY

The second annual Grandmothers' meeting of the W.M.S. of the United Church took place at the home of Mrs. W. A. Carson on June 11th. The guest speaker was Mrs. Roger Self of Toronto, (Pres. of Toronto Centre Presbytery), who gave an interesting address. Mrs. Hicks, (Vice Pres. of this district) was also present and led in prayer. Mrs. G. H. Stone read the scripture and Mrs. J. Patton gave the devotional leaflet. Mrs. Proctor and Mrs. Whitney sang a lovely duet "The Beautiful Garden of Prayer." Mrs. Graves of Newmarket, mother of Mrs. W. Carson, sang a solo accompanied by her youngest daughter, Mrs. H. Pegg. After the meeting a social hour was enjoyed and a dainty luncheon was served. Guests from out of the village were: Mrs. R. Self and Mrs. Andrews of Toronto, Mrs. Hicks and Miss Marion Case, Newtonbrook; Mrs. Farren, Snowball; Mrs. A. M. Clarke, Aurora; Mrs. Graves, Newmarket; Mrs. H. Pegg, Sharon; Mrs. W. Couch, Holt, and Mrs. Widdifield, Pine Orchard.
Nearly two hundred and fifty attended the Teachers' and Superintendents' Rally of Toronto Centre Presbytery which took place in the United Church Monday of last week. A number of friends and members of Robertson Lodge attended the funeral of the late Hon. E. J. Davis, a former citizen of this community, on Tuesday afternoon of last week at Newmarket.

The Y.P.U. held the closing meeting of the summer on Wednesday evening of last week in the form of a Sunset Service. Owing to the cold evening however the meeting took place in the basement of the church. After the service a presentation of a large beautiful picture was made to Mr. and Mrs. J. Dew. A number of the young ladies spent a social evening at the home of Mrs. G. H. Stone on Tuesday when Mrs. Stone and daughter Mrs. Whitney had a grocery shower in honor of the brides-elect, Misses Dorothy and Marguerite Dew.
Miss Hilda Patton and Mrs. E. Patton held a party on Friday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. E. Patton in honor of the brides. The afternoon was spent in playing Court Whist after which a dainty supper was served. As a surprise of the evening Misses Dorothy and Marguerite Dew were the recipients of many useful gifts from a Woolworth Shower.
Mr. A. Frost of Maple had charge of the service in the United Church on Sunday evening owing to the pastor taking a service in Toronto for the speaker of the evening at Teston Anniversary.
A kitchen shower was tendered Miss Marguerite Dew at the church on Monday evening of this week.

Notice to Richmond Hill Electric Light Users

The Richmond Hill Electric Commission is co-operating in the Electric Range Campaign sponsored by the Ontario Hydro, and for a limited period makes the following very special offer.

To any electric light customer in Richmond Hill who purchases and installs for use an electric range, your local commission will bear the cost of changing from a two wire to a three wire service.

All local dealers are co-operating in this campaign and this offer applies to the purchase of a stove made from any dealer.

Cook by electricity — It's Cool — It's Cheap — It's Efficient.
