WOODBIDGE

Picnic is Held in Elliston Park
North Toronto Old Boys trooped in to Elliston Park on Saturday coming from Oakville, Burlington, Oshawa and other points and enjoyed an afternoon together once more recalling past incidents, running races and playing games. A ball game keenly contested between married and single men was won by the married men.

Another party who enjoyed an outing at the park was the Carlton St. United Church Choir, Toronto.

Blough Clan Hold Reunion Picnic
The seventh annual picnic of the Blough Clan was held at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Boddy, Lot 11, Concession 9, Vaughan, on Saturday last when members attended from Buffalo, Niagara Falls, St. Thomas, Stratford, Listowel, Collingwood, Palmerston, Meaford, Guelph, Tottenham, Owen Sound, Toronto and local parts. Dinner and supper were served on the lawn and games which included horseshoe pitching and softball were indulged in during the afternoon. In the evening a program of readings was provided by Miss Pearl Newton, entertainer of Toronto and Danny Kitchener by guitar, soloist of Woodbridge. Officers elected for the coming year were: President, Wes. Boddy, Woodbridge; Vice-president, Elmer Witherspoon, Kleinburg; Secretary-treasurer, U. R. Shunk. It was decided to hold the picnic next year at the same place.

Knox Church Celebrates 91st Anniversary

The 91st Anniversary of the establishment of Knox Church originally organized by the Sommervilles, McGillvrays, McKinnons, Burtons, Camerons, Archers, Lawries, Kings and Hilsons, was celebrated on Sunday last when services both morning and evening were conducted by Rev. J. D. Cunningham of Richmond Hill who delivered interesting messages to capacity congregations, many coming from distant parts who had been attendants at Knox in days long past and who came to reunite with old friends for the day. Suitable music was provided by Gordon McGillvray's male choir with solos by Rev. J. S. Roe, minister of the church.

Mr. S. T. Scott, grain and coal dealer, with Mrs. Scott and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Ranesbottom and son Billy, of Erin, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Scott, Pine Street.

Mr. Ben Gray of Hillsburg visited Charles Tamblin on Monday.
Miss Esther Bessey, School Principal

Showered by Friends

Miss Esther Bessey who has been principal of School Section No. 13 for the past six years has resigned to become the bride of Mr. Ross Miller of Lot 20, Concession 10, Vaughan Township. Miss Bessey has been the recipient of many useful gifts from showers held in her honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Troyer sponsored by the ratepayers of the school, and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Allen sponsored by Mrs. Bert Smithson and Misses Marjorie Blake and Marie Allen. A Trousseau Tea was held on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Smithson when many friends called.

Mrs. A. Carroll and Mrs. Mary Fairgrieve attended the McKitterick-Byers family picnic at Stanley Park, Erin.

Late James Brown

James Brown, aged 64, died at his home No. 7 Highway East, on Monday following a brief illness. Mr. Brown was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, and was born on the farm where he died and lived all his life. His ancestors were Woodbridge pioneers and owned the property on which the old mill stands and is still operated. He was a presbyterian in religion and a Liberal in politics. The funeral took place on Wednesday with interment in Hillcrest cemetery and was largely attended. Surviving are his widow who before her marriage was Miss Flora Cameron, a daughter Evelyn, a sister Miss Laura Brown, and a brother William Brown.

Late James Geddes

Woodbridge friends received word that James Geddes of West Toronto had died at his home on Tuesday morning. Mr. Geddes was a resident of Woodbridge for many years in his early life and was one of the most popular youths of the district. He was a blacksmith by trade and an expert horseshoe timer having won prizes at fairs for his high-class workmanship. He later became a successful salesman for Agricultural implements.

Woodbridge folk welcome the new shoe repairing shop on Pine Street operated by Tom Hickey of Toronto. J. W. McKay who managed the Williams Rubber Works for the past year left for Nitro West Virginia on Saturday last where he accepted a position in a chemical plant.

Ministers Exchange Pulpits
Rev. J. E. Anderson of Woodbridge and Rev. McDonald of Victoria Square exchanged pulpits on Sunday night last, the occasion being Anniversary services at Victoria Square United Church.
