THORNHILL

On Monday evening the Thornhill Orchestra, with their friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thompson, in honor of Miss Marguerite Echlin, who is to be married on Saturday afternoon in Thornhill United Church. Mr. Thompson, President of the Orchestra, read an address of appreciation and Miss Effie Bird presented Miss Echlin with a very pretty silver rose bowl. Twenty-four were present and enjoyed a delightful evening on the lawn, where refreshments were served.

Last Wednesday night the Board of the United Church presented Miss Echlin and Mr. Davies with a handsome silver tray, the Sunday School giving them a beautifully bound Bible. The following address was read:

Dear Marguerite:— We, your associates of the Thornhill Orchestra, wish to extend to you our most sincere felicitations on your approaching marriage, and to extend our very cordial good wishes for your future happiness. We would like you to have during your years of happy married life, a tangible and lasting evidence of our good-will and a reminder of the many good times we have had together.

You have endeavored yourself to us all by your willingness to help in all we have undertaken, and inspired us by your patience and cheerfulness, and these same characteristics will carry you safely along your road of Home-maker.

"How blessed are the Homemakers Whose joy it is to stay And do the tiny trifling tasks Day after day.

Who get up coal and sweep the steps And light the kitchen fire, Making a lyric of their lives To suit an angel's lyre.

Yes, blessed are those royal souls Who work in any weather, Who rise up early every day To keep a home together."

So, with our heartiest good wishes for a long and happy married life, we ask you to accept this piece of silver.

Signed on behalf of the orchestra, July 13, 1936.

J. A. Thompson, Pres. C. Martin, Treas.

The time of the year is here when people who wouldn't think of eating with a fly on their table will go on a picnic and eat a meal in the presence of a thousand flies, to say nothing of the ants, gnats, chiggers, bugs, and varied other flying insects and crawling critters.

WOODBRIDGE DISTRICT NEWS

Queen Victoria L.O.B.A. Lodge Wins Honours at Parade

West York District Orange Lodges which includes West Toronto, Islington, Mount Dennis, Lambton, Weston, Concord and Woodbridge, were in the big parade at Brampton on Saturday, July 11th. Woodbridge Lodges taking part were, N. Clarke Wallace L.O.L., Queen Victoria L.O.B.A., and Mary Callum Lodge of Juveniles. A cash prize offered for the best appearing L.O.B.A. Lodge in the parade, although competition was keen, was won by the Woodbridge L.O.B.A. headed by Worthy Mistress Sister Edna E. Smith. Woodbridge folk have good reason to feel proud of the community's representation of Woodbridge ladies at such a large gathering as that held in Brampton on Saturday last. Besides this is the fourth successive Orange parade in which honors have been bestowed on the ladies of Queen Victoria L.O.B.A.

Orange Lodges Meet at Nobleton on Sunday, July 12th

Orange Lodges of the District who attended divine worship sponsored by Nobleton Orange Lodge at Nobleton on Sunday, July 12th, were from Schomberg, Bolton, King City and Aurora, together with members of Queen Victoria L.O.B.A. Lodge of Woodbridge with Worthy Mistress Sister Edna E. Smith in charge. The parade started at the Nobleton Orange Hall to the Anglican Church where the members were addressed by Rev. Abbott, Rector of the church.

Four Acre Filtering System Installed

A matter that has been disturbing the peace of mind of Woodbridge residents as well as that of residents of the surrounding district is the offensive odor emanating from the stream, a tributary to the Humber river running south on the west side of the Village, which carries away the waste dye water from the William Robinson and Sons Dyers and Converters plant at the north-west corner of the Village. Legal battles have been fought in court between the firm, the Village and farmers through whose property the stream runs. The firm has spent big sums of money through the installation of a system of huge tanks in an effort to control the condition and all so far have proved unsatisfactory. It is hoped that the situation has at last been mastered by the Robinson firm who recently purchased a block of four acres of flats land adjacent to the stream, from Alex. Cameron, around which a five foot dyke has been constructed forming a four acre lake or basin which will hold a six months supply of waste water to be filtered and emptied through a system of water gates thus preventing any sediment or poisonous matter to flow down the stream and into the Humber. This has been a big undertaking for the firm who deserve great credit for the liberal way the matter has been handled.

Mr. Fred Hickey and family have erected a cottage in the cottage section at Pine Grove.

Mrs. J. W. Dalziel entertained at a Bon Voyage Tea on Monday in honour of her sister, Mrs. T. W. Curry of Buckhannon, West Virginia, and her daughter, Miss Jessie Dalziel, who are accompanying Major A. A. McKenzie on the Vimy Ridge Pilgrimage.

LATE COLIN CAMERON

Colin Cameron who at the age of 65 died at his home at Thistletown on Thursday was buried in Knox Cemetery, Elders Mills, on Saturday, July 11th. The funeral service conducted by Rev. J. S. Roe was held in Woodbridge Presbyterian Church and was attended by many friends and neighbors. Mr. Cameron was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Cameron and was born on the Island of Iona, Argyleshire, Scotland, and came to Canada with his parents in 1852 living for a time at Vellore, then as a youth moved to Toronto Gore where he farmed before and after his marriage to Ann Jane Higgins, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ellerby Higgins of Shelburne on Christmas Day 1879. It was about forty years ago that he moved to Etobicoke where he farmed until retirement. Deceased was a widely known breeder of draft horses, and a regular exhibitor at the C.N.E. together with many Fall Fairs throughout the Province. He was among the last of native born Highlanders who could speak the Gaelic language which he always did when at all possible. Mr. Cameron was a devout Presbyterian and one of the community's stalwart liberals. Surviving are, his widow, four daughters and three sons, they are, Mrs. Henry Griffith, Thistletown; Mrs. William Kingdon, Thistletown; Mrs. Lorne Cousins, Aurora; Mrs. Hadley Coles, Toronto; John Cameron, Etobicoke; William Cameron, Vaughan Township; and Colin Cameron, Jr., at Burwash. John Black, a brother, at Nashville, in his 89th year, is hale and hearty. The pallbearers, all nephews, were, John Hostrawser, William Hostrawser, Fred Hostrawser, Norman Black, Garnet Higgins and Albert Wigglesworth.
