

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

Legend of Rosemary

There once was a lady divinely tall, Who lived high up in a castle wall, And longed to be lord in her husband's hall. A troubadour chanced to be passing by, As the lady looked down from her casement high. He stood at the foot of the castle wall, And sang to the lady, divinely tall, Who longed to be lord of her husband's hall; "A holy father from over 'the sea, Has brought me this cutting of Rosemary. "Plant it carefully by the wall, If it grows a tree, both healthy and tall, You shall be lord of your husband's hall." The lady listened and so it befell, She wore the doublet and hose as well. And even today There are cynics who say; The wife who means to master her man Must trot down the path with her watering can— And, if you follow her, you will see She always waters her Rosemary. —Reginald Arkell.

With Ebenezer and Locust Hill United Church W.A.'s as guests, the Women's Association of Central United Church held a most successful meeting in the Sunday School room on Thursday afternoon of last week. The meeting was also honored by the attendance of ten members of the Executive of East Toronto Presbytery who gave the program that had been arranged by the secretary, Mrs. LeGarde. Mrs. E. Bewell of the local organization presided. Greetings were brought to the meeting by representatives of the visiting societies, Mrs. W. H. Lapp, Locust Hill and Mrs. Chas. Miles of Ebenezer. The devotional part of the program was in charge of Mrs. Ewing, Mrs. Virgin reading the Bible lesson. An interesting talk on "Holidays" by Mrs. Shipp, readings by Mrs. Webb, Vocal selections by Mrs. Barkey and an instrumental solo by Mrs. Hammond were pleasing items on the program. Following the program a vote of appreciation, moved by Mrs. C. H. Chant and seconded by Mrs. A. E. Milner was given the ladies for the splendid entertainment.

During the tea hour when refreshments were served by the Unionville ladies Mrs. Watkins of Don Mills expressed on behalf of the visitors a cordial "Thank you" for the courtesy shown by the sister organization.

There were sixty-two ladies in attendance at this interesting meeting. Our new fire alarm siren was put into practical use last Thursday morning when a hurry up call was put in for help to fight the fire that resulted in the complete destruction of the barn buildings on the farm of John Grant one-half mile east of Hagerman. It is agreed that spontaneous combustion was the direct cause of the conflagration. A horse, a calf, a pig, two hundred bushels of grain and all of this season's hay are included in the loss which was partly covered by insurance. The farm is known to many as the Canning homestead, passing into the possession of the Grant family some twenty years ago. The fire brigades of both Unionville and Markham deserve credit for the able assistance given in fighting the spreading of the fire into nearby grain fields.

The Junior Farmers organizations were doomed for a disappointment at the August meeting, when Mr. J. W. Collins, New Zealand Trade Commissioner in Canada, the guest speaker of the evening, was unable to be present. But these resourceful young folk are not easily daunted and an impromptu social evening brought about a good time for everyone. The lucky draw resulted in prizes going to Harlow Stonehouse and Edna Irwin, the monthly intelligence manuscript read by Cameron Kennedy and then away to the Markham Fair building for the Dance. We almost forgot to tell you that ice cream was on the menu again this month with the girls bringing the accompaniments, barrels of cookies. There was the usual large attendance at the meeting with the genial president, Kenneth Deacon in charge.

The Men's Trebles Tournament, sponsored by the local Bowling club brought rinks from North Toronto, Withrow, Monarch Park, Highland Creek, Markham, Stouffville and Agincourt. A right good game is reported with the following winners, Mr. West, N. Toronto, 3 wins, 39 plus 3; W. Summerfeldt, Unionville, 2 wins 35; G. Brown, Markham, 1 win 33. A Ladies' Trebles Tournament is scheduled for Monday evening next. Club enthusiasm is prevailing throughout the season with new members being added to the roll and the interest keen. The weekly ten cent tournament was won by W. Summerfeldt's rink, that included Mrs. Summerfeldt and Olive Martin.

At a special meeting of the Horticultural Society Executive held at the home of Miss M. Sommerville on Wednesday regret was expressed at the necessity for cancelling the annual flower show for this year. The dry season making scarcity of bloom is the reason. Plans were discussed for your special entertainment in the near future. Watch for further particulars. A real treat is promised.

Verse for the Kiddies Did you ever see the clever leaves Saying their prayers at night, Just as the dusk is falling, Before the stars peep out— Each little green head bowed Over two folded hands. They're not just going to sleep I know they are saying their prayers. If you listen with your heart, You can almost hear their voices, Thanking God for all His goodness, For sunshine and dew and rain, If clover leaves pray to God at night Much more then should you and I. Letters From The People

COMMENTS REEVE FOR STAND ON LIBRARY APPOINTMENT

Richmond Hill, August 6, 1936.

Editor, The Liberal
Sir:— I most heartily agree with Taxpayer and Reeve Greene re position of Public Librarian. There are several partially disabled returned men, on a very small pension unable to do manual work. Their pension is barely enough to get by on and such a position would have been a God-send. These men have given the best of their lives, their health, their limbs, in order that we might continue to enjoy such blessings as Public Reading Libraries. It's the least a grateful community could do through their Public Library Board, is to offer an opportunity to such men to earn their living. Instead they give it to a single man holding a lucrative position elsewhere. All honour to our Reeve for his stand on this matter. It's too bad there are not more like him on our Public bodies in Richmond Hill.

There is too much street corner and telephone lobbying for positions in this community. Accept every applicant on their merit, with an eye to the taxpayers purse, should be the motto of all our public bodies. It might be beneficial Mr. Editor if you would publish the names of the present members of the Public Library Board.

Yours sincerely,
Comme il faut.

FIRE THREATENED CROPS

About 8.30 a.m. last Sunday fire of an unknown origin broke out on the second concession of Markham opposite lot 25 add made its way into a field of grain belonging to Mr. Ralph Wideman. The flames made rapid progress but were held in check by the heroic efforts of Bob Campbell until neighbours and the Richmond Hill Fire brigade arrived and finally got the fire under control.

HAY BALERS TO PLAY FOR STREET DANCE

There is a keen demand for tickets for the Richmond Hill Street dance which will be held Wednesday, August 26th. It was announced this week that Rus Creighton and his Hay Balers would supply the music for dancing and this popular orchestra is sure to attract a large crowd. A special attraction will be little Jackie Perkins, 4-year-old singing star heard over CFRB on the Hay Balers' program every Tuesday night at 9.30 p.m.

Don't miss Kerr Brothers grocery specials in this issue.

SPORTS

TOWN LEAGUE LACROSSE

Town League Lacrosse came back with a bang Tuesday night when a great crowd attended the arena to see two very good games of lacrosse. Richmond Hill Midgets defeated Richvale 4-1 in the first game. The boys played mighty smart lacrosse and showed good coaching in their passing plays.

Maple and Richmond Hill Juveniles played a 5-5 tie in the second game. The crowd was in an uproar over this game. It had a little of everything in it and if these teams play like this always the Rink won't be able to hold the crowds.

Reeve Greene opened the Town Lacrosse League Tuesday night with some well chosen words of advice to the players on playing the game and not the man. This advice applies to the Juveniles particularly.

Thursday night—Midgets, Richmond Hill vs. Maple. Juvenile, Richvale vs. Richmond Hill.

Owing to Aurora and East York wanting to enter the league the schedule for next week is not available but the games will go on as usual, Tuesday and Thursday nights.

The managers of the various teams must be ready to play when scheduled so as to get the games over by 11 o'clock.

TESTON

An interesting meeting was held at Young People's Union on Sunday evening last. Sadie Windas was in charge of the Christian Fellowship program. The guest speaker was Mrs. Edith Luesby of Thornhill who gave a very able talk on the subject "Chain or Links of Fellowship."

As Rev. Davis is on holidays there will be no church service for two Sundays. On Sunday, August 16th, there will be Sunday School and Young People's Union. Next Sunday Rev. Davis has extended to Teston, Laskay and King an invitation to visit him at Duclos Point. You may go any time after breakfast and bring your lunch, tea and cocoa will be furnished. At 7 p.m. a Sunset Service will be held. All who can should accept the Pastor's invitation and make it a day. Don't forget your bathing suit, if you have one.

The Sunday School picnic held under the auspices of the W.A. on Albert Ireland's flats was enjoyed by a good turnout. A splendid supper was served at six o'clock when the ladies treated all to ice cream. There was no special program but many speeches were made on items of interest.

Mr. James McNeil of Maple who is in his 84th year helped shock oats one afternoon last week. This is remarkable and goes to show that Mr. McNeil has not lost some of his youthful vigor at this well advanced age.

Teston seems to have had an exciting week. At Wes. Clarkson's threshing one afternoon, just as the floor was being cleaned up, some one thoughtlessly knocked out the table brace bringing the table down and with it Mr. Allen, manager of Armae Farms. Mr. Allen suffered facial injuries and was taken to the hospital but is home again and improving. Also a stack of old alskie straw at Armae Farms was ordered burned last Thursday and was apparently under control but on Saturday broke out again setting fire to the bush. The fire alarm brought help and the firemen from Maple were soon on hand. Later Richmond Hill Brigade arrived and all were kept busy until Sunday morning. Sunday afternoon a smaller fire broke out but was soon under control and the shower on Monday evening did much to help as water had to be drawn. Fire in a dry spell like this is very bad. Some grain had to be cut and furrows plowed to prevent spreading, but all who could worked hard to get the fire extinguished. Mr. Ed. Bowen visited his aunt Mrs. Jennet in Thornton over the week-end. Miss Dorothy Castator of Thistle-town visited here on Sunday and attended Y.P.U. in the evening. Miss Gladys Eagen of Toronto was home for a few days. Miss Jean Lamb of Toronto, who has been spending part of her vacation with Mrs. Frank Piercey, has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Irvine of Toronto visited Mr. and Mrs. Ranes-bottom on Saturday evening. Mrs. J. Smyllie of Toronto spent her holidays with her parents Mr. and Mrs. George Taggart. Mr. Smyllie was out for the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McDonald, Mrs. Wm. Marwood and Master Ken spent Sunday with friends at Cookstown.

WEDDING

PRICE—WALKER

A very pretty lawn wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Walker, Edgeley, on Wednesday, July 29, when their daughter, Laurene Beatrice, became the bride of Mr. Clarence C. Price of Montreal, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Price of Richmond Hill. The marriage took place under an arch of evergreens banked with summer flowers. Rev. A. M. Partridge of Maple officiated and Miss Mary Walker of Guthrie played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of ivory moss crepe and lace with picture hat. She carried Briarcliff roses, fern and baby's breath. Miss Mabel Walker was her sister's bridesmaid wearing shell pink sheers with picture hat and carried opelia roses and baby's breath. The groom was supported by Mr. John Bruce of Thornhill. During the signing of the register Mr. Harold Walker, cousin of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly."

After a buffet supper the happy couple left for Muskoka and points north. For travelling the bride wore a natural linen suit with nigger brown accessories. On their return they will reside in Montreal.
