

NEWTONBROOK

Very successful Rally Day Services were held in the United Church last Sunday. The church was well filled. The intermediate S. S. choir of about twenty voices led in the service of praise and gave a special number. Master Bobby Connor, boy singer, of whom the S. S. is very proud, sang a solo. Miss Beatrice Johnston and Mr. Clifford Brett assisted the pastor in reading the Scripture passages and Miss Margaret Shaw told the story to the Juniors in a very capable way. The pastor based his remarks on the subject "We too will bring our treasures," emphasizing that the greatest treasure we can bring our Master is our hearts and lives in loving service. Master Jackie Cosburn recited a poem "My Gift." The Sunday School teachers with their classes occupied the centre seats and many of the side seats at the front.

The Bible Study test of the Intermediate-Senior Lessons will be taken next Sunday during the S. S. session in the United Church. Small cards are given in recognition for passing the tests each quarter, and large certificates will be presented to S. S. pupils for passing three tests.

Newtonbrook United Church will celebrate its 79th anniversary on Sunday, Oct. 18th with services at 11 and 7 p.m. and will be followed by an Anniversary Supper the following week.

The Y. P. Union Rally of the Toronto Centre Suburban area held in Newtonbrook United Church last Monday evening was a decided success. Mr. Cyril Baker, the president, presided. Mr. Fred Western, pres. of the Y. P. Council introduced the main speaker of the evening, Dr. T. H. Sun, who based his remarks on "The Rural Reconstruction Movement of China." Dr. Sun is a fluent speaker and his address was very much worth while. The Young People were highly honored in hearing him. A solo by Mr. Jack Oliver of Carrville was much enjoyed. There was a large representation from the various Y. P. Unions in the district.

Miss Margaret Shaw is attending Toronto Normal School. Mr. Clifford Brett is commencing this week his college term in Victoria University.

Miss Eveline Rochester of Mount Irwin is visiting her sister Mrs. Mills.

We are sorry to hear that Miss Margaret Grisdale is on the sick list and hope she soon will be around again.

Rev. J. J. Ferguson of Toronto was a guest at the parsonage last Sunday.

Rev. A. H. Halbert is attending the Alumni Association of Victoria College this week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Summers attended Carrville United Church Anniversary services last Sunday.

Rev. A. E. Owen of Unionville will preach in Newtonbrook United Church next Sunday evening, Sept. 27th at 7 o'clock (Standard Time). His subject will be "The Vimy Memorial Service." Rev. Mr. Owen has returned recently from a trip to the Continent. A special invitation is extended to ex-service men. Everybody welcome.

The United Church Young People's Council (Centre Suburban) will sponsor a Fall Training School commencing next Monday evening at 7.45. The devotional service will be conducted by Rev. J. MacDonald in Willowdale United Church, then the classes will proceed to the Queen Mary Public School. The following instructors in charge of the classes are: Mrs. Ruby I. Kingswood will conduct the course on "Personal Christian Living." Rev. A. H. Halbert will conduct the Missionary course "Into all the World." Rev. E. E. Pugsley "Christian Youth Building a Warless World." Rev. F. N. Bowes "Message of Jesus for the life of today."

There will be a recreational period each evening. The classes will be held on Monday and Thursday evenings at 7.45. Sept. 28th, Oct. 1st, Oct. 5th, Oct. 8th, Oct. 13th and Oct. 15th.

It is hoped that the Young People of this Centre Suburban area will take advantage of this Training School.

The W. M. S. Auxiliary held its September meeting at the home of Mrs. Murray last Tuesday afternoon with a good attendance. The meeting was in charge of the Associate Helpers and Strangers Secretaries with Mrs. A. W. Stephenson presiding and Mrs. James Murray conducting the devotional service. Mrs. C. E. Gardiner, Associate Helpers Sec'y of Toronto Centre Presbyterian gave a concise report of the work that this Branch of the W.M.S. was accomplishing. The story of the life of a Ukraine girl of the second generation was presented by Mrs. Murray. A solo was sung very acceptably by Mrs. Allan Wiltshire. The new Study Book "Men and Women of Far Horizons" was introduced. It presents a wonderful picture of missionary achievements in many fields and brings us many interesting stories of modern missionary work. Mrs. Halbert closed the meeting with prayer. Refreshments were served by the hostess and a happy half hour spent.

THORNHILL

The Thornhill Horticultural Society held a flower show on Monday night in the Thornhill Public School. Mr. John Hall of Toronto was judge and competition was keen as all exhibits were very fine. The following were the prize winners:

VEJLORE

The W.M.S. of St. Paul's, Vaughan held their September meeting at the home of Mrs. Milton McDonald, Maple. The President, Mrs. James Robson, presided and the topic was a study of the Eastern Division of the Women's Missionary Work in Canada and was in charge of Mrs. J. L. McGillivray, Mrs. Constable and Mrs. Weldrick. At the close of the meeting the annual bale was packed for Home Missionary work which consisted of seven quilts, knitted mitts, rompers, clothing etc. The Mission Band members were present and presented their bale which showed a busy year's work and a keen interest in the ones who had not the same privileges that they enjoyed. The hostess, committee and members of the Band served a very dainty luncheon.

Messrs. Elmo Snider and Albert Rutherford are on the third week on the Jury in Toronto.

A number from the district attended the Teston Young People's Society Corn and Weiner Roast held in Windas flats last week.

Vellore Athletic Club held a successful dance in the Township Hall on School Fair night. Lester Smith's orchestra provided the music and Ernie Evans was floor manager.

Christ Church Young People Open Season

The opening meeting of Christ Church A.Y.P.A. held in the basement of the church on Monday night last was well attended. The new president, Harry Watts, occupied the chair and following the Scripture Reading by Ruth Wallace and an address by Rev. J. H. Kidd business was transacted, an item of importance being an invitation extended to the West York Deanery of the Local Council of the A.Y.P.A. to hold Communion at Christ Church on the morning of Thanksgiving, October 12th.

Cottage dwellers of the Pine Grove Camp Colony ended the summer season on Saturday night last with a dance and euchre party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fraser. Mr. Fraser who is an ex-sergeant of the Toronto Police and a leading spirit in the camp colony has sold his prize winning home and just completed a new cottage on the edge of the Humber.

Woodbridge Fair Grounds are being put in order for the homecoming of Old Boys and Girls during the fair on October 10-12. All buildings, ticket booths, hydro poles and posts around the ring are being painted red and white under the supervision of Gus Maynard.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smithson are about to take up residence on the farm above Kleinburg recently purchased by F. W. Hicks from Lorne McEwen of Weston. Mr. Hicks who formerly managed the Hicks Flour Mill at Pine Grove and sold to Hayhoe Brothers of Toronto, has retired and living in Toronto.

The acreage of wheat sown is said to be large and the growth very satisfactory. Grass and alfalfa fields are making an abundant growth as a result of recent rains. Robert Parr, a Toronto Gore farmer, reports a yield of 1000 bushels of fall wheat on a 20 acre field.

David Locke, a life long resident of Woodbridge left for Vancouver on Tuesday last.

United Church W. M. S. Hold Sept. Meeting

The attendance was good at the September meeting of the United Church W.M.S. held at the home of Mrs. K. Stevenson, No. 7 Highway East. Mrs. Stevenson presided and the program included a talk by Mrs. C. Tamblin on the annual report, an address by Mrs. J. E. Anderson, a vocal duet by Mrs. G. W. Shore and Miss Laura Brown. Tea was served by the hostess assisted by her daughter Mary at the close.

Woodbridge Tennis Club Dance

Woodbridge Tennis Club held one of the most successful dances of its career at Elm Park Pavilion on Friday night of last week under the direction of Miss Vera Smith, Arthur Kidd and Jack Davidson. Among the business men who donated prizes were: J. G. Whitmore, W. R. Scott, Bert Harris, R. T. Wallace, H. N. Smith, W. S. Belfry, and Ronald Thomson. The new tennis court on 8th Avenue is said to be one of the most attractive in the district.

Among the numerous business enterprises started in Woodbridge during the past decade was the Patterson Dairy with an up-to-date pasteurizing plant. At present another plant is being installed by G. W. Bagg who recently took over the Provision Store operated by Lorne A. Bagg for a number of years.

PRESENTATION TO RETIRING TEACHER

The Ratepayers of School Section No. 23 Kinghorn met at the school on Friday evening of last week to pay tribute to Mr. Walter Rolling for his forty-one years of service as teacher of the school. About two hundred attended and an interesting program was provided which included the school children and solos by Miss Muriel Thorpe, an ex-pupil and was interspersed with speeches by Inspector W. H. Carlton of Bradford, Mr. A. J. H. Eckhardt and Mr. L. Whitelaw of Toronto, Reeve J. P. Jefferson, Deputy-Reeve J. F. Lawson, H. H. Sawdon, Township Clerk, Schomberg, Mr. Earl Scott, ex-Trustee. Councillor Cameron Walkington was chairman. The presentation of a handsome chair and floor lamp was made to Mr. Rolling during the evening by trustees Ernest Hollingshead, Emmerson Thorpe and Albert Richards. Miss Zelta Hollingshead read the address. Also a beautiful bouquet was presented to Mrs. Rollings. The new teacher, Miss Bessie McBride was introduced to the Inspector and Ratepayers. Also present were 2 former teachers, Miss Alice Ferguson who was Mr. Rollings' predecessor in 1892-3-4, and Miss Elizabeth Tinline who had her initial teaching experience in 1867 and was Mr. Rollings' teacher at Strange. She was the teacher when the first Dominion Day Holiday was held. A social hour followed the program.

At this stage of the Spanish war you can't tell whether the winners will have to learn Italian or Russian.

CARRVILLE

The Carrville Anniversary Services were largely attended last Sunday at both services. The speakers at both services were very inspiring and much enjoyed. The Carrville Church also wishes to thank the Thornhill and Victoria Square choirs who gave such good music.
