

NEWTONBROOK

TEMPERANCEVILLE

Newtonbrook United Church will celebrate its 79th anniversary on Sunday, Oct. 18th with special services at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Rev. H. S. Clugston of Manor Rd. United Church, Toronto, will preach at both services. A Thank-Offering will be received. Special music by the choir. On Monday evening there will be a Hot Supper served from 6 to 8. A Bazaar table with various kinds of fancy and useful needlework, quilts etc. and a Grand Concert to commence at 8.15. Among the artists who are expected to take part on the program are: Madame Boyce, Elocutionist; Mrs. John Dow, Scotch Singer; Mrs. Gladstone Wilson, Soprano; Miss Barbara Long, Reader. The admission to Supper, Concert and Bazaar is Adults 35c.; Children 25c.

A Miscellaneous Shower will be held at the home of Mrs. W. T. Wells next Thursday, Oct. 15th at 3 p.m. for the Church Bazaar. All are welcome.

The Woman's Association met at the S. S. room of the United Church last Thursday for a sewing meeting. One quilt was completed. At the business meeting which was held after luncheon, Mrs. A. W. Stephenson, 1st Vice-Pres., presided. Mrs. Foreman assisted Mr. Stephenson in conducting the devotional service and closing prayer was offered by Mrs. E. Brett. Final arrangements were made for the church supper and bazaar and concert. Twenty-three attended the meeting.

Thanksgiving Services will be held in the United Church next Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Special Thanksgiving music by the choir at both services.

The Mission Band met last Saturday afternoon in the S. S. room with a large attendance. Four new members joined. An interesting program was presented introducing the new Study Book "Friends around the World." The Lord's Prayer was the Worship Theme with stories explaining each phrase. After the meeting the children enjoyed a game, supervised by Miss Lever.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Halbert and little daughter Marion of Alliston were guests at the parsonage over last week-end.

Mrs. W. Downey of Alliston has returned home after visiting her sister, Mrs. Robt. Carson.

A number from here attended the Markham Fair last Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wells attended the silver wedding of Rev. and Mrs. Bunt at Woodbridge last Saturday.

Misses Louise and Mary Carson and Mr. Roy Bowen of Teston were guests of Misses Bertha and Irene Smith last Sunday and attended evening church service.

The Sunday School executive held its monthly meeting in the S. S. room of the United Church last Tuesday evening. Plans were made for the winter's work.

About fifteen members of Y. P. Unions of the United Church are taking advantage of the School for Religious Training which is now being held in Queen Mary School, Willowdale. Newtonbrook Y.P.U. has the largest representation attending the school.

Owing to Thanksgiving Day holiday next week the school will be held on Tuesday evening and will conclude on Thursday evening, Oct. 15th.

The Home and School Association of Newtonbrook Public School (G. R. Goulding Memorial) held a very successful banquet last Wednesday evening with over 200 in attendance. The tables were beautifully decorated with the school colors and autumn flowers. After the meal an interesting program was given, the president, Mrs. Ferris presiding.

The mothers Glee Club of the school gave several numbers under the direction of Miss Barton of Toronto as leader.

Master Bobby Connor delighted the audience with four numbers. The second time he appeared he was dressed in kilts and sang Scotch songs. His mother was accompanist. Speeches were given by Inspector Trench, Mr. J. R. Smith, Dr. Carl Hill, M.O.H., Mr. P. Vigrass, Rev. A. H. Halbert, Mrs. Rodick and Mr. R. J. Lang, principal. An address was given by the President of the Home and School Council.

The pleasing feature of the evening was the presentation of diplomas to the thirty-three Entrance graduates. These were presented to the graduates by Sawyer W. Smith, whose remarks were very much appreciated by all.

Inspector Trench of Richmond Hill presented five silver cups to those who had been successful in sports on Athletic Day. Community Singing was led by Miss Barton. The National Anthem brought a very happy evening to a close.

They always rise most steadily who take time to lift others.

The United Church will observe 39 years' anniversary of the present church, and over 125 years of the founding of the church on Sunday, Oct. 11th. Rev. A. M. Partridge and Maple choir will have charge of the morning service at 11 o'clock. Evening service at 7.30 will be in charge of Rev. R. B. Beynon of Thornton a son of Temperanceville Church and now a superannuated minister. Music by the local choir. Members of the W.M.S. and W.A. are invited to visit Mount Pisgah W.M.S. on Wednesday, Oct. 14th. Owing to this the Women's Institute will be postponed until Wednesday, Oct. 21st, which will be held at the home of Mrs. Norman Rumble. There will be as guest speaker, a representative from the "Canadian National Institute for the Blind." Monday night's meeting of the A. Y.P.A. was in the form of a Weiner Roast at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Giles Kerswill, with an attendance of 50, when the evening was spent in games and community singing. A good program preceded the lunch which consisted of corn, rolls and weiners, pumpkin pie and coffee. Everyone reported having a splendid time. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fry and Mrs. Robt. Paynter of Sharon visited Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Beynon on Sunday. The St. John's W. A. met in the Parish Hall last Thursday afternoon.

A quilt was quilted. Mrs. A. Sambrook of Aurora was hostess. A.Y.P.A. will be held on Monday, Oct. 12th at 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. Thompson. Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Thompson visited Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hodgson of Nobleton on Sunday. Mr. Bert Andrews was rushed to the hospital on Sunday afternoon for an appendix operation. We are glad to report that he is getting along favourably. We wish him a speedy recovery.
