TESTON
Everyone is busy with roots and potatoes and all available help is required. The recent rains and the fact that potato tops were green when frost came makes the picking a more lengthy task.

The Missionary talk at Young People's Union last Sunday night was taken by Mr. Morley Kinnee of Maple, as guest speaker, who aroused interest and gave food for thought as to the necessity of speeding the gospel at home and abroad. Miss Hazel Carson read the lesson and Munro Stimers a poem "A Young People's League." Miss Louise Carson presided. At the close the President announced an invitation from Maple Y.P.U. to visit them on the evening of October 27th which was accepted.

Owing to Hope anniversary services next Sunday there will be no church service here but Sunday School will meet at 9.45 a.m. so that those desiring to attend at Hope will have ample time. In the evening the Young People's Union will meet as usual.

The many friends of Mr. J. McLaughlin are sorry to hear of his illness and extend to him best wishes for a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Garner and Miss Norma Garner of Toronto, Mrs. Wm. Ireland, Brampton, Mrs. J. Murray and Master Leonard, Mrs. A. Ireland, Mrs. Carley and Miss Goldie Diceman visited Mr. and Mrs. A. MacDonald on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Baden Taggart of Detroit and Mrs. Art Taggart of Maple called on Mr. and Mrs. G. Taggart on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Bert Gunn has returned from a trip to the West and called on friends here.

Mr. A. Dunk and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Manning of Guelph visited Sunday at the home of Mr. T. B. Weldrick.

A FARM FOR $17.50

From the Fergus News-Record

A well-known business man from North Wellington, noted for his careful way of never laying out a dollar unless he knows it will bring back a flock of friends, went to the tax sale in Guelph last week—usually a grand place to hunt bargains. He heard a farm in West Luther being offered for sale, the taxes and costs being only $17.50, so he felt he could not go wrong, and he purchased it at that price. Later, he found that the hundred acres was in the heart of Luther marsh, which was bad enough, but he was also told that it had been sold once before at a tax sale, and it had brought only $1.00 at that time—and even then the purchasers didn't think it worth keeping.

RICHVALE

The Sunday School met and held their regular session on Sunday, Oct. 18th. The classes were all rearranged as follows: Mr. Johnson will take the class of bigger girls; Mrs. Fisher the next class; Mrs. L. Baker the class of small boys; Mr. Collins the class of larger boys. The classes are all too large and just as soon as more teachers can be secured the classes will be divided up.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Baker spent Sunday in St. Catharines, also Mrs. E. Rowden, returning on Sunday evening, bringing back with them Mrs. Rowden Sr. who will spend a few days visiting her son and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Cole have moved back to Toronto to live and Mr. and Mrs. O'Leary are now living in Mr. Cole's house, Spruce Ave.

Mrs. Murray and her two daughters have returned to the city for the winter.

Mrs. Farrants has been invited to go to Brampton on Thursday evening of this week to assist in the opening of a new lodge of Daughters of England.

Mrs. Allison returned home Monday night after spending a few days with friends in Buffalo.

Do not forget the sale of work in Richvale Church on Saturday, October 24. Sale will be opened at 3 o'clock by Mr. Johnson. Fancy and useful articles for sale, home cooking, candy, etc. Tea room opened at 3.30 p.m. Come and bring your friends. Admission free.

Mr. Johnson will be at the Sunday School and church for service at 3.30 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 25. Everybody welcome.

HEADFORD

On Wednesday, Nov. 4th Victoria Square Dramatic Club will present the play "Lena Rivers" at Headford United Church under the auspices of the choir. This is a very splendid play, so plan now to attend.

On Monday evening Headford Community turned out in full force to a meeting of the Young People's Society. A number of slides on Nova Scotia loaned by the Canadian National Railways were much enjoyed, also a solo by Miss E. Barker of Richmond Hill, "The Flight of the Ages." A surprise party followed in honour of the twentieth wedding anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. McDonald. Miss Cora Brodie presented Mrs. McDonald with a basket of flowers. Following a few words by the President expressing the appreciation of their work in the community Mr. and Mrs. McDonald were presented with a sum of money by Mr. C. Boynton.

A Hallow'en Masquerade Party will be held on Thursday evening, October 29th to which a cordial invitation is extended to all.
