Letters From The People

APPEALS FOR AID FOR SCHOOL FUND

Editor, The Liberal

Dear Sir:-The Richmond Hill Public School Fund is still in existence-I believe we have 70 or 75 cents to our credit at the Bank. The aim of this fund is to provide necessities for our school children who would otherwise have to go without.

Markham and Vaughan Townships are doing a lot on this work, but they cannot do everything so we are trying to help our own boys and girls. At present we have several who need this help. All donations thankfully received.

NEWTONBROOK

Owing to the Young People's Training School which was held this autumn the activities of the Y.P.U. of the United Church did not commence until this week.

On Sunday evening a Young People's Rally was held with Rev. Walter Madden of Queensville as special preacher. He was assisted in the service by the Y.P.U. president, Mr. W. T. New. Miss Margaret Shaw read the Scripture Lesson. The message was specially adapted for Young People.

On Monday evening the Y.P.U. entertained their parents at a banquet at 7 o'clock. The S. S. room was tastefully decorated with Hallowe'en W. C. King, Aurora. colors. Four long tables were set, laden with a sumptuous repast to SAND & GRAVEL, Cement blocks, which all done ample justice.

After the meal, the chair lady, mond Hill, telephone 94M. Miss Margaret Shaw, called on Mr. YOUNG ROASTING FOWL, 3 to 31/4 A. W. Galbraith to propose the toast to the King. All responded by sing- lbs., dressed. J. Hickson, 8 Roseing the National Anthem.

Miss Mary Douglas proposed the toast to the church and Rev. A. H Halbert replied. A toast to the parents was proposed by Mr. Jack Duggan and was ably responded to by Mr. J. R. Smith.

Mr. W. T. New proposed the toast to the Young People.
