VICTORIA SQUARE NEWSY NOTES

Wet weather still continues to hinder fall work and we hope farmers will have a chance to get all work well in hand before the freeze-up comes.

A large gathering of friends and neighbors of Mrs. H. Flavelle assembled in the Sunday School room on Thursday evening. After an interesting program, Mr. L. L. Nichols read an address and Miss Ethel Mortson presented Mrs. Flavelle with a handsome bridge lamp. Mrs. Flavelle leaves this week to take up residence in Toronto. Her many friends wish her all success in her new home.

Rev. John Macdonald and family moved into the new manse on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Angus Valliere attended the Old Boys and Girls Reunion of Zion school, North York, on Friday evening.

Mrs. H. F. Collard and baby son returned from the Coronado Hospital, Toronto, on Saturday.

Hallowe'en passed off quietly in Victoria Square. No damage was done.

Victoria Square choir led the service of praise at the anniversary services at Headford on Sunday evening when a large number of Victoria Square folk attended the service at which Rev. A. H. Halbert was the speaker.

Miss Bunt of Kapuskasing has taken up duties at the home of Miss Hopper.

Miss Holden was an especially interesting speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the J. W. I. on Tuesday evening. Miss Holden displayed some of the work as done in the auxiliary classes at summer school this year. An instrumental by Miss Pearl Casely and the talk on the motto by Mrs. Alvin Casely were much enjoyed. Mrs. J. Snider gave a demonstration on jellies. Miss Margaret Watson, County Pres. was also present and spoke to the girls. Miss Margaret Bennett is steadily improving after her recent severe illness, which is very good news to all her friends.

The Women's Association are holding a 15 cent supper in the school room on Wednesday, November 11th from 6 to 8 p.m. Following the supper the ladies will present their play "Sewing For The Heavens," and special musical numbers will complete the program.

The pupils of S. S. No. 4 are now enjoying the privilege of a hot lunch at noon.

The regular meeting of the Mission Band will be held in the school room on Saturday, Nov. 14th at 2.30. Members are asked to bring proceeds from sale of cards and calendars, also have memory verses ready. We are also beginning our new study book and would like all boys and girls to join us.

Miss E. Holden took tea with Miss Ethel Mortson on Tuesday evening.

Don't forget to reserve the date, Nov. 24th, when Rev. Mr. Johnston of Eglinton United Church will give his address, "Seeing a Bit of the World." Other talent will be present and present a high class program.

FAMILY REUNION

A very happy family group gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Boynton on Sunday afternoon to do their mother, Mrs. Boynton Sr., honour. Although in her eighty-third year, Mrs. Boynton is a very active woman and was well able to enjoy to the full the company of her sons, daughters and grandchildren, namely, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Boynton of Port Perry, and their son Donald of Galt; Mr. and Mrs. William Boynton and two daughters, Margaret and Jane of Toronto; Mr. Herb Boynton and daughters Evelyn, Margaret and Lorraine and son Douglas of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Boynton and son Frank and daughters Isobel and Marian of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Boynton and daughters Marian, Grace and Helen, and sons Lawrence, Jim and David of Victoria Square, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sanderson and sons Harold and Lloyd of Richmond Hill. Also Mrs. Margaret Comisky and Mrs. Hickson, sisters of Mrs. Boynton, and Mr. Hickson of Richmond Hill and Mr. Charles Mitchell Mr. Rupert Lemon and Miss White of Toronto were able to enjoy this happy occasion with her.

The tables, around which they gathered for supper, were beautiful with silver and chrysanthemums and loaded with delicacies. Mrs. Boynton's friends and neighbours in this community wish for her many more years of active life.

NATIVE INDIAN MINISTER TO VISIT RICHMOND HILL

The Rev. W. F. Wrixon has invited a Native Indian Minister to visit Richmond Hill over the weekend. He is the Rev. C. T. Matthew, of Mar Thoma Syrian Church, Perumpavur Travancore, South India. Mr. Matthew is a brilliant young Minister doing post graduate work at Wycliffe College, Toronto. He will speak to the Children at the Orange Home on Sunday Morning, and will preach at St. Mary's Anglican Church in the evening.

Annual Service of Remembrance Sunday, Nov. 8th

Richmond Hill's annual service of Remembrance will be held here next Sunday, November 8th, and will be attended by Veterans from all sections of York County. Rev. (Capt.) John Kelman, one of Canada's official representatives on the Vimy pilgrimage will give the address of the afternoon and a suitable and impressive program has been arranged. The North Toronto Salvation Army Silver Band will provide music.

Headed by Richmond Hill Trumpet Band war veterans accompanied by Boy Scouts and Girl Guides will parade from the north end of town to the memorial where the service will be held. The parade will fall in at Little's garage at 2.30 p.m. sharp. It is expected the following Veterans organizations will parade, Vaughan and Richmond Hill Veterans, Willowdale Canadian Legion, Fairbank Canadian Legion, and organizations from Aurora, Newmarket, Stouffville, Unionville, Markham, Whitechurch, Woodbridge and Schomberg.

Following the service at the memorial in which the members of the local clergy will take part the parade will reform and the salute will be taken at the radial station by Col. W. P. Mulock, K.C., M.P., president of the North York veterans.

The members of the Veterans remembrance committee request the public to allow ample space at the memorial for those taking part in the parade.

Prize Winners King and Vaughan Plowing Match

Despite unfavorable weather there were sixty-seven contestants in the various classes at the annual plowing match sponsored by the King and Vaughan Association and held at the Municipal Farm, Concord, last Friday. The site was ideal and plowmen worked under ideal conditions except for a biting cold wind which blew all day. However the inclement weather was harder on the spectators than the competitors and it was the visitors who complained most loudly. The unfavorable weather conditions kept many away from the match, but during the day there was a large attendance of interested spectators. The crowd kept moving, and cars were continually coming and going, so that the number who visited the match was much larger than it looked at any one time.

The Sweepstakes award and the A. J. H. Eckhardt Memorial Trophy was won by Alex Black of Guelph, who was champion at the provincial match this year. Little Bobbie Timbers of Stouffville, nine year old winner of the boys' class was the youngest plowman in the match and his work was the centre of much interest. William Scott, Richmond Hill got first prize for the best team and equipment in sod and Alf. Baggs the award for the best team and equipment in stubble. A. Bowes of Concord had the best going team in sod, and Bobbie Timbers the best going team in stubble.

The big day concluded with a banquet following which the trophies and prizes were distributed by President Baggs, secretary H. E. Ross and other officials. During the evening the gathering was favored with musical numbers by Rutherford brothers and the McDonald Quartette.

The prize winners were as follows: Class 1, In Sod, high cut, open to all—1st, E. L. Timbers, Milliken; 2nd, G. Tran, Whitevale; 3rd, Stan Thompson, Stouffville; Crown, G. Tran; Finish, E. L. Timbers.
