The annual banquet of the Thornhill Horticultural Society was held on Monday evening in the Lawrence Memorial Hall. Despite the unsettled weather, a large number attended. The hall was gaily decorated with autumn leaves and the banquet tables were lovely with bouquets of chrysanthemums when a hot supper was served at seven o'clock. Mr. Percy Bone, president of the Society, and chairman of the evening, before introducing the guest speaker, Mr. R. F. Birks, called on the following, who gave bright, interesting short speeches, Mr. Wells, Newtonbrook; Mr. Little, Richmond Hill; Mr. Lionel Godson, Toronto; Mr. John Hall, Toronto, and Mr. John Davis, Toronto. Mr. Birks gave a brilliant and outstanding address on "What next?" stressing what a great future was in store for Canada with its mines, water power, etc. and how glad we should be that we live in Canada. Mrs. Birks was presented with a beautiful bouquet of rose buds, by Mrs. R. Thompson, on behalf of the Society. Good music added greatly to the enjoyment of the evening. Miss E. Wilson, Secretary, gave her report, naming the prize winners of the past year. The evening closed by all singing Auld Lang Syne.
