Sadie Cummer, beloved wife of Walter Morris and mother of Betty, Ralph, Cecil, Earl, Ruby Taggart and Verna Oates of Toronto and sister of William Cummer, John Street, passed away on Monday night at the East General hospital in her 59th year. Service was held at the residence, Willow Ave. on Thursday, November 19. Interment took place at Thornhill Cemetery.

At Thornhill Friday, November 13, 1936, to Mr. and Mrs. George Tutt, Yonge St., a son.

The Discussion Group will meet at the United Church Parsonage on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Last Monday evening the Group attended a meeting held in Newtonbrook United Church. All young people are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Mr. Spencer of Cornwall, manager of the Bank of Commerce, is expected here the beginning of the month. Mr. MacDougall left on Monday for Madoc to take over the management of the bank there.

We regret to report the illness of Mr. Victor Grainger, and his many friends wish him a speedy recovery. Several from here attended the social evening of the North York Horticultural Society held in the Earl Haig Collegiate last Friday night and report a splendid entertainment.

The teachers and officers of the United Church Sunday School met last Thursday night at the home of the Superintendent, Mr. Neil McDonald, Willowdale. A social time followed the business meeting when Mrs. McDonald served dainty refreshments.

A number from here attended the service of witness and worship at the Maple Leaf Gardens on Wednesday night.

Trinity Women's Club will hold a business meeting at the home of Mrs. Wilcocks, Tuesday, November 24th, at 8 o'clock. Every member is requested to attend.

A social evening was held on Tuesday night in the Parish Hall when the members of the A.Y.P.A. entertained their parents. A good program of games, contests, animated spelling and readings by Miss Betty Bone was much enjoyed. Refreshments were served by the young people at the close. Mrs. P. Bone and Mr. R. Sargent won the highest number of points in the contests.

The Teen-age Branch of the W.A. of Trinity Anglican Church will meet at the Rectory on Saturday, Nov. 28th at 3 o'clock.

The Missionary and Maintenance Supper meeting held in the United Church on Tuesday evening was well attended. Rev. T. S. Watson, M.A., of West China, was the guest speaker. The Sunday School teachers and officers served a hot supper at 7 o'clock.

C.P.R. HAS GOOD CONNECTION FROM DETROIT

The Canadian Pacific Railway maintains a splendid evening connection from Detroit to Toronto. Leaving Detroit at 4.45 in the afternoon the train makes the run to West Toronto in five hours and twenty minutes arriving there at 10.05.

Mother—Aren't you sorry you bit Mary?
 Son—Yes, I hated the taste.

WOODBRIDGE

Late Donald McDougall
 Donald McDougall passed away on Sunday, November 15th, following an illness of several years, at the age of 96 years. The funeral which was largely attended by friends in the surrounding Townships took place from his late residence, William St., Woodbridge, on Tuesday, November 17th, with interment in Maple cemetery. Rev. J. E. Anderson officiated. Mr. McDougall's ancestors were natives of Argyllshire, Scotland, and came to Canada early in the 19th century. For some time they lived on Yonge Street and later moved to Vaughan in the vicinity of Edgely where they farmed and where Mr. McDougall lived until three years ago when, with other members of the family, he retired to live in Woodbridge. He was a Liberal in politics and a supporter of the United Church. Deceased was one of a family of twelve of which three survive, Silas, a brother, the youngest of the family and is in his 77th year, two sisters, Mrs. M. Burkholder and Mrs. Caroline Garrett. The pallbearers were Edgely neighbours of many years and were, Eb. Smith, Frank Smith, Carson Smith, Ellsworth Keffer, James Mitchell and William Locke.

Young People Hear Travelogue by Major McKenzie

Following the business period of the United Church Young People's Meeting held in the Sunday School on Monday night when Assistant president Jack Boddy occupied the chair, Miss E. Wallace, Citizenship convener, took charge and conducted the program, the feature of which was the travelogue by Major A. A. McKenzie on his Pilgrimage to Vimy. Other items were the devotional exercises by Miss Wallace, Agnes Watson and Everett Kellam. A vocal duet by Misses Thelma and Enid Shore was enjoyed.

Armistice Day Solemnly Observed by Citizens

Armistice Day was solemnly observed by the War Veterans, Churches and Citizens when several hundred assembled in Memorial Park at 11 a.m. and took part in the ceremony conducted by Rev. J. H. Kidd, Scripture reading by Rev. J. E. Anderson and a stirring address delivered by Rev. J. S. Roe. Wreaths were placed on the Cenotaph by the Great War Veterans of Woodbridge represented by Thomas Carlyle, the Women's Institute represented by Mrs. Leo Watson, the village Council by Reeve N. George Wallace, also a wreath placed by Mrs. David Evans, aged lady of Woodbridge.

Junior Women's Institute Euchre and Dance

Many young folk were attracted to the Orange Hall on Friday night of last week when the Junior Women's Institute held a euchre and dance under the direction of Mrs. Lindsay Ward. The dance program consisted of Olde Tyme, modern and novelty dances with music furnished by Nelson's Orchestra of Caledon East and Stewart Rutherford as floor manager.

Woodbridge folk express regret on the removal of their genial young friend, Claire Bush, who for several years was a popular member of the staff of the Royal Bank and has been transferred to the Branch at Goderich. Claire was popular with old and young and was a leading spirit in the Young People's Society of the United Church. Best wishes for every success are extended to him.

York Pioneers Undecided About Purchase of W. L. McKenzie Home

At the November meeting of the York Pioneers and Historical Society held on Tuesday in the Forresters Hall, College Street, Toronto, Professor Kennedy, the speaker, gave a splendid talk on "Odds and Ends in the English Language," which was most interesting as well as entertaining to listen to Professor Kennedy as he revealed the origin of many words and sayings used daily by us without giving the significance of the phrase or word any thought. The chair was occupied by Dr. Emerson Bull and following the order of business Mr. Nason again introduced the subject of the purchase of the W. L. McKenzie home at 82 Bond Street, and again the motion was discussed by members who strongly discourage the suggestion of the purchase of the property. Rev. C. W. Watch spoke favourably. Mr. Joseph E. Watson regarded the matter as a huge undertaking and suggested caution be observed. Mr. Neil Burton strongly emphasised the necessity of a permanent home and suggested that if politics played any part it would be well to forget it. Mrs. O. B. Sheppard announced her withdrawal from the Society and on her departure told the meeting that a new society called Toronto Pioneers would be formed.

VEJLORE

The Junior Farmers met in the hall last Tuesday evening. Miss Sally McNeil was in charge of the girls separate meeting. Miss M. Brownlee read current events, Miss D. McDonald played an instrumental and Miss M. Watson gave a very instructive paper on Posture assisted by Miss L. Morning. Mrs. Bryan of Maple gave a very interesting talk on quilts dating back to how they originated and where. Her talk was illustrated by two lovely quilts one of which took first prize at the Exhibition. Mr. Vanderburgh of Fairbank was the guest speaker for the boys meeting. The joint meeting was spent with a few short dances, lunch was then served. After the reading of "The Vellore Pen" by Miss C. Brownlee the meeting was closed by singing God Save the King.

The W.M.S. held their monthly meeting last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. S. Jones. The special feature of the evening was the Baptism of (Raymond Garth) youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Jones after which Mrs. Cleary led in prayer. Current events were read by Mrs. Lewis Egan. A review of the year's work in the Mission Fields was given by the following:—Rev. Bowman, Mrs. A. L. McNeil, Mrs. M. McDonald, Mrs. A. Cameron, Mrs. Bowman and Mrs. Robson. Mrs. Jones rendered a solo, "Stranger of Galilee." Lunch was served by the hostess and committee.

A number from the district attended the health meeting at the hall on Friday afternoon conducted by Inspector Roberts and assisted by two of the school nurses on "Health Education" or Mental Health of the School Child.

Mrs. F. Durston of Toronto visited with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bates on Sunday.

CARRVILLE

On Wednesday evening of last week over one hundred friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Burton to give a farewell party to Mr. W. Bone who has moved to Richmond Hill. Mrs. L. Sheardown, a pupil of Mr. Ernie McGann, accompanied by Miss Helen Phinney rendered some very delightful music. Mr. Jack Oliver also favored the gathering with a solo. Mrs. W. Tyndall of Richmond Hill read the address and Mr. George Woods presented Mr. Bone with a beautiful electric floor lamp. Mr. Bone replied with a few well chosen words after which all sang "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." Lunch was then served. There were friends present from Richmond Hill, Toronto, Claremont and other places.

Last Friday evening the friends of Mrs. Robt. Craigie (nee Miss Eva Baker) gathered at the home of Mr. J. Baker to make a presentation to her of a beautiful case of silver. The good wishes of all go with Eva to her new home at Patterson.
