County Council Balances Budget For Fourth Time

York County Council is now in its second week of its third and final session of the year and Warden J. O. Little has announced that for the fourth consecutive year the County will have a balanced budget. This accomplishment is very gratifying to members of council and county officials who have been struggling during the year to live within the estimates. One of the notable savings made during the year was on the cost of hospitalization for which much credit is given to Dr. Cook, appointed early in the year as supervisor of hospitalization.

The Council at Wednesday's session adopted a by-law to rescind a former by-law, passed at the June session, setting the salary of the board of valuers now engaged in assessing the county. Under the amended by-law, the Chairman of the board will now be paid a round sum, instead of being on a per annum basis.

Harold A. Babeck, the Chairman, is to receive $4,500 for a period of nine months, and a further $500 per month for time exceeding this, but not longer than one year in all. Joseph Lowe, a part-time member, is to receive $2,500 per annum, and James Cameron, Reeve of Weston, who will act as an advisor and assist in the comparison of assessments, will receive committee fees as paid other members of Council. Should he cease to sit as a member of the Council he will receive a sum not to exceed $2,500.

A further $1,500 will be allowed the board for clerical work, travelling expenses, office rental, and the preparation of plans.

IMPORTANT AUCTION SALE

An important auction sale of wide interest is announced for Thursday, December 10th when the registered Ayshire herd and other grade cattle, farm stock and implements of Worts Gooderham, lot 13, con. 2, North York, will be offered for sale. Prentice & Prentice will officiate as auctioneers.

Gifts For West Are Appreciated

The following letter to Dr. Pinkerton of King will supply the Townships with information concerning the reception of the car of fruit, vegetables, food and clothing shipped from King station to Hartney, Manitoba on Nov. 5th. Contributors will be gratified to know their gifts were so intact and acceptable and will feel amply repaid:

Hartney, Manitoba,
November 18th, 1936.

Dr. D. H. Pinkerton,
Box 47, King, Ontario.
Dear Dr. Pinkerton:—

The car of fruit, vegetables and clothing sent by the Joint Committee of Churches of your Town to Hartney arrived in excellent condition and was unloaded last Monday. We were extremely fortunate in having a fine warm day for unloading and the fruit and vegetables reached the homes without any danger of frost. The car was distributed all over the Municipality of Cameron and local clergymen and citizens assisted.

As you know, potatoes and other garden products were almost a total failure here this year, and your gift is most timely and welcome. We have had applications for clothing and bedding from a great many families, and we are distributing the very fine assortment of these articles included in your car to the best possible advantage.

It is obvious to us that the car was filled with the greatest care and kindly thought, and we are most appreciative and grateful. Please convey our thanks to those who so generously contributed.

Yours sincerely,
Catherine Forrest.
