RICHVALE CHRISTMAS TREE
Richvale Social Club held a successful Supper and Christmas Tree in the school on Saturday evening, when they had as their guests the children and parents of Richvale community. Supper was served at 6.30 and later upon the arrival of Santa Claus each child received off the tree a gift, a Christmas stocking and box of animal crackers. The grown-ups also received gifts. The remainder of the evening was spent in the showing of moving pictures by the Bell Telephone Company and which were enjoyed by the gathering. A special feature of the evening was the presentation of silver flatware to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Adams, staunch members of the club, who were celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary. In all it was a happy and profitable evening for which great credit is due the Richvale Social Club.

PRESENTATION BY CHOIR MUCH APPRECIATED
The United Church Choir presented excerpts from Part I of Handel's "Messiah" Sunday evening last to a large congregation. The bass soloist, Mr. Robert Hatley, is very well known in Toronto. The exacting arias which he sang were brilliantly executed, and he alone was well worth hearing. The other solos were taken by members of the choir. They include work sufficiently difficult to tax the resources of a much larger choir, and they were handled very commendably. The five choruses were sung by the full choir, augmented by a few members of nearby choirs. The work was under the leadership of Mr. A. Melecci, organist and conductor, who has been responsible for many ambitious efforts in the past and continues to lead his choir forward into new and higher musical fields.
If much time and effort were involved in the preparation, Mr. Melecci and the members of the choir may feel abundantly recompensed by the interest and appreciation shown.

If you would discover the deliberate sins of a nation, notice what it quits when it needs world sympathy.

Holy Night

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid.

And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

For unto you is born this day in the City of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord.

And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,
Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the Babe lying in a manger.

MAPLE NEWSY NOTES

Hope United Church held a very successful and enjoyable Christmas Tree on Monday evening. The ladies of the congregation provided a wonderful supper for everyone. An interesting part of the program was a presentation to Mr. Nixon of a lovely Hymnary. Mr. Nixon has sung in Hope Choir for 50 years. Also Mrs. William Thomas was presented with a Silver Platter for her services as Secretary-Treasurer of the W. A. for 25 years. After Santa Claus had given ample supply of candies and nuts all went home happy.

Everyone who braved the storm and bad roads on Sunday night and came to the United Church felt amply repaid for any hardship they endured when the Christmas Pageant was put on in a very effective manner. Those taking their parts are to be congratulated and the Christmas story will live in a new way because of the efforts of those in charge.

We wish to extend our sincere sympathy to Mrs. C. Lines in the loss by death of her sister, Mrs. Lewis Oster of Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan.

Dr. Marguerite Bailey of Toronto and Rev. Sidney Lambert of Horning's Mills spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Keys of Toronto visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Keys.

Mr. William Brooks of Cookeville spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. Parks.

Mrs. McCloud, Missionary, home on furlough from Formosa, will speak to the Sunday School at the United Church Sunday afternoon at 2.30. Everyone is invited to attend.

The Ladies' Aid of the Lutheran Church met at the church on Wed. of last week. Last year's executive was re-elected: Pres., Mrs. Rolland Keffer; vice-pres., Mrs. L. Keffer; Secretary, Mrs. T. A. Keffer; Treas., Mrs. C. Line.

The Juvenile Lacrosse boys entertained the Girls' Softball Club on Friday evening of last week, at the home of Lorne Wells. Eight tables of Court Whist were played and the prize winners were: ladies, 1st, Doris Taylor; consolation, Dorothy Noble. Gents, 1st, Harry Rumble; consolation, Allen Rumble. A pleasing feature of the evening was the presentation of a windbreaker to "Cal" Miller, the coach of the Lacrosse Boys. The address was read by Lorne Wells and presentation made by Bill Parks.

Cal replied in a few well chosen words. Lunch was then served by the boys. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

The community was saddened this week by the sudden death of Mr. Perry Watson who died while working on the good roads on Monday afternoon.

The Presbyterian Y.P.S. met in the Sunday School Room on Sunday evening. The meeting opened with several Christmas hymns. Scripture was read by Henry McDonald, a missionary reading by Edith Jackson, Christmas poem by Audrey McNaughton.

PRESBYTERIAN W. A. ANNUAL MEETING

The Women's Association of the Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church held their annual meeting on Thursday, December 17th in the church parlors. Mrs. Moore, the president, presided during the business session when very satisfactory and encouraging reports were given by the secretary and treasurer, reflecting a most successful year. Rev. J. D. Cunningham, minister of the church, presided during the election of officers which resulted as follows: Hon. President, Miss A. Boyle; president, Mrs. T. Moore; 1st vice-pres., Mrs. Milton Savage; 2nd vice-pres., Mrs. Frank Schissler; treasurer, Mrs. G. Yerec; secretary, Mrs. K. Blanchard; flower committee, Mrs. Alexander and Miss Margaret Moodie; visiting committee, Mrs. Cunningham and Miss Emma Barker.
