LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

There are few more beautiful or fascinating effects than that of a rainbow after a storm—few more reassuring signs that the storm is over. And in the year of 1937 which we are just entering will indubitably shine the rainbow of recovery. It is already casting an optimistic reflection throughout the entire business skies. On every hand are the promises of business recovery—the signs of a stirring activity that should make 1937 the most hopeful and prosperous year that has come our way since 1929. This confidence, moreover, is not based on the insubstantial fabric of optimism. Business leaders, official indexes, all point to a sound reaction from depressed conditions. External trade is climbing rapidly and you can sense a better feeling among business men everywhere. Truly 1937 is a year of great expectations—a year in which all those who weathered the lean years with determination and courage should find abundant opportunities for the direct application of these qualities to the advancement of their business.

LIFE IS WHAT YOU MAKE IT

Business is a big part of life; unless we are in it to win, it is better not to be in it at all; the man who labors for the love of it, is the man who is doubly paid. Advertising is the fire under the boiler of business and we must keep these fires hot, if we expect to attain and maintain success; one step won't take you very far—you've got to keep on walking; one word won't tell folks who you are—you've got to keep on talking. In advertising, as in all things, success has no foe, but fear—no limitations save those that are our own; therefore, courage and confidence and energy in advertising are as sure to win—as sure to bring prosperity to us in this New Year of 1937—as the dawn of to-morrow brings a new day.

LIFE!

Strange is our situation here upon earth. Each of us comes for a short visit not knowing why, yet sometimes seeming to divine a purpose. From the standpoint of daily life, however, there is one thing we do know; that man is here for the sake of other men—above all for those upon whose smile and well-being our happiness depends, and also for the countless unknown souls with whose fate we are connected by a bond of sympathy. Many times a day I realize how much my own outer and inner life is built upon the labor of my fellow men, both living and dead, how earnestly I must exert myself in order to give in return as much as I have received. My peace of mind is often troubled by the depressing sense that I have borrowed too heavily from the work of other men.—Albert Einstein.

WHY ACCIDENTS HAPPEN

Highway safety engineers have found the key to the constantly mounting toll of motor accidents. They say: "Most highway accidents result from 80 mile an hour automobiles on 40 mile an hour highways in the hands of 20 mile an hour drivers." We were driving along a curving stretch of road the other night. Snow and sleet had coated the highway with ice, and the traction was by no means good. A high-powered automobile sped past at at least 50 miles an hour and disappeared around a curve. Ten minutes later, we saw the same high-powered automobile in the ditch, two wheels smashed, the fenders crumpled, a running board split. The driver limped from the scene to the car of a passing motorist and was driven away. He had escaped serious injury, possibly death, by a matter of inches and split seconds.

That automobile was of the latest type, equipped with every gadget yet invented by automobile engineers to make it safe. The engineers had given it fool-proof brakes, heavily treaded tires, strong mechanical parts, excellent headlights, road stabilizers and so on. But they could not build enough safety into that near-perfect automobile to take care of the human element. The best automobile in the world, with a fool behind the wheel, is no safer than a 1914 Lizzie with no brakes.—Cornwall Standard-Freeholder.

STOCK-TAKING

FORGET

Forget each kindness that you do
As soon as you have done it;
Forget the praise that falls to you
The moment you have won it.
Forget the slander that you hear
Before you can repeat it;
Forget each slight, each spite, each sneer,
Wherever you may meet it.

REMEMBER

Remember every kindness done
To you, whatever its measure;
Remember praise by others won,
And pass it on with pleasure;
Remember every promise made,
And keep it to the letter;
Remember those who lend you aid,
And be a grateful debtor.

EDUCATION FOR LIFE

The Hon. Dr. Simpson, Ontario's Minister of Education, has the right idea in his decision to overhaul the curriculum in the primary schools of the province so that emphasis will be placed on the "education of pupils for life rather than for the universities." When this is accomplished we may expect to see fewer misfits in life and fewer failures in the higher seats of learning.

The home of Mr. Robert Bunting, 40 Norton Ave., Willowdale was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Christmas Day at 7 p.m. when his daughter Lillian was united in marriage to Nelson Starling, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Starling of Finch's Ave. with Rev. A. H. Halbert officiating. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Halbert. The bride was becomingly attired in a blue costume with train and carried a beautiful bridal bouquet of pink roses. She was attended by her sister Florence who was gowned in a light green costume and carried American Beauty roses. The groom was supported by his brother, Henry Starling. The bride was given in marriage by her father. After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served. Mrs. William Starling, mother of the groom and Miss Winnifred Starling received the guests. This was also the anniversary occasion of the bride's parents. We join in wishing the happy couple a long and happy wedded life.

The rain last Sunday, would, no doubt, do much good as many wells in the district were very low.

Despite the inclement weather the services were very well attended last Sunday. Mr. C. R. Conquergood of Toronto gave an interesting message on "The Story of Christmas" illustrated by fifty colored lantern slides, at the evening service. Both services were conducted by the pastor and the choir gave special music.

HEALTH

A HEALTH SERVICE OF THE CANADIAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION AND LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES IN CANADA

GIVE YOURSELF A CHANCE

Digestive disturbances, the so-called attacks of indigestion, upset stomach or biliousness, come second in the list of causes of sickness. They can, to a very large extent, be prevented, and they would not occur as frequently if more attention were given to the proper use of food.

Meals should be regular, but not with a regularity that makes for monotony. The changed dinner hour on Sunday or on a holiday often gives extra zest to the meal. Generally speaking, meals should be taken at regular hours.

Any meal taken with one eye on the clock is almost better left uneaten. Food should be properly masticated, and one should be in a quiet, restful attitude of mind. To secure these aids to proper digestion, it is well worth the effort to rise a few minutes earlier each morning, and start the day right with a properly eaten breakfast.

Included in every breakfast menu should be fruit—fresh, such as oranges, or dried fruits stewed, like prunes; milk, either on a cereal or in cocoa or by itself; also a cereal. Whether or not one requires eggs or bacon depends upon the type of work done, and also upon whether or not the noon meal is a light one. In every case, the food should be properly masticated, and not gobbled or washed down with a drink.

Children sent to school without a proper breakfast are not receiving a fair chance. We not only feel better, but we are really more capable of physical and mental work if we start the day with a good wash and a comfortably eaten, suitable breakfast.

Questions concerning Health, addressed to the Canadian Medical Association, 184 College Street, Toronto, will be answered personally by letter.

NERVY GRAIN THIEVES AT WORK IN BENTINCK

(Durham Chronicle)

Thieves who conducted the theft of some seventy-five bushels of wheat from the farm of Thompson Boyd of Bentinck, proved so daring that when their truck, which was loaded to capacity became stuck in snow, they returned to the Boyd farm, hitched up a team of horses and with it pulled their truck and load out of the snow.

The proprietor, Boyd, does not live on the farm where the theft occurred but some distance away, and when he visited the farm next morning he was amazed to see his team of horses standing in the stall with the harness still on. Making further inspection of the barn he discovered the large quantity of wheat missing, and from this find was able to unravel the cause of the horses being hitched. Police are investigating.

CAN'T DEPEND ON IT

Lady indignantly, after the crash: "I turned the way I signalled!" Man (coolly): "I know it. That's what fooled me." Here is one for husbands who are inclined to be "night hawks." Recently a certain husband was checked up by his wife in this manner: "The night before last you came home yesterday; last night you came home to-day; if you come home to-night to-morrow there'll be trouble."

YOUR DONATION MAY SAVE A LIFE!

The use of modern health appliances and many other costly but vitally necessary items cannot be provided out of the Hospital's fixed allowances for needy patients.

Your donation makes sure that no child seeking a normal chance for health or escape from deformity will ever knock in vain at the door of this institution.

And it makes sure that no needed expense is spared when a little patient's future depends on treatment and attention costing more than is contemplated by the fixed grants made by Provincial and Municipal Governments. Remember, over 400 of our 420 beds are in Public Wards.

The Hospital receives no support from the Toronto Federation for Community Service because patients are accepted from all parts of the Province. Please mail your gift to the Appeal Secretary, 67 College Street, Toronto.
