Stephenton, choir leader for several months, who is leaving for England, was presented with a sum of money by the choir. The address was read by Jean Ingram and presentation made by Dora McDonald. The address was as follows:

Dear Mr. Stephenton and family—
Tonight we are gathered together for a choir practice for the last time under your leadership. The members of this choir and the congregation of St. Andrew's Church deeply appreciate every effort on your part to make our Sabbath worship more joyful. Little did we realize until it was too late what a wonderful opportunity we had to make our choir the success it should be. Our support to you for this worthy cause was not what it should have been, fully do we realize that. Now that you are about to leave us a wondering group trying to lead our church in the singing may we bear in mind and ever remember you, and in doing so, try to do our part as you did yours.

We hope that your trip will be to your advantage and that you and your family may enjoy health and happiness in the days to come.
The members of this choir and the congregation of St. Andrew's Church ask you to accept this small gift. May you cherish fond memories of this community.
Mr. Stephenton thanked the choir and congregation on behalf of his family in a few well chosen words and the choir sang "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." A lovely lunch was served by the hostess. A very delightful evening was spent by all present. The closing hymn was "God be with you till we meet again."

Souvenir Medals To Be Distributed
Free To All Children Of The District

Present indications are that the Coronation Celebration to be held in Richmond Hill Wednesday, May 12th will be one of the outstanding events in the history of the district. An enthusiastic meeting of representative citizens and representatives of village and district organizations was held Tuesday evening when details of the program were announced and further plans for the day discussed. These two officials along with a small executive committee have been busy during recent weeks and Tuesday night presented a report which was enthusiastically received, giving details of the planned celebration.

Present plans call for a monster parade to include three bands, decorated cars, floats, etc., community singing led by massed choirs at the park where the crowd will listen in to the address of His Majesty King George VI, to be followed by a big program of sports and attractions. The celebration will be ushered in to the ringing of all town bells and the shrieking of sirens and whistles. In the evening there will be a big program in the arena of drills, pageants, singing, addresses, and numerous other features.

Suitable coronation medals will be distributed in the afternoon to all children of the town and district, and as these will cost considerable money the committee will welcome financial aid from organizations or individuals.
