

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

Central United Y.P.S. scored another triumph on Friday evening last when they presented an especially good entertainment in the church in aid of Missions. It was called an evening of Romance and Music, and the guests on the program, Rev. Hunnisset and the Fred Victor Mission orchestra were indeed an appreciated addition to the entertainment, very generous with splendid selections, equally splendidly presented. The play "The Betrothal of Mai Tsung" was also well received, the young folk displaying dramatic ability, a story of Old China and New. The cast of seventeen characters included: Mr. Wong, Earl Appleton; Mrs. Wong, G. Appleton; Madam Wong, Dorothy Carr; two Chinese maids, Doreen Perkin, Jean Watson; Mai Tsung, Ethelyn Warne; Mr. Li, Alfred Dyke; Lucile, Mary, Dorothy, Margaret, Lela, Edna Rainey, Dorothy Hurrell, Ethel Bagg, Ila Bagg, Olive Martin; an American maid, Helen Watson; Mr. Walter Lee, Sam Gough; two Chinese men servants, T. Carruthers, M. Warne; Mr. Hu, James Walker.

The Unionville Wolf Cub Pack enjoyed a fine outing on Monday afternoon last under the supervision of Mr. Fred Robinson. A Treasure Hunt that ended up on the flats below the village, started off the afternoon's sport that included Marsh-mallow Roast, games and other activities. The Red Six with Teddy Thompson and Jimmy Mowbray in charge lead the competition, Clarence Morden and Donald Maynard have charge of the Black Six, with Roy Minton and Teddy Hiltz in charge of the Brown Six. Teddy Thompson was made Senior Sixer for efficient service.

Mr. Fred Robinson, who had charge was Cub Master for two Toronto Packs, took charge of the Unionville Pack last fall and appreciates the interest the lads have shown in the work. Incidentally, too, Mr. Robinson is to be commended upon the splendid work he is doing with the Unionville Pack.

Planting 72,000 trees is quite a contract, yet 130 Boy Scouts accomplished that at the Forestry Camp that was held at Angus over the holiday. Bill Dymond, Lloyd Weatherill and Wesley Clements represented the local troop and report a most interesting time. Each boy was given 5 trees to be planted in home surroundings.

The sudden passing of Mr. George W. Davis, beloved brother of Mrs. Ellen Kemp-Little and uncle of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Harrington, came as a shock to many friends. Mr. Davis, in his usual health, contracted a cold, followed by pneumonia and died in Toronto on Thursday evening last.

Mr. Davis was born in England, coming out to Canada in 1903 and taking up land in Saskatchewan. After retiring twenty years ago Mr. Davis has made his home in Toronto, returning to his home land on several occasions. Receiving his education in Salway College, Layton, Essex county, England, Mr. Davis had a keen mind for business and proved successful in the business world, of retiring disposition and highly respected by a host of friends. During his stay in the West, he was honored with the appointment to Justice of the Peace and offered the nomination for Legislative representative.

Mr. Davis lived for a time in Unionville and many friends express sympathy to the bereaved family.

The funeral service was held from Glendenning's Funeral Parlors to St. Philip's Anglican Church, Rev. Herman officiating. The impressive service included the Processional Hymn, "Peace Perfect Peace" and the Hymn "Fight the Good Fight." Rev. Herman used the theme, "The Paradise of God" "Death, the Gateway into a Garden of Love," for his inspirational address.

Mr. Davis is survived by a sister, Mrs. Ellen Kemp-Little of Unionville, a brother, Albert Davis of Fulford Harbor, B.C. and a nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Harrington of Unionville.

Interment was made in Hagerman Cemetery and the pallbearers were

T. Burnett, Fletcher Carmichael, Stanley Meade, C. E. Stiver, Delos Harrington.

Many beautiful floral tributes expressed sympathy to the family and paid loyal tribute to a good friend and neighbor.

TIME OF SHOWS — 8 p.m. and 10 p.m.
Saturday & Holidays, 7.30 and 9.30, Daylight Saving Time
TODAY, THURSDAY, MAY 27TH TWO FEATURES
BURGESS MEREDITH - MARGO in "WINTER SET"
Grim, gripping drama, stark realism and absorbing suspense mark the production of this screen version of Maxwell Anderson's prize winner with a wealth of telling detail, finesse and material for serious thought and discussion.
Also ROSCOE KARNS - ELEANORE WHITNEY in "CLARENCE"
A deliciously amusing bit of nonsense.
FRIDAY & SATURDAY, MAY 28 - 29 TWO FEATURES
WM. BOYD - JIMMIE ELLESON in "HOP ALONG CASSIDY RETURNS"
This is one of the best in the Hop Along Cassidy series, and stacks up as an outdoor picture of the best grade.
Also BETTY FURNESS - GORDON JONES in "THEY WANTED TO MARRY"
A sprightly little comedy, well above the average.
MONDAY & TUESDAY, MAY 31 - JUNE 1
FRED MacMURCHY - CLAUDETTE COLBERT in "MAID OF SALEM"
Claudette Colbert's magnificent performance is alone enough to earn this rating as a truly great picture. From every reasonable point of view, "Maid of Salem" is a remarkable achievement.
