The charivari boys and friends held a charivari party for Mr. and Mrs. Pete Craib in the Hall at Vellore just recently. A very happy time was spent playing euchre and dancing. The important feature of the program was the calling of Mr. and Mrs. Craib to the platform. After a well planned address was read the newlyweds were presented with a parlor table, linen runner and a reading lamp. Mr. Craib responded in a few well chosen words after which the friends joined in with "For They are Jolly Good Fellows." Lunch was then served by the girls of the community.

The friends of the school section gathered at the Township Hall on Friday night when they held a farewell party for their recent teacher, Miss E. Farr. The program for the evening consisted of home talent. Guitar selections were played by Geo. Carley, Ruby Downing and Idrus Price. Miss E. Farr was called to the platform at the conclusion of the other program. Mr. B. Plunkett read a short address and Mr. P. Keffer and Mr. F. Oliver presented Miss Farr with a floor lamp. Miss Farr responded very nicely thinking everyone for their loyal support during her period as teacher at Vellore for seven years and wished the children every success with their new teacher for the next term. Lunch was served and a happy evening brought to a close by singing "God Save the King."

Preparations are being made for a bountiful harvest. A great number attended the barn-raising at the home of Mr. J. Phillips on Friday afternoon and remained for the lovely supper served on the lawn.
