PERKINS-REAMAN
The marriage of Ruth Reaman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Reaman, Vaughan, to Floyd Perkins, only son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Perkins, Victoria Square, took place on Wednesday, July 7th, at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. A. Winger officiated. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white brocaded crepe gown with waist length veil and white accessories. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and Baby's Breath. Her sister, Miss Mary Reaman, was bridesmaid frocked in blue triple sneer with white accessories and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses and Maiden Hair Fern. Mr. Gordon Mortson was best man. After the ceremony about thirty-five guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding breakfast. Later the happy couple left for Vancouver the bride wearing a gray suit and white accessories. On their return Mr. Perkins will take up teaching duties at Hagerman and they will reside in that district. The Read Reunion was held at Innisfil Park, Lake Simcoe, on July 3rd. The different families were well represented. Mrs. Robert Beatty, formerly Miss Reid, won first prize for the largest family present the total being 27 including grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Beatty won the prize for coming the greatest distance. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beatty entertained all their family on Sunday. Mrs. E. Dixon (Mrs. Clarence Beatty) of Unionville called during the afternoon. Mr. Henry Hill and Miss Velma Hart had dinner at Big Chief Lodge, Lake Couchiching with Mrs. Cody and tea with Mr. and Mrs. Cuttings at Kettleby on Sunday. The J.W.I. is planning a 10th anniversary celebration in August. Invitations will shortly be sent out to friends and ex-members. All interested kindly bear this in mind. Mr. Lorne Mortson is attending Guelph College for the summer months. Mr. L. L. Nichols and daughter Miss Vera Nichols are taking a summer course at Toronto University. Mrs. Annie Mortson is visiting with Mrs. W. Neill, Richmond Hill. Mrs. L. L. Nichols is spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Ida McCague and her niece Mrs. Collins near Ottawa. Mrs. Cecil Nichols is spending a week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Baker, Smith's Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Caseley spent Sunday with Mrs. Caseley's sisters, Mrs. Valliere and Mrs. Haight of Toronto. Master Lawrence Boynton underwent a tonsil operation on Wednesday at the office of Dr. James Langstaff, Richmond Hill. His friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Friday night will be a big night at the local arena when the boys will dish up two real games of lacrosse. Tommy Bidwell who played goal for Richvale last year is bringing up a team from East York. He will be opposed by Davis's team from Alcorn Ave. Harold Weese's team will wind up the evening opposed by Richmond Hill. Don't forget you can see two games of lacrosse for 10c. Children under 15 years of age 5c. Street Dance August 18th Plan to attend the Street Dance to be held Wednesday, August 18th sponsored by the Richmond Hill A. A. A. Rus Creighton's Orchestra with a full program of modern and olde tyme dances, also numbers by Pete the Mountain Boy and Jackie and Shirley. A midway in full force will add to your enjoyment. Make up a party and come and have a real enjoyable evening. Do you know how much it costs to run a team in any line of sports? I would like to tell you but I don't want to give you heart failure, but the softball team will have a hard time making ends meet if the collections don't increase at least 200 per cent. It must be disheartening for a team to be leading the league and playing real ball and when the collection is taken up to find it totals the large sum of $3.00. Dig down fans and give a dime instead of turning your head away when the hat is passed. Marlboro Jrs. Defeat Roden Jrs. Wednesday night Marlboro Jrs. defeated Roden Jrs. 21-9. The game was well played and lots of hard feeling was displayed by both teams. Bruce Leighton refereed and gave 4 match penalties, 2 to each team. Marlboro displayed a nice passing game that resulted in goals while Roden were inclined to play individual style, but when they did play combination they scored goals. The fans have passed up 2 good games of lacrosse in a week and I hope they will turn out in full force to see a real good game Tuesday night when Roden Intermediates play East York. Richmond Hill Midgents will play Roden Midgents at 8 p.m. Tuesday night before the Intermediate game. Due to an oversight of the sports department W. Young was left off the executive of the Richmond Hill A.A.A. He was appointed to the ticket committee for the Street Dance. Turn out to see a splendid exhibition game of softball at the park tonight between Leaside and Richmond Hill. The locals have won every game except one in their league. Where there's a will there's a flock of relatives hating one another.

Mimico Juniors Defeat Roden Juniors Whether it was the lack of advertising or lack of interest the lacrosse fans certainly passed up a real game when they stayed away from the arena Wednesday, June 30. Mimico showed a junior team that could make a senior team step to beat them. Their passing plays were nearly perfect. Roden seemed just a little out of condition and practice but they certainly made good in trying their best and did good to hold the score 8-5. Mimico scored 2 goals and Roden one in the first quarter. Mimico scored 5 in the second while Roden scored 1. Each team scored once in the third quarter. Roden scored twice in the final session and held Mimico scoreless. Roden could do everything but bulge the twine in this quarter, they hit the cross bar and side bars 5 times which shows how close they came to winning the game. Final score, Mimico 8, Roden 5. Rodens Defeat Bradford Roden Intermediates won an easy game Monday night when they took Bradford into camp by the score of 29-3. Bradford were only able to field a junior team who were no match for the Roden team. Wilson scored 8 goals for Roden. Tuesday night at the local arena will be fought one of the best lacrosse games to be seen for a long time when East York tangle with Roden Intermediates. Both these teams have only lost one game and that game was to each other. So the fans will be sure to see a game worth-while.

THORNHILL MOTORS, Thornhill, Ont.

A SUMMER AFTERNOON
'Twas the close of a summer's day,
The sound of the flail had died away,
The sun was shedding a lingering gleam,
The teakettle sung with its load of steam,
The old clock ticked that hung on the wall
And struck with the same old cuckoo call;
Then oft I could hear the mournful bay
Of some watch-dog far away.
Then all ter onct piped in a jay,
I just sat there with my senses gone,
And the shadders of twilight a-creep-in' on,
With the eerie hum of the small peewees,
Over there in the cedar trees.
And the tinkle of bells in the marshy loam
That told me the cows were coming home,
And the sighing breeze comes o'er the croft,
But ah! comes a melody mere soft
Than the troubled notes of a lydian lute
Or the echoing strains of a fairy's flute;
It bids me awaken and live and rejoice,
'Tis only the sound of Elvirya's voice—
Like an angel's whisper it comes to me:—
"Wake up old man and come to tea"
And it ain't in the spring and it ain't in the fall
But the close of a summer's day,
That's all.
