

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

Monday last marked the Annual Flower Show for the local Horticultural Society, which was held in the Township Hall. The executive regret that the exhibits were not as numerous as on previous occasions, the rainy season perhaps one of the main reasons for this disappointment. Mrs. S. Vaughn of Vaughn Gardens acted as the judge and during the evening gave to the audience the reasons for many of her decisions. She spoke with regret to the seeming lack of interest in Flower Shows and urged the members to greater activity in this direction. Of the prize winners, Mrs. R. L. Stiver won first honors with Earnie Appleton second. The complete prize list is as follows:

Asters, 6 blooms, straight petaled, Mrs. R. L. Stiver, E. Appleton; Asters, 6 blooms, curly petaled, E. Appleton; Collection of asters, no entries; Cosmos, Mrs. A. Armitage, Alex. Bell; Calendula, E. Appleton; Delphinium, collection, Mrs. N. Ogden; Zinnias, large flowers, Mrs. R. L. Stiver, Mrs. E. Braithwaite; Snapdragon, Mrs. R. L. Stiver; Zinnias, Pom Pom, Mrs. N. Ogden, Mrs. R. L. Stiver; Everlastings, Mrs. N. Ogden; Cockscomb, M. Sommerville; Phlox, perennial, G. C. Murphy, Mrs. R. L. Stiver; Nasturtiums, Mrs. M. Armitage; Petunias, single, E. Appleton, Mrs. G. C. Murphy; Roses, collection, Mrs. L. Miller; Dahlias, Mrs. R. L. Stiver, E. Appleton; Gladioli, three spikes of any color, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. R. L. Stiver; Gladioli, collection of Primulas, Mrs. R. L. Stiver; Perennials, collection, Mrs. N. Ogden, Mrs. R. L. Stiver; Living room bouquet, Mrs. G. R. Whaley, M. Sommerville; Dining room bouquet, Mrs. A. E. Milner, Mrs. Salmon; Collection of vegetables, Mrs. Barker, A. E. Milner.

During the evening delightful music was rendered by the Russian Quartette composed of the Itchuck family. These young folk show decided musical talent and are to be commended for the splendid entertainment given to the visitors of the show.

The weatherman smiled favorably on the first Field Day held on Wednesday and sponsored by the Athletic Association in aid of equipment for the Amusement Park at Crosby Memorial Rink. The grounds, under the direction of the Junior Farmers organization, presented a gala appearance with the colorful decorations and along with the ideal summer day made just the proper setting for such an occasion.

The attendance was more than gratifying to the Committee and an annual event is anticipated. The intensive program held interesting events for everyone and those responsible are to be congratulated upon the success of this splendid event.

The main feature of the day was the Softball contests, the prize for the junior boys game going to Unionville who won by a close margin from Cashell, score 22-21. In the senior Softball contest, Agincourt Supertest team defeated Mount Albert in the finals, score 5-2. Darkness brought the girls' game to a finish with Uxbridge and Maple tying the score. A draw gave the honor to Uxbridge.

During the evening's entertainment the men's Tug of War, during an intermission added considerable interest, Milliken defeating Unionville. The announcement of the prize winners of the day was also made during the evening.

The members of the local Women's Institute served delectable refreshments throughout the afternoon and evening making glad the hearts of hungry and thirsty folk. The horseshoe pitching contest was still another attractive feature with King and Howell of Agincourt winning the honors and Ramsey and Calvert of Buttonville second. The committee express appreciation for the co-operation shown and are deeply grateful to all who had a part in making this event a success.

The prize winners of the races are as follows: boys 9 and under, Jimmie Mowbray, Bruce Bagg, Gordon Minton; 12 years and under, Murray Acreman, Clark Hoad, Donald Maynard; 15 years and under, Ewart Bagg, Fred Taylor, Stewart Campbell. Girls 9 years and under, Alice Hoolahan, Rheta Rattle, Dorothy Wrage; 12 years and under, Helen Penstone, Jane Tatters, Thresa Smith; 15 years and under, Marie Forester, Dorothy Rattle, Helen Watson; Men's open race, John Young, Bert Dyke, Marley Case; Girls' open race, Mary Clark, Mildred Dick, Jean Thompson; Married men's race, Vernon Trunk, Len McMullen, Dave MacKay; married ladies' race, Joy Risebrough, Irene Sterling, Marjorie Olson; nail driving contest, Joy Risebrough, Carol Trunk, Mrs. Barber.

Unionville now boasts of a baseball league and if you are looking for a thrill make special effort to attend the games scheduled. If names mean anything you'll have one right on the start when Bert Dyke's Wild Cats meet Vern Trunk's Terriers on Friday night next. And again on Saturday night when Len McMullen's Greyhounds battle Douglas Brown's Tigers. Who said Unionville was a quiet place?

A FAVORITE TESTED RECIPE
Bread and Butter Pickle
6 qts. small cucumbers, 1 qt. small onions, sliced, 4 large green peppers, diced, 1 large red sweet pepper diced.

Do not peel cucumbers. Put vegetables in brine of 9 cups of water, 1 cup of salt for three hours, then take 3 qts. of pickling vinegar, 3 lb. of granulated sugar, 1 tablespoon tumeric, 1 teaspoon mustard seed, 1 teaspoon celery seed. Boil these together, drain pickle and drop into hot syrup. Do not boil. Bottle at once and seal.

VERSE FOR THE KIDDIES
"Come hither, little puppy dog,
I'll give you a new collar,
If you will learn to read your book,
And be a clever scholar."
"No, no," replied the puppy dog,
"I've other fish to fry;
And I must learn to guard your house,
And bark when thieves come nigh."
"Come hither, little pussy cat,
If you'll your grammar study,
I'll give you silver clogs to wear
Whenever the gutter's muddy."
"No, while I grammar learn," says Puss,

"Your house will in a trice,
Be over run from top to toe,
With flocks of rats and mice."

IN MEMORIAM
DENNE—In loving remembrance of a dear wife and mother, Hannah L. Denne, who passed away August 28, 1936.
Her memory is as dear to-day
As in the hour she passed away.
—Ever remembered by husband and daughters.

The public as well as the swimmers have reacted peculiarly to the reduction in distance of the men's Marathon swim at the Canadian National Exhibition. There is a marked preference for the long grinds, so the management has set the distance of the world's professional natatorial championship this year at ten miles instead of five as in 1936. The women swimmers will compete again over a three-mile course.

NORMAN IRELAND STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

WEDDING

FRISBY-GRINYER
A pretty wedding was quietly solemnized in St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill, on Wednesday evening, August 25th, when Phyllis Doris Grinyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Grinyer of Richvale, became the bride of Donald E. R. Frisby, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Frisby, of Richmond Hill. Rev. W. F. Wrixon, Rector of the Church, performed the ceremony and the wedding music was played by Miss D. Connor, L.T.C.M.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin and veil with cornet of orange blossoms and carried opelia roses and lily-of-the-valley. She wore the gift of the groom, a locket and chain. Miss Dorothy Grinyer attended her sister as maid of honour gowned in pink georgette and carried Johanna Hill roses. Miss Lillian Mucklewee as bridesmaid wore a gown of yellow georgette and carried Johanna Hill roses. Their hats were of net to match their gowns. Little Daisy Grinyer, sister of the bride, was a dainty flower girl in green satin and carried an old-fashioned nosegay.

Later a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Grinyer, becomingly gowned in black lace and chiffon with corsage of Briar roses and Mrs. W. H. Frisby, in navy blue crepe and georgette with corsage of Gladioli, received with the bridal couple.

Later the bride and groom left on a trip to Muskoka and on their return will live at Temperanceville. For travelling the bride wore a blue crepe dress with hat, coat and accessories to match.

Prize Winners at Richmond Hill Annual Flower Show

Richmond Hill Horticultural Society annual Flower Show was held at the arena last Saturday and while the number of exhibits in most of the classes were comparatively small there was a fine display of bloom and some splendid vegetables in the competition. Through the efforts of Mrs. Unger the juvenile department was enlarged this year and there was a particularly good exhibit of flowers and vegetables by the youngsters. The competition in the classes for bouquets was keen and the exhibits in these classes attracted the attention of visitors to the show. An outstanding attraction of the show, three exhibits of flowers each six feet long, were greatly admired.
