NEWTONBROOK

Rev. A. H. Halbert is attending the Annual Conference of Victoria University Alumni Association this week held in Emmanuel College, Toronto.

Mr. Kenneth Foreman celebrated his 18th birthday last Thursday. A number of young people met at his home on Thursday evening and a very enjoyable time was spent by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Summers and Mr. and Mrs. Gifford Summers spent the weekend last week with friends near Beaverton.

Misses Eleanor and Meryl Cummings and Mrs. Cummings and Mrs. Lawrence of Toronto were guests at the Parsonage last Monday.

The taggers for the Children's Aid of York County were out bright and early last Saturday morning. The young ladies in this district who assisted were Misses Ruth Douglas, Evelyn Cornes, Lorna Anderson, Alice Wiltshire and Doris VanLoven.

A School of Religious Training is again being held by the Young People's Union of the Suburban Area of Toronto Centre Presbytery this autumn commencing next Tuesday evening, Sept. 28 at 6.45 at Thornhill United Church with a supper meeting.

A large representation from Newtonbrook United Church Y.P.U. expect to attend. The speaker will be Rev. J. D. Parks, M.A., B.D., of Toronto who will speak on "Citizenship." While this school is being held the local Y.P.U. will withdraw their weekly meeting so there will be no excuse for not being present at the school each Tuesday evening.

Reeve and Mrs. R. E. Bales returned last Saturday from a delightful trip to the Maritimes.

The regular monthly meeting and final Flower Show of the North York Horticultural Society was held at the Township Hall on Monday night. In the absence of the President Mr. J. A. Bathgate, the chair was taken by Mrs. Donald Wheeler, first vice-president. The speaker was Mr. C. A. Cruickshank of Toronto who gave a very excellent illustrated lecture on the growing and planting of Fall Bulbs.

He had some beautiful colored slides of the choicest kinds of tulips, crocus, iris, snowdrops, etc. Kinds worth planting to get best results. He also had sample bulbs of all descriptions which he had on exhibit which he named so that his hearers would get a better idea what various types looked like.

Mr. Cruickshank visits Holland frequently and is an expert horticulturist. He also judged the flowers on exhibit which included dahlias, zinnias, asters, stocks, gladioli, snapdragon, scabiosa, roses, petunias and salpiglossis.

The Auxiliary of the W.M.S. met last Tuesday afternoon at the Parsonage with a large attendance. Mrs.

Halbert, the president, presided. After the business period the meeting was handed over to Mrs. A. W. Stephenson, the Strangers Secretary, who presided for the remaining part of the meeting. Mrs. James Murray conducted a very inspiring devotional service on the Beatitudes. This was followed by a vocal duet by Mrs. Harold Moore and Mrs. Walter Johnson. The new Study Book, "A new church faces a new world," by Dr. Jesse H. Arnup, was introduced which promises to be most interesting. It presents something of the great story of our United Church, its beginning, its growth and its present missionary task at home and abroad. Mrs. L. C. Washington, Strangers secretary of the Toronto Centre Presbyterial, was the guest speaker and spoke of the work connected with this department. She stressed the need of more friendliness to the stranger and new comer in our community. So often they are overlooked and not invited to attend the various organizations of the church.

A shower of household articles was held with a very generous response, for the Western bala.

It was decided to hold the Thank-offering meeting on October 26th. Also an Autumn Tea will be held at the home of Mrs. A. W. Stephenson on Tuesday, November 9. The meeting closed with prayer by Rev. A. H. Halbert.
