Owing to increased population and growing factory conditions in the Village it was feared that the water supply would soon become inadequate and a new well is being added to supply the needs.

The "Boys" Club has announced a dance for Friday evening, December 17th. The committee in charge is composed of Wilfred Maxey, Lorne Glass and Gordon Bagg.

Grace Robb, 6 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Robb, who has taken tap dancing lessons danced at a church concert at Schomberg on Saturday night, December 4th.

Good Cheer is the prevailing spirit of everybody during the Yuletide season when families, where it is possible, get together and exchange gifts and feast on the good things, all of which are produced on our farms. If the same spirit prevailed throughout the year and the practice of "Do unto others as you would be done by" was more liberally observed, how much easier it would be to move the grade. The Saviour in His Sermon on the Mount provided the plan.
