WAY BACK IN LIBERAL FILES

FORTY YEARS AGO

From our Issue of January 6th, 1898 Thursday, December 30th, 1897, will long be remembered in Richmond Hill. It saw the fulfillment of the liveliest hopes of the friends of education here. It saw the opening of a handsome new building which, as a High School, is not surpassed by anything in the province. The new building is situated on Yonge Street, at the corner of Mill Street, and occupies the front of a lot one and a quarter acres in extent. It is the third High School building that has been put up in the Village since 1853, and cost in the neighborhood of $7,000. It has two storeys and a basement. It contains three large class rooms, with cloak room adjacent, a commodious library and Board room and capacious halls and stairways. The basement has ample room for gymnasium. There are, in all, about twenty rooms in the building.
The exterior of the building presents a handsome appearance. It is red brick, with grey stone foundation.
The mason work was done by Mr. J.
Kelly and the wood work by L. Innes & Sons. The building was erected from the designs of Mr. J. Francis Brown, architect, Toronto, who was selected from many competitors to prepare plans and superintend the work. The completed building is a monument to both builders and architect.

The exercises on the afternoon of December 30th were such as befitted the opening of this institution of learning. The Board of Education consists of the following gentlemen:
M. Naughton, (chairman); J. A. E.
Switzer, (secretary-treasurer); J. N.
Hutchinson, M.D., A. Newton, W. T.
Storey, M. McNair, J. Boyle, D. Lynett, W. H. Clubine, G. McDonald, W.
Harrison and F. McConaghy. These were nearly all present at the reception at 1 p.m. when the new school was for the first time thrown open for inspection. M. Naughton, Esq., Chairman of the Board of Education, called the assemblage to order at 2:30 p.m. Around the chair were seated Mr. Teefy, postmaster; Mr. A.
G. F. Lawrence, Revs. Grant and McCulloch, and Principal A. E.
Coombs. A pleasing feature of the program was the presentation of a handsome flag 9 ft. x 4½ ft., to the Board of Education. The flag was bought by the pupils of the school and was presented on their behalf by Mr. Coombs. Speeches were made and diplomas presented to successful pupils.

At the public meeting held in the evening the Masonic Hall was crowded to the doors and many were not able to gain admission. Mr. Naughton again presided. Interesting speeches were given interspersed with music. Before separating a vote of thanks moved and seconded by Messrs Harrison and Switzer was tendered the speakers of the evening.

The President vs. Vice-President's curling match was won on Saturday by the latter.

The plant of the Stouffville Free Press has been purchased by Mr. R.
P. Coulson, who will continue the paper under the name of the Stouffville Sentinel.

On Watch Night, last Friday evening, the officers and teachers of the Methodist Sabbath School were elected. The report of the secretary and treasurer read by Mr. A. J. Hume, showed the school to be in excellent standing in numbers, attendance and regularity. The treasurer's report showed receipts amounting to $166.88; expenditure $126.40 during the year, leaving a balance of $40.48. Mr. W.
Harrison was again elected superintendent making 38 years of successive service in that capacity. This, with two previous years as assistant, makes 40 years of steady work in the management of the same school, an experience of but few.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

From our Issue of January 2nd, 1908 The station at West Gormley presents a busy scene when the morning train pulls in. About sixty cans of lard fluid are rapidly hustled on board by the energetic farmers of this locality. The elevator at this place is a marvel of its kind. From the cupola, which is reached by a fire-escape staircase on the outside, a grand view may be obtained of the whole township of Markham.

At the nomination held at Union-ville on Monday Jonathan Nigh was returned deputy-reeve by acclamation. There will be a contest for reeve and three councillors. The nom-

BOYNTON WELDRICK

Re-elected by acclamation Deputy-Reeve of Vaughan Township for 1938.
Mr. Weldrick first entered municipal life in June 1932 when he was elected by acclamation as a member of council to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of J. T. Saigeon. He served again as councillor in 1933, 1934 and 1935. He was elected by acclamation as deputy-reeve for 1936 and 1937 and now has been honored with his third acclamation.

General News & Views

New Year's Eve will be remembered for the worst blizzard of the season. A driving snow storm made traffic conditions very dangerous and very few motorists ventured out on the highways.

How are your New Year's Resolutions standing up under the test?

The Montreal Star says a gossip is one who talks to you about others; a bore is one who talks about himself; and a brilliant conversationalist is one who talks to you about yourself.

Tain't what we have,
But what we give;
Tain't where we are,
But how we live;
Tain't what we do,
But how we do it;
That makes this life Worth going through it.

A friend remarked to us the other day: "I never used the public library until I broke my leg a couple of years ago. Then I found out about it and have been using it ever since." It would be too bad if we had to get our legs broken to find out what a fine asset the library can be to all of us. It is a fact that those who don't use the library, cannot realize what they are missing.—St. Mary's Journal-Argus.

A motor car may be assembled in a half hour in some factories, but a railway engine can knock it into a cocked hat in about half a second.— Kingston Whig-Standard.

The old proverb told about "killing two birds with one stone." You do that when you buy off the home store, as you supply your own need at the bottom price, and help build up home business.

"Public relationship to the welfare of the local paper is too vital and obvious to even suggest public indifference. Just what any local community would do without its weekly paper is a matter upon which less public thought is given that might be expected. Its place in community development, in social and personal relationships; its leadership in matters of prime interests to the citizens at large, and its place as a business builder in the locality it serves all vitaly connect it with the individual interests of every citizen."—Ingersoll Tribune.

inations are as follows: For Reeve, Walter Scott, W. H. Lapp. For councillors, George Padget, W. Ormerod, T. Hagerman, G. Morrison, A. Wide-man, O. Kester.

Mr. T. H. Keys of Maple was appointed Master of Masonic Lodge. In honour of the event Mr. and Mrs.
Keys entertained a large number of the members and their wives to a supper at their home last Friday night.

At the Vaughan nomination meeting Monday afternoon 110 signatures were received on a petition requesting the Railway commission to order the C.P.R. to erect a sub-way under the company's track at a point near the Village of Woodbridge.

MAGWOOD DEFEATED IN YORK TOWNSHIP

Marsh Magwood, defeated as the conservative candidate in West York in the October provincial elections took his second defeat New Year's Day when he was beaten by F. J.
MacRae for the Reeveship of York Township by a majority of almost 1000. Col. R. J. Stewart was elected deputy-reeve in Ward one defeating James Crang and R. Troman.

Even Santa Claus is not immune from a certain class of people whose fingers are sticky and who seem to be unable to resist the temptation to pick up something that doesn't belong to them providing the owner is not looking.

Some time during the late hours of Saturday night or the early hours of Sunday morning, at Durham, thieves robbed the community Christmas tree at the main corner of several sections of electric lights. Who they were has not been learned, but if they are caught we hope they get all that is coming to them, and it will avail them little, if picked up, to call around to this office with the request that their "Name be kept out of the paper."

The tree this year was particularly well decorated and it seems too bad that the Christmas season has to be marred by those petty thieves who are of no particular credit to themselves or their community.—Durham Chronicle.

The peoples of democratic nations should realize that without co-operation based on a mutual respect and understanding of individual viewpoints and problems, democracy is in grave danger of being crushed beneath the marching feet of dictatorial powers.—The Labour Leader.

Jock: "And how do you like your
