SHORT COURSE AT WOODBRIDGE

The Short Course classes in Agriculture and Home Economics being held in Woodbridge from Jan. 4th to 28th, are creating an unusual amount of interest and a load of equipment has already come in for the class rooms. It is thirteen years since the last course of this kind was held in Woodbridge and we learn from some of the men who attended then, are planning to take up the work again.

Many of the former class members are now keeping house, and operating farms in the district for themselves but a younger group of splendid young people in the community no doubt will swell the enrolment to the capacity of the halls. W. M. Cockburn, Agricultural Representative, reports the very finest of co-operation from municipal councils, Women's Institutes, Farmers' Clubs, Junior Farmers and the Woodbridge Agricultural Society, which no doubt accounts for the large number indicating their intentions to take advantage of this training.

The ladies' work will include Household Science and Clothing or Sewing while the Agricultural classes will include a discussion of the various phases of live stock, field crops, plant diseases and pests, poultry, soils, fertilizers, drainage, farm arithmetic and practice in judging live stock, seeds, weed identification, rope splicing and tying handy farm knots.

The classes will elect their own executive, shortly after opening and arrange their Literary programmes for the latter part of each Friday afternoon. Speaking of short course officers, reminds us that R. N. Mitchell, Sec. of the Edgeley U.F.O. Club, was President of the last class held in Woodbridge under R. J. Rogers when he was Representative.

NEWTONBROOK

The Young People's Union held its first meeting of the New Year last Monday evening and took the form of a banquet meeting at 6.45 with the parents as honored guests and was under the direction of the social convener, Miss Mary Douglas and her helpers. A toast to the King was the first item on the program proposed by Miss Margaret Shaw. To the church, proposed by Mr. Clifford Brett and responded to by Rev. A. H. Halbert. A toast to the Parents was proposed by Mr. Irwin Brown and responded to by Mr. John Duggan Sr. To the Young People proposed by the Past President, Mr. W. T. New, and responded to by Mr. Harold Duggan, president of the Y.P.U.

After this part of the program there was a brief devotional service. Two hymns were sung and the Scripture lesson from I Samuel and 1st chapter was read by Miss Doris Newton and prayer was offered by Rev. A. H. Halbert. The guest speaker was Rev. Terry Hart who gave a very inspirational gospel message with a strong appeal to begin the New Year by dedicating our lives to Christ and His service.

Mr. Harold Duggan announced a Young People's Inspirational New Year Rally to be held next Monday at 7.45 p.m. in Trinity United Church, Toronto, sponsored by the United Church, Toronto Young People's Council.
