EX-DEPUTY CHIEF ARCHIBALD PASSES

The death took place at his home, 16 Highview Crescent, Toronto, on Saturday last, of David Archibald, former Deputy Chief of the Toronto Police Force, and a well-known figure in the city for more than fifty years. Mr. Archibald came to Canada in 1865 after serving four years in the Royal Irish Constabulary, and in 1866 joined the Force in Toronto. The city had then a population of about 40,000 and a police force of 40 men. He lived to see Toronto grow to a population of about 800,000 with a Police Force of over 1,000. Mr. Archibald was for twenty-seven years the Staff Inspector and had charge of the Domestic Relations Department, which has since developed into the Department now presided over by Judge Mott. After that he was advanced to Chief Inspector and then to Deputy Chief. He retired in 1918 and since that time has lived quietly in his home in Toronto.

A public funeral was held in Trinity United Church on Tuesday afternoon presided over by Rev. Geo. S. Fallis, his pastor. Addresses on the life and work of the deceased were given by Rev. C. W. Follett of Richmond Hill and Dr. S. Cleaver, an intimate friend. An escort of one hundred policemen under Deputy Chief Guthrie escorted the procession and the police band was in attendance. Interment was in Mount Pleasant Cemetery. Three sons and four daughters survive him, of whom Mrs. C. W. Follett of Richmond Hill is one. Mrs. Archibald passed away a few years ago.

Sir William Mulock

Rt. Hon. Sir William Mulock celebrated his 94th birthday on January 19th. Sir William was born at Bond Head in 1844 and is probably the oldest living graduate of Toronto University, having graduated in 1863. He was member of the House of Commons for North York from 1882 to 1905, Minister of Labor 1900-1905 and Postmaster General 1896-1905. In 1905 he was appointed Chief Justice of the Exchequer Court, and in 1923 Chief Justice of Ontario, succeeding Sir William Meredith. He has been chancellor of Toronto University since 1924.

OBITUARY

LATE MRS. H. HEWISON

The community lost a highly esteemed citizen in the passing on Saturday, January 15th of Mrs. H. Hewison. The funeral was held Monday, January 17th with service in Richmond Hill United Church conducted by Rev. C. W. Follett.

The late Mrs. Hewison celebrated her seventy-eighth birthday December 30th and until a few months ago was very active in church and community life. She was a staunch worker in Richmond Hill United Church and was a life member and Past President of the Women's Missionary Society and a Life Member of the W.C.T.U. She loved the companionship of friends and was particularly fond of young people and took a keen interest in all their undertakings. She possessed a cheerful, kindly and lovable disposition which endeared her to a wide circle of friends who join with The Liberal in extending sincere sympathy to the bereaved family. In recent years Mrs. Hewison travelled a great deal and had made five trips to the Pacific coast and four trips east to the Atlantic. Wherever she went she made warm friends and was dearly loved by all who knew her.

She is survived by two brothers, Joseph Hamilton, Chicago and Geo. Hamilton, Toronto, two sons J. Howard Sloan of Wingham and Gordon H. Sloan of Toronto, three daughters, Mrs. A. Cryslar and Mrs. C. Green of Toronto and Mrs. H. G. Walker of Richmond Hill. Her first husband Mr. David Sloan died eighteen years ago. Five years later she was married to Mr. Warren Hewison who died four years later.

The funeral service Monday was largely attended by friends and relatives and a large number of floral tributes was evidence of the sympathy of a wide circle of friends. The pallbearers were: Charles Graham, Lauder Glass, of Richmond Hill and C. Lidey, Robert Broatch, Jack Bowman and W. Davis of Toronto. Interment followed in Richmond Hill cemetery.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH

A verdict of accidental death was reported last night by a coroner's jury probing the death of Bartlett Smith, provincial traffic officer, instantly killed Dec. 22, when he was thrown from his motorcycle against a tree, on No. 8 Highway, east of Homer. Witnesses who appeared before the probe conducted by Coroner Dr. J. L. Poirier were E. Ambrust, of Homer; Traffic Officers Don. Huffman and Orval Rupp, both of Niagara Falls. Provincial Officer T. E. Pearson and Dr. D. V. Currey said the cause of death was a fractured skull. Officer Huffman gave expert evidence as to what might have caused Smith's motorcycle to suddenly veer off the road, advancing the theory that Smith's foot may have been caught beneath a bar which connects the sidecar to the machine. Louis B. Tripp was foreman of the jury.—St. Catharines Standard, January 12th, 1938.

October 27—Bridge party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Angle. 22 tables played bridge or other games. A most enjoyable evening.

Premiums—Perennial Shrubs, Hybrid Rose Bushes and Perennial Roots. 100 of our members took advantage of the offer. Cost to the society, $38.04.

Sprayer—Visited 37 gardens or orchards costing the society $100.38; returns received $76.35.

The park and Yonge St. boulevard presented a well-cared-for appearance all summer, costing the society $88.99. Individual donations $25.90 cash, also goods.

As the books for 1937 are closed there exists a feeling of regret that the society does not interest a greater proportion of our community. We deplore the small attendance at public meetings yet, withal, are hopeful that during the year 1938 the influence of the Horticultural Society may be more largely felt.

VICTORIA SQUARE

Well, the long-looked for banquet has come and gone and as usual it was a splendid success. The inner man was satisfied to the uttermost and the guests received a real education as well. Mr. Chipman of Pickering College spoke on the popular subject, "The Co-operative Movement" and cleared up some of the questions upon which many there had been pondering. Many thanks to Mr. Chipman. The different toasts were proposed and responded to by the following: Mr. H. F. Collard, Miss Mable Sanderson, Mr. Jerry Walker, Mr. Bill Champion, Mr. Cockburn and Miss Doris Cooke. Mr. Fraser Gee introduced the speaker, Mr. Chipman, and Miss Gayman sang two beautiful solos accompanied by Mr. Alan McConaghy. At the close of this part of the program Mr. Jack Frisby, the toastmaster, then proposed the room be cleared and extended the invitation to everyone to participate in the dance to follow.

Mr. and Mrs. John King and Jean of Keswick took dinner last Wednesday at Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Mortson's and called on other friends as well.

Mr. Robert Agar is still undergoing treatment in the hospital. His recovery is slow but his many friends are hoping for the sure recovery that his physician promises.

Miss Bonnie Robertson is still confined to the house through ill health. We do wish Bonnie a quick and lasting recovery.

Mr. Richard Rice returned last week after spending the last two months touring England and reported a good trip.

A number of our Young People are attending a school of dramatics at Unionville under Mr. Dean of Central Technical School, Toronto, January 19th and 28th.

The regular meeting of the W.M.S. was held at the home of Mrs. Haig on Wednesday last. The study book was given by Mrs. Herman Mortson's group.

The congregational meeting and supper will be held on Jan. 26th instead of January 20th owing to the Markham Township Religious Education Council convention held at Stouffville.

The Dramatic Society met last Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Caseley for a rehearsal preparatory to their play presentation at Laskay.

Glad to report Mrs. Grace Boynton's health is much improved. Mrs. Caseley, Mrs. Collard and Mrs. Ida Nicholls and Miss Mable Sanderson attended the W. A. convention in Toronto last week.

The W. A. met at the home of Mrs. H. F. Collard last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Dennis' group was in charge.

R. H. Corner Is Elected Warden York County

As expected Reeve R. H. Corner of Georgina was unanimously chosen as Warden of York County at the opening session Tuesday.

Warden Corner was sworn into office by County Judge James Parker, assisted by Clerk Robert Phillips and Rev. N. Clarke Wallace.

Those nominated were: Reeve Gordon Harris, Weston; Reeve Albert Knowles, Aurora; Reeve Robert Scott, Vaughan; and Reeve Earl Bales, North York.

Warden Corner appointed as his striking committee for 1938: Reeve W. A. MacDonald, Reeve Earl Bales, Reeve Albert Knowles, Reeve Edward Gardner, Reeve Dr. L. W. Dales and Reeve John Warren.

Council decided to send a letter of congratulation to Sir William Mulock, who celebrated his 94th birthday on Wednesday.

Reeve S. Gordon Harris of Weston was unanimously elected Deputy Warden and Reeve C. Clarence Downey of Swansea and Reeve Dr. L. W. Dales of Newmarket were chosen as County Commissioners to complete the county "cabinet."

When the Striking Committee's report was presented, the following were named Chairmen of the various committees: Finance, Reeve John Warren, East York; Education, Reeve B. J. Wheeler, Scarborough; By-laws and Legislation, Reeve F. G. Gardiner, Forest Hill; Taxation, Reeve Robert Ainsworth, Mimico; Equalization and Revaluation, W. J. Bennett, New Toronto; and Agriculture and Reformation, Deputy Reeve Reuben Phillips, North York.

A special Police Committee was appointed with a view to increasing the efficiency of the county police force without adding to the number of men. Named to the committee were Warden Harry Corner; Reeve W. E. MacDonald, New Toronto; and Reeve Fred Gardiner, Forest Hill.
