

JUSTICE McPHILLIPS DIES

Victoria, Jan. 25.—Death of Mr. Justice A. E. McPhillips yesterday in hospital here ended a distinguished legal and political career. He was 77. Member of the British Columbia court of appeal, Mr. Justice McPhillips had been in hospital since his collapse two weeks ago at the court house.

VEJLORE

W. I. To Sponsor Dance

The Vellore W.I. will hold a dance in the Community Hall, Vellore, Friday, February 18th commencing at 8.30 p.m. Catania's Orchestra, E. Evans, Floor Manager. Progressive euchre in basement of the hall. Admission 35 cents. Mrs. C. Rutherford, president, Marion Phillips, secretary.

UNIONVILLE

A popular lecture entitled "Spring Gardening from A to Z" will be given by Dick the Amateur Gardener in the Township Hall, Unionville, February 2nd at 8 p.m. All interested in Horticulture are cordially invited to be present.

TESTON

At the Young People's Union last Sunday evening an interesting program was given opening with a hymn then the Lord's Prayer in unison and Scripture reading. Hazel Carson gave a reading "A New Start," Douglas Kyle spoke on "The Teller That Gossips," "Response to the Roll Call" was a reading by Charles Robson, Eleanor Heacock gave an article on "That Cow Rosie".

Maple Young People visited Teston Young People last Monday evening and gave an excellent program. Rev. J. R. MacCrimmon spoke on Robert Burns as the poet's birthday was on the 25th of January and there were other scotch selections. Mrs. Walter Armstrong and Mrs. Merritt sang two solos each. Maple Junior Orchestra enlivened the program with several selections. Afterward a social time and games followed by lunch.

Rev. D. Davis and Mrs. Davis had tea with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cooper on Wednesday evening of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cooper had tea with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bowen last Sunday evening.

EDGELEY

The 20th annual oyster supper of the Edgeley Farmers' Club proved to be as usual a great success. After partaking of a sumptuous supper served by the ladies of the community an interesting program was enjoyed by all. Mr. P. Putterbaugh, president of the club, acted as master of ceremonies. During the course of the program Mr. R. N. Mitchell, secretary of the club, gave a very favorable report of the doings of the club during the past year. Mr. R. G. Keffer read an address and Miss Doreen Robb presented Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Locke with a beautiful bouquet of roses in honor of their 50th wedding anniversary and also for the many services rendered by them for the club. Mr. Clark, ventriloquist from Toronto, entertained with his puppets. The rest of the program consisted of selections given by home talent. Piano solo, Miss Della Lund; solo, Master Donald Bag; recitation, Miss Doreen Downey; duet with guitar, Misses Ruth and Doreen Robb; duet, Master Donald and Miss Eilene Newton; tap dance, Miss Gwendoline Robb, Woodbridge; duet, Mr. and Mrs. William Locke; duet, Master Gilbert and Miss Mildred Watson; duet, accordion and piano, Misses Ruth and Jean Keffer; duet with guitar, Miss Myrtle and Master Donald Keffer; Mrs. William Woods' orchestra, Mr. C. Roberts, Lund Bros. and Mr. Edwin Crook; duet with piano, Misses Edna and Elsie Keffer. A vote of thanks was moved by Mr. L. Espey and seconded by Mr. E. Robb. The evening was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

Edgeley Y.P.U. held their meeting Sunday evening at 7.30 in charge of Literary convener, Miss Gladys Smith.

Prayer by Donald Giffen, Scripture lesson by Donald Bag, and explanation by Miss Kathleen Whitmore, reading by Helen Newton and two duets by Doreen and Ruth Robb with guitar music were included in the program. The topic was taken by Miss Gladys Smith.

The Y.P.U. plan to hold an Amateur Program on February 14th, St. Valentine's Day, further notice later. We are asking local Y.P.U. members to help. Make this an enjoyable evening.

Next week the meeting will be in charge of Misses Helen Newton and Bertha Stong. A musical program.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Richards and family of Wexford visited the latter's sister, Mrs. Watson on Sunday.

BIRTH

REAMAN—On Saturday, January 22 to Mr. and Mrs. Warren Reaman, Langstaff, the gift of a daughter (Isabel Mae).

Social and Personal

Mrs. Mary C. Loveys of Toronto spent Sunday as the guest of her brother, Rev. C. W. Follett.

Friends will be pleased to hear that Mrs. L. Crockett who has been ill the past week is making splendid progress toward recovery.

Rev. David Marshall, Mrs. Marshall and family who have been home on furlough left today for British Guiana to take up again their missionary work in that field.

A delightful social event of the coming week-end will be the Bridge sponsored by the School and Home Club which will be held in the High School "Gym" Friday evening commencing at 8.30. The proceeds will be used for the splendid work carried on by this organization.

Mr. J. B. Ainslie, drum-major of the Balmoral Pipe Band of Richmond Hill, has kindly donated a box of chocolates as a special prize to any boy or girl who sells the greatest number of tickets for the concert on February 7 next. The band will also allow any boy or girl, who can sell nine tickets, to keep the tenth free of charge.

Another successful euchre was held at St. Mary's R.C. Church Rectory on Thursday evening of last week. Prize winners were: Ladies, Mrs. Morrison, Elgin Mills, Mrs. E. Morris, Richmond Hill, consolation, Mrs. T. Allison, Richmond Hill; Gents, Mr. Horton, Richvale, Mr. Morrison, Elgin Mills, consolation, Mr. C. Nelson, Richmond Hill. Plan to attend the next Euchre at the Rectory on February 3rd.

CARD OF THANKS

June Armstrong returned Saturday from the Hospital after spending four weeks there following an accident on Yonge Street. June and her mother wish to take this opportunity of thanking their friends and also the teachers and students of the R.H.H.S. for their many acts of kindness during her illness.

BALANCED BUDGET

Succeeding in keeping well within its estimates for 1937, York County Council presented its fifth annual and consecutive balanced budget, which showed a surplus of $22,913, with its financial position declared as eminently satisfactory.

PRESENTATION TO

GEORGE MASTERS At a delightful social evening held by the Vaughan and Richmond Hill Veterans last Thursday evening Mr. George Masters, a past president of the branch, was presented with a beautiful bronze radio lamp as a mark of appreciation for his splendid service to the veterans' organization.

RICHVALE SOCIAL CLUB

A large crowd attended the Euchre and Dance under the auspices of Richvale Social Club on Wednesday evening.

Dating from January 19th an aggregate prize will be given to the lady and gent winning the most points in four euchres. Euchre and Dance every Wednesday evening. Euchre at 8.30 sharp.

UNITED CHURCH W.M.S.

The regular monthly meeting of the afternoon Auxiliary of the W. M.S. will be held in the School Room of the United Church on Thursday, February 3rd at 3 p.m. All ladies of the congregation are invited to attend.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

The regular meeting of the W.C. T.U. will be held at the home of Mrs. David Hill on Wednesday, February 2nd at 3 p.m.

An interesting program is being arranged and a cordial invitation is extended to the ladies of the community to be present.

LARGE CROWDS SKATING

Every Wednesday and Saturday evening large crowds of happy skaters enjoy this popular winter sport at Richmond Hill rink. The local arena this year is enjoying the best patronage in its history. Fill up the car and come to Richmond Hill for a skate Wednesday and Saturday evenings.

GIRL GUIDE NOTES

At a joint meeting on Tuesday evening of the First Richmond Hill Troop of Girl Guides and Pack of Brownies three Brownies "walked up" into the Guides. Lunch served by the members of the local association closed a very enjoyable evening.

Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret Rose, following in their mother's footsteps, are now full-fledged members of the Girl Guide family. They were enrolled during Christmas week by their aunt, Princess Mary, Princess Elizabeth being enrolled in the Kingfisher patrol and Princess Margaret Rose in the Leprechaun Six of the 1st Buckingham Palace Company of Girl Guides.

RE-ELECTED CHAIRMAN

PAUL E. ANGLE

Re-elected as chairman of Richmond Hill Public School Trustee Board at the inaugural meeting held Wednesday evening.

UNITED CHURCH ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the United Church was held last evening when very interesting and encouraging reports were presented. A congregational supper was served by the Woman's Association, sponsored by Miss McLean's group, when a splendid representation of the members and officials enjoyed a bountiful repast.

The pastor, Rev. C. W. Follett, presided over the business session and Mr. A. E. Plewman acted as secretary. The treasurer's report showed an advance over the previous year while the Sunday School reported marked progress. The Women's Association reported a total income of $777 with disbursements of $552. The Women's Missionary organizations raised $561, as follows: Afternoon Society $450, Evening Society $106 and the Mission Band $5. The C. G. I. T. is doing a splendid work among the girls of the community. The sum of $1054 was raised for the Missionary and Maintenance Fund, which, together with the Women's Missionary organizations make a total of $1615 for the world-wide interests of the Church. The clerk of the Session, Mr. C. P. Wiley, reported that fifteen new members had been added to the roll during the year, six had died, and a number transferred to the non-resident list.

The Board of Stewards elected for 1938 was as follows: W. W. Trench, Russell Lynett, Len Clement, J. A. Bales, Peter Savage, Reg. Cooper, Ira D. Ramer, Alec Little, Albert Hill, George Plewman, W. L. Glass and James D. McLean.

The following are those elected as Elders for the next three years: W. Scott, Dr. J. P. Wilson, Fred Coulter and C. P. Wiley. The pastor expressed his appreciation of the spirit of co-operation and fellowship that prevailed in the church and stressed the supreme importance of the spiritual influence the church must wield if the Kingdom of God is to come among men.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF ST. MARY'S CHURCH RICHMOND HILL

The annual meeting of the congregation of St. Mary's Anglican church was held on Monday evening. The Rector, Rev. W. F. Wrixon, was in the chair. Mr. Wrixon in his opening report thanked the Officers and Members for their loyal support during the year and reported that there had been an increase in church membership and Sunday congregations. The financial statement of the Wardens showed an increase in church offertories. Reports of the Sunday School, Woman's Auxiliary, Teen Age Girls, Junior Auxiliary, A.Y.P.A. and Choir showed progress.

Mr. Stanford and Mr. Scrivener were returned to office as Church Wardens, and the following were elected Sidesmen: R. Christopher, N. Christopher, Dr. W. Mason, P. C. Hill, R. Paris, W. Hall, F. Carter, D. McGibbon, E. C. Mansbridge, W. Charles, R. D. Little, W. Savage and Mr. Martin. Lay Members of the Synod, H. Stanford and R. D. Little.

ASK FOR WIDER YONGE STREET

A resolution favoring the widening of the Yonge street highway between Richmond Hill and Steele's Corners will be brought before the local provincial member and the Department of Highways, following a round table discussion between representatives of the surrounding municipalities and the Aurora Board of Trade at Aurora Tuesday night.

PRESBYTERIAN W. A.

The Presbyterian W. A. met at the manse last Thursday for their monthly meeting. A very enjoyable program was heard by the members. During the business period it was decided to have a Valentine Tea on Friday, February 11 from 3 to 6 o'clock at the manse. There will be tea cup reading.

At the close of the meeting dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

CURLING NOTES

There are two fine sheets of ice at the local rink and enthusiastic games are enjoyed almost every afternoon and evening. Don't forget Tuesday and Friday evenings are special curling nights.

Tomorrow two rinks will represent Richmond Hill in the district cup group play-offs. The rinks will be George Agar, Elmore Harding, Geo. Fuller, James Young skip; R. Paris, E. Morris, E. A. Bonnick, J. E. Smith skip.

You can't judge the size of an estate by the hate and violence of the hopeful heirs.

America is safe so long as all classes rise in wrath when they see a swell-head official imposing on a helpless citizen.

BRIDGE

Under auspices of SCHOOL AND HOME CLUB

High School "Gym"

FRIDAY, JANUARY 28th

Commencing 8.30 p.m.

Admission 35c.

ALL WELCOME

MAESTRO PAUL

Well known voice teacher and critic will undertake to train eight boys in the art of singing children's folk songs for concert and radio appearances. Only those with good vocal material will be accepted.

Auditions from three to four o'clock Saturday, January 29th at the Rustic Inn Studio. Accompanist, Mrs. J. W. Johnson.

MRS. ISOBEL BANNERMAN

Elocution and Dramatic Art

Richmond Hill Agricultural Society

ANNUAL MEETING

Municipal Hall

Saturday, Jan. 29th, 1938

AT 2.30 P.M.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS AND GENERAL BUSINESS

R. S. COOPER, Secretary.

R. W. SCOTT, President.

WEEK-END SPECIALS

- Horseshoe Salmon, 1/2 lb. tins 17 1/2 c.
Lima Beans, lb. 10c.
White Beans, 3 lbs. 13c.
Clark's Pork & Beans, 2 large tins 19c.
Ginger Snaps, lb. 10c.
Upton's Strawberry Jam, large 24c.
Oranges, large 19c.
Sandwich Biscuits, lb. 17c.
Cream Puffs, dozen 30c.
Bee Hive Corn Syrup 17c.
Bulk Cocoa, 2 lbs. 25c.
Brooms, each 25c.

KERR BROTHERS

BAKERS — BUTCHERS — GROCERS
Phone 117 Richmond Hill

ROYAL THEATRE AURORA

TODAY, THURSDAY, JANUARY 27th
CARY GRANT - CONSTANCE BENNETT - ROLAND YOUNG in "TOPPER"
It is one of the funniest comedies of the year.

FRIDAY & SATURDAY, JAN. 28 - 29 TWO FEATURES
CHESTER MORRIS - WHITNEY BOURNE in "FLIGHT FROM GLORY"

Considerably better than average aviation drama
Also JED PROUTY - SHIRLEY DEANE in "One of the Jones Family Series"
"HOT WATER"

This is one of the best Jones family pictures to date. Good entertainment for young and old.
Also POPEYE THE SAILORMAN CARTOON

MONDAY & TUESDAY, JAN. 31 - FEB. 1
PAUL MUNI - MIRIAM HOPKINS in "THE WOMAN I LOVE"

With war-time aviation in the French flying corps as a background to a touching love story, and plenty of action for the thrill seekers.

WEDNESDAY & THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 2 - 3
LORETTA YOUNG - WARNER BAXTER - VIRGINIA BRUCE in "WIFE, DOCTOR AND NURSE"

Good emotional drama, with excellent comedy relief.

York Auto Wreckers advertisement with phone number 6189 Yonge St. and address Willowdale 272W Newtonbrook Branch, Oak Ridges. Includes slogan 'IF IT'S FOR A CAR OR TRUCK WE HAVE IT' and 'Tires from $1.00 up'.

Sleeping Beauty Organist for Richard II

Virginia Oman, the "Sleeping Beauty" of 1931, who slept for six months and woke "feeling fine" with an ambition for a musical career. She plays on a Hammond Organ, the new instrument which uses no pipes or reeds, the incidental music during Maurice Evans' stage production of Richard II. This production is booked to play this season across the United States and Canada.

Above are Maurice Evans, Producer, in the title role, and Ian Keith as Bolingbroke, as they appear on the Toronto stage, in late December, and early in the New Year at Winnipeg, Edmonton, Vancouver and Victoria. Inset is the Hammond Organ which is manufactured in Canada by Northern Electric Company, Montreal.