Nobleton Students Among Thriftest

Nobleton Public School is one of three schools in the Province to attain a weekly average percentage of 100, according to J. R. Littleproud, Inspector of the Ontario Penny Bank. It is the only school in York County to attain this figure. Grand Avenue School, Humber Bay, has 98 per cent, and Memorial School, Weston, 60 per cent. All other schools in the county are below 50 per cent.

WEDDING

BALDOCK-HEPBURN

Chalmers Presbyterian church, Uxbridge, was the background for the marriage last Saturday of Helen Evelyn Hepburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David T. Hepburn, to George W. Baldock, of Weston, formerly of Richmond Hill, son of Thomas Baldock of Toronto and the late Mrs. Baldock. Rev. P. Thornton Meek officiated, with Fred Pollett of Weston at the organ. Silver standards of yellow daffodils and huckleberries were used as decorations with greenery. The guest pews were decorated with clusters of the flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of calla lily velvet, cut in moulded silhouette. Her veil was of egg shell tulle, halo fashion, and caught with orange blossoms, a short veil in front covering the face, and the very long back veil extending into a train. The bride carried lilies of the valley and white carnations showered with carnation petals, maidenhair fern and gardenias.

The procession of bridesmaids included Mrs. Lawrence Newton of Toronto as matron of honor, Elsie Shier, Elizabeth Shier of Toronto, and Sheila Croskery of Ottawa as junior bridesmaid. Marion Low acted as flower girl. The attendants wore velvet frocks all cut like that of the bride, but with heart-shaped neckline, the matron of honor in turquoise blue and the bridesmaids in American beauty shade. The flower girl's frock was of calla lily velvet. The attendants wore matching Schiaparelli bonnets, with ostrich-tipped brims and tied under the chin. The matron of honor's flowers were a colonial bouquet of purple and red anemones, yellow freesias, violets, forget-me-nots, all edged with scarlet carnation petals. The bridesmaids carried colonial bouquets, also of variegated flowers, edged with forget-me-nots. The flower girl's pendulum bouquet was a soft rosette of dainty flowers.

Jack Low was best man and the ushers were Walter D. Hepburn, Toronto, brother of the bride; Charles Hanna, Walter Baldock, Mt. Dennis, brother of the groom, and Ernest Carruthers of Weston.

A reception was held at the bride's home, Uxbridge, the bride's mother welcoming the guests in a gown of parma velvet, matching accessories and orchid corsage. Later the couple left by motor for points west, the bride travelling in a smart black crepe dress trimmed with the new Schiaparelli pink, a smart black baku straw sailor, with veil, a black seal coat, black accessories and corsage of gardenias. On their return the couple will live in Weston.

W. I. CELEBRATED 25TH ANNIVERSARY

The Richmond Hill Women's Institute celebrated its 25th anniversary last Thursday evening. The program included the presentation of a one-act farce comedy and a number of contests and games. Mrs. D. NUISANCE MUST STOP

Jokesters with a distorted sense of humor who have been ringing Yonge Street door bells are due for a sad awakening one of these days according to local authorities. Some of the guilty parties are known and if the practice is not stopped action will be taken against offenders.

Dies At Age Of 99 Years

Mrs. Rebecca Pearson, widow of George Pearson, died at the home of her son-in-law, Aaron Goddard, sixth concession, North York, yesterday, in her 99th year.

Mrs. Pearson was born in Chinguacousy Township, daughter of pioneer parents who had come to this country from England. When she married George Pearson they took up residence at Etobicoke where they resided for 50 years, later going to the home of her son-in-law in North York.

Mrs. Pearson was a Presbyterian. She is survived by one son, F. Pearson, Malton, and two daughters, Mrs. A. Goddard, North York, and Mrs. Parnel White, Maple.

RICHMOND HILL PUBLIC SCHOOL TEAM WINS FROM THORNHILL

Richmond Hill Public School has a hockey team this year and big league sports on the lookout for stars of the future would be well advised to cast a glance at the local puck-chasers. Last night they played Thornhill school team and were victorious by a score of 8 to 1. Morley Hillaby accounted for three of the goals, Irving Ross netted two, Bill White two, and Ken Shields one. Clark Smith bulged the nets for Thornhill's lone counter. Tonight an exhibition game with the High School first form is planned and next Thursday Aurora's highly rated youngsters will visit here. The teams Wednesday afternoon were: Thornhill—Goal, D. Woodly; defence, D. Archibald, F. Varley; forwards, B. Colhoun, C. Smith, D. Paisley; alternates, B. Goodchild, A. Daskaluk, F. Telfer. Richmond Hill—Goal, Murray Hunt, defence, T. Evelyn and V. Mitchell; forwards, B. White, M. Hillaby, I. Ross; alternates, K. Shields, E. Burnie, H. Ressor, Frank Young, D. Wellman, D. Wolfreys and G. Palmer.

Wooded Area at King To Be Game Sanctuary

An area of about 175 acres, part of the old Dunning estate, established more than a century ago by a Crown Deed given John Dunning, will shortly change hands, following its sale to an unnamed purchaser. Situated on the highest level of land between Lake Ontario and Lake Simcoe, the area is densely wooded, which has remained undisturbed for two generations, and in which deer are often seen. The new owner intends to conserve the scenic beauty of the estate and provide protection for game and bird life.
