MAPLE LEAF SUPPER

An interesting and novel evening's entertainment took place on Monday evening when the Young People's Union of the United Church were hosts to the sporting public of Richmond Hill. A hot supper was followed by a sing song conducted by Lola Jones and Evelyn Follett, the songs including some clever parodies on the members of the Toronto Maple Leaf team. The main items of the evening were addresses by Harold Cotton and Joe Primeau, the Goodwill Ambassadors of the Leafs. "Lucky" Cotton spoke of the value of sportsmanship and fair play, particularly stressing the fact that fathers and sons became better pals with a common interest in sport. "Gentleman Joe" told of the practical angles of team building, defensive tactics and what constitutes a perfect front line. Both speakers told many interesting and humorous incidents and readily obliged dozens of autograph seekers after the meeting. Mr. John Greene spoke briefly on behalf of the town and Rev. C. W. Follett on behalf of the church. Dick Schurman, the President, acted as chairman and introduced all the speakers. The success of the meal was due to the efforts of May Plewman, Lillian Anderson and Madge Sayers.

Ian McDonald gave a reading "Which Man are You?" The topic, "Business for the King" was given by E. J. Hitchcock. After some discussion the meeting closed in the usual way. Mrs. LePointevan accompanied the hymn singing on the guitar and added much to the musical part of the program. Sport Notes.

Richmond Hill 7. Stouffville 7

The local Rosebuds visited the Stouffville Jr. entry in the O.H.A. on Friday, last and played one of their best games of hockey of the season. Unfortunately for them, they failed to defeat Stouffville but did the next best thing, which is a tie.

The game itself was a real battle from start to finish, play ranging from one end to the other throughout the entire game, neither team having any great advantage in the play.

Grosskurth for Richmond Hill was the leading goal-getter, securing 4 of the local's goals. Cummings and Boake were the other scorers getting 2 and 1 respectively.

Stouffville team were very lucky to tie this game, securing the tying goal of regular time with only 45 seconds remaining. On this goal MacNamara, the local defence star, lost his hat and chose to pick up his hat rather than stop the opposing player. In the overtime period Richmond Hill scored in the first 5 minutes, Stouffville's goal coming, once more, in the dying minute, with 55 seconds remaining, being scored when the puck hit Frank Carr in the face glancing off into the net.

Mike Rodden of Toronto refereed a very good game, handing out only one penalty, to Baker of Stouffville, in the third period. Mike chose to warn the players rather than send them to the cooler which proved very effective.

Tim Saul the local master-mind proved he wasn't to be fooled with when handling the game, benching a local player for talking back to him.

The play-offs which will most likely commence next week largely depend on the outcome of the Stouffville-Scarboro game which is yet to be played. If Stouffville win they will be tied with East York for second place. Scarboro winning will make it a tie with Richmond Hill for 4th position. In all probabilities the play-offs may commence Monday night. Watch for posters.

TESTON

Sunday evening's meeting of the Young People's Union was very interesting. Eleanor Oliver presided. The lesson was read by Mary Carson, Audrey Oliver contributing an instrumental. The interesting item on the program was a debate on the question "To be on relief, does it lower the morals of the people or not?" The affirmative was supported by Chas. Robson, Jean Robson, Mrs. Harold Bowen and Roy Bowen. The negative by Frank Robson, Mrs. Roy Cooper and F. Oliver. There were more supporters on both sides who did not speak a point being taken off for non-speakers. After a spirited discussion the judges, Mrs. F. Oliver, Mary Carson and Mrs. George Taggart, decided in favor of the affirmative.

The Y.P.U. players are preparing a play with a very pleasing title, "Pleased to Meet You" under direction of Rev. Davis. We'll be pleased to meet the cast when they present this play.

Mrs. Frank Piercey visited with friends in Weston over the weekend.

A number of Teston friends attended the presentation of Uncle Tom's Cabin in the Community Hall, Maple, and enjoyed the play.
