

CARRVILLE

Miss Parker spent the week-end at her home in Prince Albert. Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Middleton were Mr. Art Hamilton of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. J. Oliver of Richvale and Mr. and Mrs. J. Barton and family. Mr. and Mrs. J. Baker attended the 15th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. McDowell at Aurora. Mr. and Mrs. Hewitt of Orillia visited Mr. and Mrs. J. Vanderburg last week. We are sorry to report that Mrs. Hancock is confined to her bed but hope she will soon be much improved. The Y.P. will be held Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Keffer. The Y.P. of Carrville attended the Rally at Richmond Hill on Tuesday evening and enjoyed it very much. Measles are still quite prevalent in the community. The Women's Association met at the home of Mrs. Vanderburg on March 2nd with eleven ladies present. Mrs. MacDonald took charge of the meeting owing to the absence of the President and Vice-President. She used the program of the World Day of Prayer, theme, "The Church, a World Fellowship, call to worship." Mrs. MacDonald gave a talk on Peace through fellowship, Miss Minnie Reamer, read the scripture and Mrs. Woolcott, Mrs. Vanderburg and Mrs. MacDonald gave short prayers. The minutes of the last meeting were read and declared adopted. The roll was called and

TESTON

Young People's Union had a very interesting program on Sunday evening. Louise Carson read the scripture lesson, Jean Hadwen gave a reading, "Keep Plugging Away", a very suggestive topic as that is what most people have to do to keep going. The feature of the evening was the showing of a set of slides on Home Life in Japan. Ruth Oliver was pianist for the meeting. There will be a box social on the evening of the 15th. The many friends of the pastor in this community are sorry to hear that ill health may cause him to take a month's rest and sincerely pray for the speedy recovery of Rev. Davis. Mr. Frank Piercey of Welland was home over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Piercey. Mr. E. J. Hitchcock was home over Sunday with Alex. and Mrs. McDonald. responded to by a verse on Missions. Lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Keffer and Mrs. Woolcott.

THORNHILL

Through the courtesy of the Canadian Pacific Railway Co. motion pictures, sound-talkies will be given under the auspices of the Young People's Union, in the United Church on Tuesday evening, March 15th at 8.15. With the approach of spring people will start thinking of summer vacations and where to go. The lines of the Canadian Pacific reach into hundreds of desirable spots. The Canadian Rockies, the Pacific coast and Alaska always have a cool and the Maritime Provinces and many lake resorts in Central Ontario are delightful holiday places. Come and see them. This will be educational as well as entertaining. Everybody welcome. Silver collection. The Women's Auxiliary of Trinity Anglican Church held an afternoon tea at the home of Mrs. T. R. H. Collins, Steele's Corners on Thursday afternoon (to-day) from 3 to 6. A pleasant time was spent and Miss Louise Curtis, Registered Nurse of V.O.N., was guest speaker. On Thursday evening (to-night) a special Lenten service will be held in Trinity Church at 8.15. Everybody welcome. The World Day of Prayer, when women came together to witness the reality of a World Fellowship in Jesus Christ, was held in the United Church. The leaders were, Mrs. Wesley, Mrs. Cunningham and Mrs. Noble. Mrs. Farrell sang "Sweet Hour of Prayer" accompanied by the organ by Mrs. Floyd Davies. The Young Ladies' Class of the United Church met last Thursday night in the Sunday School room. After the business and devotional meeting, a good time, when everyone took part, was enjoyed. Games and other amusing contests were held. Hot soup and biscuits, hot coffee and doughnuts were served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Elizabeth Smellie. The hostesses will be Elizabeth Smellie and Mrs. Bryan Sharples. Members of the Young People's Union attended the Rally at Richmond Hill on Tuesday night. The regular monthly meeting of the Thornhill Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. J. Pearson Thursday, March 17 at 2.30 sharp. (Please note change of place of meeting. The District President, Mrs. Resor of Scarborough, will speak to the meeting. A special feature of this meeting will be an address by Mr. C. W. Jeffries, the well known artist. There should be a full attendance. The W.A. of the United Church met at the home of Mrs. P. Bone on Wednesday afternoon. In the absence of the President, Mrs. R. Simpson, the first Vice-President, Mrs. J. A. Thompson, presided. Mrs. Morton took the devotional period. Papers on Temperance were given by Mrs. Bone and Mrs. Smellie. Mrs. Thompson reported on League of Nations and also read a letter from Mrs. J. Dean, an old member, now living in Buffalo, describing a meeting held at her home in Thornhill over 40 years ago. This was a very interesting meeting as it was the first appearance of the minister's bride, Mrs. J. Locke. The hostesses were Mrs. Bone, Miss A. Boyle and Miss F. Bows. Mrs. B. Heaslop poured tea when delicious refreshments were served.

NEWTONBROOK

The North York Horticultural Society met last Monday evening for their monthly meeting with the president, Mr. Curtis, in the chair. Mr. John F. Clark, the official lecturer on Horticulture for the Ontario Government gave an illustrated lecture which was immensely enjoyed by all present. The National Flower Show which will be held from March 24 to April 2nd was announced. For the first time the National Flower and Garden Show will be held in Canada and is sponsored by the Society of American Florists and Horticulturists, and educational and scientific society for the advancement of horticulture and floriculture knowledge. This $1,500,000 display will be open to the public in the Automatic Building, C.N.E. Tropical plants of rarest beauty are being brought to Canada and so timed that each bud will be unfolded to perfection at the time of the Show. 150,000 square feet of space will be filled with landscape scene and mass arrangements, garden plots, flower beds etc. and will thrill the thousands of visitors with its gorgeous array of exotic and rare blooms brought from all the corners of the world. A meeting of the North York Township Red Cross Society will be held on Friday, March 11th at 2.30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. St. Clair Hurlbut. The guest speaker will be Miss Robertson, supervisor of Nutrition Service for Ontario Division Canadian Red Cross Society. She will speak on "Nutrition." The Auxiliary of the W. M. S. of Newtonbrook United Church will hold a Silver Tea next Tuesday, March 15th from 3 to 5 p.m. at the home of Mrs. A. H. Douglas, 154 Pemberton Ave. Mrs. (Professor) John Dow of Toronto will give several vocal numbers. A cordial invitation is extended to all. "Novelty Night" presented by the students next Friday, March 11 at 8 p.m. at Earl Haig Collegiate Institute. A free supper was given the Sunday School children in the United Church S. S. hall last Saturday evening, followed by pictures, which all enjoyed very much. The Day of Prayer Service held at Newtonbrook last Friday afternoon was largely attended. Mrs. (Rev.) Frank Rae gave an inspirational address on "Prayer". Seven churches were represented and had a part in the service. Mrs. Dobson sang a solo very acceptably. A large number from here attended the Y.P.U. Rally for the Suburban Area in Richmond Hill United Church last Tuesday evening. The Young People's Union met last Monday evening with a good attendance. Mr. Irwin Brown presided. Carman Lockyer read the scripture lesson and prayer was offered by Rev. A. H. Halbert. "The Life of Ralph Connor" was very ably given by Reg. Hewitt. Miss Cora Good reviewed a chapter of the Study Book. Captains were appointed for a Membership Contest which will end with a banquet in May given by the losing side. The Women's Association will hold a St. Patrick's Supper on Thursday, March 17th commencing at 6.30 p.m. in the United Church S. S. hall followed by a good program. Plan to attend. All are cordially invited. The Ontario Temperance Federation will hold its annual convention on Thursday and Friday of this week March 10 and 11 in Trinity United Church, Toronto. It is hoped that a large representation from this district will attend. The Mission Band met last Saturday with an attendance of twenty-six. The leader, Miss Lever, reviewed a chapter of the Study Book. Gordon Hurd gave a recitation. Jean Stephenson presided. Bumped from a toboggan as he shot over a frozen stream at the foot of a hill Bill Stephenson, 15-year-old son of Mr. Leonard Stephenson had his right wrist and forearm injured last week. Several members of the Auxiliary of the local W.M.S. are attending some of the sessions of Toronto Conference Branch which is being held this week in College United Church, Toronto. A number from here attended the United Church choir concert in Thornhill last Friday evening. The Woman's Association held its monthly meeting last Thursday with a Potluck Luncheon at 12.30 followed by the business meeting. Arrangements were made for the Irish Supper to be held on Thursday, Mar. 17th at 6.30 p.m. Mrs. Shaw and Miss Edna Street conducted the devotional service and Mrs. Halbert closed the meeting with prayer. The Girls' Mission Circle will hold their March meeting next Tuesday evening, March 15th at 8 o'clock at the Parsonage.

WOODBIDGE

Late Mary Jane Burton Miss Mary Jane Burton, aged 70, who has been ill for the past three years passed away on Sunday night, March 6th and was buried in Nashville cemetery on Wednesday, the funeral taking place from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. Kaiser, 8th Avenue and No. 7 Highway, with Rev. J. H. Kidd and Rev. J. S. Roe officiating. Miss Burton was a daughter of the late William and Jane McDonald Burton, Ontario pioneers whose ancestors were natives of Scotland. She was born at Paisley, Bruce County, and as an infant was brought to Vaughan and lived in Woodbridge and vicinity all her life. Deceased was an ardent worker in church affairs and while she was raised a Presbyterian she joined the United Church at the time of union, was a member of the Women's Institute for 30 years and was secretary of the local branch for 25 years. In addition to other accomplishments she enjoyed a local reputation as an entertainer, and at the age of 5 was regarded as a child prodigy for at that age she could read difficult passages of literature with amazing correctness. Mr. Neil Burton, the Liberal correspondent, is the only surviving member of the family. Two nieces and a nephew are the only other immediate relatives, they are, Mrs. Milton Martin, Edith Durie, Toronto, Miss Florence Bunt, Toronto, and Frank Bunt, London. Pallbearers were cousins and included Alvin Burton, Robert Burton, Harry Burton, John Ezard, Geo. McKechnie and Townley Lawrence. Woodbridge Hockey Club Are Champions of the League The final league game of hockey between Humber Summit and Woodbridge teams played on the Robinson Dye Works rink was won by Woodbridge making the Woodbridge team champions of the league consisting of Robinson Dye Works, Robinson Office Staff, Toronto, Woodbridge, Humber Summit, Fisherville and Claireville. Rutherford-Farr The marriage took place quietly at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Watson Farr, Woodbridge, when their only daughter, Elma, was united in marriage to Mr. Stewart Rutherford, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rutherford, of Vellore. Rev. Albert Agar, great-uncle of the bride, conducted the ceremony. The bride wore ivory satin with long tulle veil caught in place with a wreath of pearls and carried Talisman roses. The bride was attended by her cousin, Mrs. Keith French, nee Margaret McBride, wearing orchid taffeta, cap and shoulder veil, and carried Johanna Hill roses. Mr. Albert Rutherford, brother of the groom, was best man. Mrs. Clarence Graham, sister of the groom, played the wedding music and Mr. Norman Black sang. The bride's mother was gowned in black lace and wore a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Rutherford wore a gown of black faille. The couple left for points south. On their return they will live on the groom's farm near Bolton. Among the relatives were John Black, nonagenarian, grandfather of the groom, and Amos Agar, octogenarian, grandfather of the bride, both of Nashville, Ont. Presbyterian Y. P. S. Just how interesting and helpful a devotional meeting of a Young People's Society can be, was demonstrated on Monday evening when the Presbyterian group met for their regular weekly meeting. Miss Jean Lawrie was the convener in charge. Miss Janey Nattress and Mr. Stanley Harper, who were delegates to the "Little Conference" held at Newtonbrook recently, gave their reports of the proceedings and discussions. There were other brief addresses on the program. Miss Lawrie spoke on "Service", Mr. Murray Coles on "Fellowship" and Rev. J. S. Roe on "Worship". Miss Queenie Dumbleton and Stanley Harper sang a duet, and Jack Nattress a solo. Woodbridge Men's Service A special church service under the auspices of the Men's Association of the Woodbridge Presbyterian Church was conducted last Sunday night. The visiting speaker, Mr. Alex. Culley, a young Presbyterian layman, active in church life in Toronto, and associated with Presbyterian Publications, brought an inspiring message on the theme, "The Experience of the Damascus Road". Rev. Mr. Roe, the minister of the church, conducted the service and Knox male choir, in spite of the absence of their leader, Mr. Gordon L. McGillvray, led the congregation in the service of praise, and rendered two sacred numbers, "Even Me" and "The Wayside Cross", Messrs. Stanley Harper and Jack Nattress taking the solo parts.

Sale Register

FRIDAY, MARCH 11—Auction Sale of farm stock, implements, hay, grain, roots and other effects belonging to Sam Harper on Lot 9, the 4th Con. of Markham (Brown's Corners). Sale at 1 p.m. Terms cash. No reserve. Prentice & Prentice, Auctioneers. WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16th—Auction sale of Herd of Dairy Cattle, Farm Stock, Implements, Furniture, etc. Implements all nearly new, on Dawes Road, just south of Wexford, in North York Township. Property of Ken. Kingden. Sale at 1 p.m. Terms Cash. No reserve. Prentice & Prentice, Auctioneers. THURSDAY, MARCH 17—Extensive Auction Sale of Farm Stock, Implements, Hay, Grain, Roots, Furniture and other effects, on Dawes Road a little south of O'Sullivan's Corners. Property of James White. Sale will commence at 12.00. No reserve as farm is sold. Prentice & Prentice, Auctioneers. FRIDAY, MARCH 18—Auction Sale of Farm Stock, Implements, Hay, Grain, Roots, Furniture, etc., on Lot 18, 4th Line, Markham Township, north of Buttonville. Property of James Couperthwaite. Sale at 1 p.m. No reserve. Prentice & Prentice, Auctioneers. MONDAY, MARCH 21st—Extensive Auction Sale of a Choice Herd of Dairy Cattle, Farm Stock, Implements and other effects, belonging to George May, on Lot 33, Con. 4, Scarborough. Farm known as "Christie Farm". Sale at 1 p.m. sharp. No reserve as farm is sold. Prentice & Prentice, Auctioneers. TUES., MAR. 22—Important auction sale of farm stock, implements, furniture, lumber, hay, roots, grain, etc. will be sold by public auction on lot 5, con. 3, King, 1 mile east of King City, the property of Walter Lloyd. Sale at 12.30 sharp. No reserve. Giving up farming on account of ill health. J. H. and K. G. Prentice, auctioneers. WEDNESDAY, MAR. 23 — Auction sale of farm stock, implements, household furniture at Lot 64, 1st Concession of Whitchurch, 1 mile from Yonge Street on Wilcox Lake Road, the property of Wm. Smith. Sale at 1 p.m. Terms cash. A. S. Farmer, Auctioneer. WEDNES., MARCH 23 — Auction sale of farm stock, implements, furniture, property of Harry McCutcheon, Lot 35, Con. 9, Vaughan Twp. one mile south of Nobleton. Very large sale. Starts at 12 o'clock. Terms cash. Farm sold. C. E. Walkington and M. McEwen, Auctioneers. WEDNESDAY, MAR. 23—Auction sale of farm stock, implements, household furniture and other effects on Lot 5, con. 9, Markham Township, half mile east of Box Grove, the property of W. H. Walker. Terms cash. No reserve as proprietor is quitting. Sale at 1 p.m. Prentice and Prentice, Auctioneers. TUESDAY, MARCH 22—Important Auction Sale of Farm Stock, Implements, Furniture, Hay, Roots, Lumber, Grain, etc., on Lot 5, Con. 3, King, 1 mile east of King City. Sale at 12 noon. No reserve. Prentice & Prentice, Auctioneers. FRIDAY, MARCH 25—Auction sale of farm stock, implements, hay, grain, roots, furniture and other effects on Lot 6, Con. 4, Vaughan Township (at Edgeley), property of Carson Smith. Sale at 12.30 sharp. No reserve as farm sold. J. H. and Ken. Prentice, Auctioneers. SATURDAY, MARCH 26th—Auction sale of furniture, garden tools, etc. the property of F. W. Den, Maple. Sale at 1 p.m. Terms cash. J. C. Saigeon, Auctioneer. TUESDAY, MARCH 29 — Auction sale of (35 acre farm), farm stock and implements on Lot 6, Con. 9, Markham Township. The farm is a good clay loam in good condition all under cultivation, good bank barn, drive shed, pig pen, drive house, and first class dwelling, never failing well, property of George Bennett. Terms for Chattels cash. Terms for farm made known on day of sale. Sale at 1 p.m. Prentice and Prentice, Auctioneers. SATURDAY, APRIL 2ND—Auction sale of farm stock, implements, hay, grain, furniture and other effects on Lot 8, Con. 5, Markham, property of Stephen Hands. No reserve. Sale at 1 p.m. Prentice & Prentice, Auctioneers.

Lehigh Valley ANTHRACITE "The Coal That Satisfies" Jones Coal Co. Phone 188

BROWN'S CORNERS

The W. M. S. held their March meeting at the home of Mrs. Craig the president, Mrs. Stiver, presiding. The devotional part was taken by Mrs. Reid with Mrs. Hord assisting. The roll call was answered by 14 members. A work meeting is arranged for at Mrs. Stiver's on Wednesday afternoon. Plans are being made for a play to be put on by the ladies of Willowdale in Brown's Corners United Church in the near future. Mrs. Craig gave the Mission Paper taken from the Study Book, also a very helpful temperance paper was given. The Woman's World Day of Prayer was held on Friday afternoon at three o'clock Mrs. Brooke as key woman of the district, presiding, Mrs. Hood, Mrs. Constable, Mrs. Stiver, Mrs. Rodick, Mrs. Walton and Mrs. Craig taking part. Mrs. Rodick sang a solo, 'tis the blessed hour of prayer, Miss Thompson at the piano. Those who were able to attend felt the hour spent in song and prayer very worth while.

EDGELEY

Edgeley Y.P.U. met on Sunday night when the programme was in charge of Miss Kathleen Whitmore. Readings were given by Mildred Watson, Sadie Bishop, Helen Newton and scripture by Dorothy Bagg. Topic was given by Mrs. Watson, "A Hobby and its Dividends." Meeting closed with a Hymn Sing-Song to get better acquainted with tunes and words, then Mizpah. Mr. Norman Bagg and a chum, spent the week-end at home. Mr. and Mrs. Watson and family visited on Saturday night with H. Sawdon's at North Toronto and on Sunday with Mrs. Watson's parents at Aurora. We are pleased to report that those on the sick list are much better. Rose Smith is back at the desk in school, Messrs. D. Stone and Jas. Hoover, also Mrs. F. Long are able to go around again. Edgeley W.A. are holding a Meat Pie Supper on March 17th when Mr. Hunnissett will be here to give program. Several of the Young People report a good time roller skating last Wednesday night.

Serve dried or pickled FISH for NOURISHMENT AND ECONOMY

DRIED or Pickled Canadian Fish is one of the most nourishing and economical foods that money can buy. It is rich in proteins, and in the mineral elements that build good health.

No matter where you live, your dealer can secure Dried or Pickled Canadian Fish for you. You can choose from such dried fish as cod, pollock, haddock, hake, and cusk, and from such pickled fish as herring, mackerel, and alewives... every one of which can be served in a variety of tasty recipes.

Serve dried or pickled Canadian Fish to your family often. It makes a welcome change at meal-times... and you will find it very economical.

DEPARTMENT OF FISHERIES, OTTAWA.

Ladies!

WRITE FOR FREE BOOKLET

Department of Fisheries, Ottawa. Please send me your free 32-page Booklet "Any Day a Fish Day", containing 100 delightful and economical Fish Recipes.

Name Address

ANY DAY A FISH DAY

Phone Willowdale 272W 6189 Yonge St. Newtonbrook Branch, Oak Ridges York Auto Wreckers "IF IT'S FOR A CAR OR TRUCK WE HAVE IT" Tires from $1.00 up Glass installed while you wait—reasonable CARS AND TRUCKS WANTED "Tony Saves You Money"

It is a weak and sorry cause if it answers criticism by calling the critics crooks and idiots.

People are naturally generous. They always think better of you than you deserve if you just behave and keep still.

Wilfrid R. Scott Successor to J. J. Deane Director of FUNERAL and AMBULANCE SERVICE WOODBRIDGE, ONTARIO