Note and Comment

Another vacancy now exists in the House of Commons at Ottawa. The existing vacancy was East Edmont-on, Alta., and the latest in Queens in Prince Edward Island. Peter Sinclair, the sitting member, died suddenly in Ottawa last week at the age of 50. Mr. Sinclair was a former member of the Island Legislature and was first elected to Ottawa in 1935. Both his father and a brother had also represented this constituency in Ottawa. The brother, John Sinclair is now a member of the Senate.

One of the remaining private banks in Ontario closed its doors recently. This was the bank of Graham and Knight which had operated in Alliston for more than 60 years.

Beeton which at one time could boast four hotels now has no hotel at all. The Commercial Hotel, the last one to operate, was closed up a short time ago.

By a vote of 34 to 9, the rate-payers of S.S. No. 8, Caledon village authorized their trustees to proceed with the erection of a continuation school to cost $14,000. It is estimated that the government will pay about $3,000 of this amount.

Clarence Darrow, well known American criminal lawyer, died in Chicago on March 13th in his 81st year. No person who he had ever defended was executed. Probably his most notable defence was that of Loeb and Leopold who were accused of slaying Bobby Frank.

Some Toronto women who like to have their husbands receive the very highest wages are now clamoring about the high price of butter. Wanting high wages and foodstuffs at low prices is surely wanting bread buttered on both sides. It would be better for everyone if prices of all farm products were proportionately as high as the price of cream is at present.

YE OLDE SMITHY
Beneath the spreading chestnut tree
The village smithy stood,
The village smithy stood,
The smith, a mighty man was he,
While business still was good,
And everybody will agree,
He did the best he could.

But now that horses have gone out,
Though still there are a few,
The smith has had to look about
For something else to do;
For any man who's large and stout
Must toil like me and you.

So, lacking horses any more
With footgear to supply
He sets this sign outside his door:
"Tea, sandwiches and pie;
Step in and hear the bellows roar;
Don't pass the old place by."

Perhaps you will see an ancient plow
While in the place you stop;
Perhaps the blacksmith's sooty brow
He now and then will mop,
But does he run a smithy now?
No, it's a curio shop.

SCOTCH CONCERT
A Scotch concert and dance will be held in Maple Community Hall, Friday, March 18th under the auspices of Balmoral Pipe Band of Richmond Hill. Pipe band, Highland dancers, Scotch singers, etc. Old time and modern dancing. Concert 25c. Dance 15 cents extra.

THEODORE G. MONTAGUE
President of The Borden Company, whose annual report this year shows profits of $1.43 per share, compared with $1.80 last year. It is stated that the company was unable to obtain any profit on its total sales in all markets of 780,000,000 quarts of fluid milk. This contrasts with a profit of one-ninth of a cent a quart in 1936.

CAPITOL THEATRE

WELLS FARGO TRAIL THEME OF NEW FILM

The historic Wells Fargo Trail—the lane which connected St. Louis with San Francisco in early gold days — and the men who made and maintained it in the face of Indians, bandits and Nature, forms the dramatic background for "Wells Fargo," the motion picture which opens Saturday at the Capitol Theatre.

Called by some "The Lifeline of Empire" because of the important part it played in welding together the sprawling nation as it existed in 1850-70, the story of the Wells-Fargo Trail is one of the most dramatic and romantic in American history.

It came into being shortly after gold was discovered, when a swift and safe means had to be found to transport the gold from the mines and, equally important, to bring mail and news into the roaring mining camps. The firm of Wells, Fargo & Company, fore-runners of today's Railway Express Agency, was organized to fill this need.

Trails were cut, way stations for the changing and watering of horses, were established and a veritable army of heavily armed messengers was organized to protect the treasure. The roads had to be kept open in spite of the whims of weather.

The task of planning and opening the trails is handled in the picture by Joel McCrea. A man of vision and courage, he is forced to leave his wife, played by Frances Dee, as the trail takes him farther and farther West. Unable to understand her husband, a rift occurs. There are patch-ups and reconciliation but as time goes on — the story traces the fortunes of the family for two generations—a break finally occurs.

The climax is reached after the War between the States when McCrea and Miss Dee are brought together again by their children, now grown to young manhood and womanhood.

Capacity Audience Sees Amateur Show

The Orange Hall was packed to capacity and several hundred were reportedly unable to gain admission when the Woodbridge Presbyterian Church staged an Amateur Show on Monday evening, March 14th. Between 40 and 50 amateur acts of high quality were competing for the $27.50 offered in cash prizes. The most outstanding competitor award went to Jean Calder, Toronto, who also placed first in the junior section. Following is the complete list of prize-winners: Special class for those never previously having won a prize, 12 years and under, 1st Lucia Carrina, 3 years old, Weston; 2nd, Patsy O'Leary, West Toronto. Junior class, 10 years and under, 1st, Jean Calder, Toronto; 2nd, Gwen Robb, Woodbridge; 3rd, Jackie Burns and Jack Rennie. Intermediate class, 18 yrs. and under, 1st, Bernice Ogden, Toronto; 2nd, Andrew Stewart, Bolton; 3rd, Norma Mollison, Toronto. Senior class, 1st, Mr. and Mrs. Mulholland, Stroud; 2nd, the Woodbridge Male Quartette, Messrs. Arthur Harper, Stanley Harper, William Lawrie and Jack Nattress; 3rd, The Aurora Mountaineers. Judges for the event were: Mrs. I. J. Lawrence, Claireville; Mr. James Algie, Brampton, and Mr. W. McCutcheon, Nobleton. Master of ceremonies was Mr. Carl Saigeon of Maple.

HEADFORD

Mr. and Mrs. George Barker entertained the Y.P.U. on Monday evening. There was a good attendance. Edgar James conducted the opening exercise and business meeting. Gwen Smith, convener, then took charge. Edgar James read the lesson, Miss Helen Boynton gave a reading "English as Spoken," the topic was taken by Ruth Bice on the subject "It Really Happened," Rev. McDonald led the prayer service. After the meeting closed a social hour was spent in games and a dainty lunch served. A hearty vote of thanks to the host and hostess was voiced by all.

This Friday evening the Y.P.U. executive will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herb. Smith.

An invitation to visit Carville Y. P.U. in the near future was accepted.

Mr. and Mrs. Watford left this week on a trip to California.

Miss Gwen Smith spent the weekend in Toronto with Mr. and Mrs. Galbraith.
