Golfers Ready for Victoria Meet

While the rest of Canada is skiing, Victoria, B.C., will be the scene of one of the Dominion's most important — and certainly its most unusual — golf tournament of the year. Ten years ago Victoria produced its first winter golf meet to prove that Canada too could have winter golf. The idea caught on amazingly, with the result that the tournament has grown steadily. Entries have increased, more trophies are being given, and a record turn-out is expected for this year.

Already more than 30 entries have been received for the tournament, which commences March 7, from nearby Seattle, including Lee Stell, who won both handicap and scratch events last year, and from Winnipeg, Regina, Saskatoon, Edmonton, Calgary and Vancouver. A few Eastern Canadian golfers are also expected for this annual Empress Hotel fixture on the famous Royal Colwood course.

The main event is a handicap competition for both men and women for the Six Edward Beatty trophy. Other prizes include the Victoria Chamber of Commerce open trophy, match play on a scratch basis; men's and women's inter-club team games; Jack Matson trophy for inter-district match; Rotary Club rosebowl for women's best gross score; and special medal awards. All in all, it adds up to five days of golf and fun, with the Empress Hotel and Royal Colwood clubhouse en fete to receive golfing visitors.
