A feature of the evening was the presentation of a bedroom clock to Miss Bertha Thompson, a member of the softball team for the past four years. The presentation was made by Verna Peirey and the address as follows read by Jean Ingram:

Dear Bertha:—

With deep regret, we, your pals of Maple Girls' Softball team, lately learned that it was your intention to remove from our midst, and we begin to realize the loss we have sustained. We desire to take this opportunity to express our appreciation of you as a pal during the years, that we have been permitted to enjoy your friendship.

It might appear like fulsome flattery to enumerate your many excellent qualities both of head and heart, your genial disposition, your many noble qualities which in private life shone forth in full lustre and endeared you to us. And now, realizing as we do, how much you will be missed in our village, we desire to make a more practical demonstration of our esteem and affection for you, than by mere words. We therefore ask that you accept this clock, not as a measure, but as a token of the esteem in which you are held by us.

We wish you prosperity, health and happiness in the future, and may each rising sun remind you of the pleasant days passed in Maple. Our earnest hope is that we shall often again be cheered by your genial smile and presence and while we are sorry to part with you, we pray that the presence of the blessed Jesus may go with you to your new home, to brighten your life and lighten your labors.

Signed on behalf of Maple Girls' Softball Club.

Jim Hunter Talks To Milk Producers

The success of the first annual banquet of divisions No. 5 and 6 of the Toronto Milk Producers Association held on Tuesday, March 15 at Agincourt was such as will make it the forerunner of many such delightful occasions to be sponsored by the producers of the only perfect food. Two hundred and fifty members sat down together and enjoyed an abundance of delicacies such as only the ladies of Knox W.A., Agincourt could prepare.

Duncan Cowan, well known entertainer, provided the lighter tones of the evening with song and jest.

Mr. J. Darlington of Todmorden acted as toast master, and with the assistance of Mr. Wm. Clark and Mr. Wm. Spears proposed the toasts to the King, the Association, and the ladies, respectively. Short addresses by the association's acting secretary, Mr. Bill Wilmot, and Ruby Reesor of Markham replied to the toasts to the Association and the ladies.

Jim Hunter of the Toronto Evening Telegram was introduced by Bill Champion and addressed the gathering on the possible effect extensive advertising might have on the further consumption of milk. Mr. Hunter was the lone representative of consumer interests on the program and as such he extended to the members his best wishes for their success, and his belief that if more perfect understanding could be made to exist between consumer and producer, the interests of both could be better served from the point of view of more definite knowledge concerning the disposal of the apparently over-sufficient spread between the prices received by the producer and the distributor for the same product.

Professor Drummond of the O. A. C. was introduced by Dr. Reynolds, president of the Toronto Producers Association, and its guest speaker, dealt with the plans in our present system of competitive marketing. Dr. Drummond pointed out that whereas the farmer is forced to sell to and buy from a few powerful concerns who have limitless opportunity for co-operative price setting, he still buys and sells to only one tiny member of a disunited industry composed of many separate units. The only solution he asserted is through co-operation of the farmers on a much vaster scale than is at present promoted by the industry of agriculture.

Auld Lang Syne and the National Anthem completed the success of this first annual banquet.

Dick the Amateur Gardener Delights Large Audience

Address Popular Feature of Horticultural Meeting Wednesday Night

A crowd which taxed the seating capacity of the Municipal Hall on Wednesday night listened with interest to a very instructive and entertaining address by "Dick, the amateur Gardener" of Hamilton. The genial Dick proved to be just as informal and informative as his many radio listeners had been led to expect, and altogether it was an enjoyable evening. His advice on fertilizing and cultivating was invaluable. "Before thinking of planting think of fertilizing. The ground is like a bank, you must put something in to get something out. Healthy growing plants are free from disease and insects, therefore seed heavily to get the joy out of your garden." The value of the demonstration of Bottle Gardening will be seen at the Fall Flower Show. Dick presented the following lucky prize winners with prizes of plant food, etc.: Mrs. A. A. Eden, Mrs. Vandyke, Mrs. Strigley and Arthur Barraclough.

Dick stressed the beauty of the new Russell Lupins, seeds of which are included in the premiums of the Horticultural Society this year, and the president, R. D. Little, urged all those who intend joining this year to give their membership fee to the secretary as soon as possible in order that they may obtain some of these seeds. A vote of thanks to the speaker was moved by Mr. A. Teal.

VICTORIA SQUARE NEWSY NOTES

Well, has summer come? Premature summer, surely, but it is responsible for a different topic of conversation for the men and ladies, namely, seeding and housecleaning. And who does not welcome a change of occupation. Report has it that Spring never came in so warm for ninety years. Here's hoping it is a forerunner of a pleasant season.

On Sunday evening, March 27th at the usual hour of 7.30 Rev. J. C. Cochrane of the Home Mission Board will give an illustrated lecture on his work in Northern Ontario at the regular Y.P.U. service, which will be held in the main body of the church. Several neighboring societies are giving the accompanying programme. Everyone in the community and surrounding communities are cordially invited to attend.

Messrs. Ernie Jackson and Charles Kerswell are in the General Hospital undergoing an operation. We wish them a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Read and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Sanderson on Saturday evening last.

Mr. Bill Thompson has been engaged again to work for Mr. R. E. Sanderson this summer.

Mrs. Bert Hayden of Hamilton, accompanied by her friend, Mrs. Hogan, visited her son Bobby at the home of Mrs. A. Mortson last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dennis with their friends Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clarke spent Sunday afternoon at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Dennis.

Great sympathy is felt for Mrs. Louis Stoutenburg in the recent loss of her sister, Miss Watson of Newmarket.

We are glad to see Mr. Donald Pickering able to be out on crutches. We hope he will soon be as good as new.

Mr. Albert Mortson and his mother called on friends in Victoria Square on Tuesday.

Miss Dorothy Oliver is spending a month's vacation at the homes of her many friends.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Lizzie Boynton is on the sick list.

Miss Vera Nichols and her group are to be congratulated on presenting such a splendid programme last Sunday evening. Miss Bessie Valliere gave a splendid paper and led in a discussion. The Misses Henderson of Gormley sang twice very beautifully. We certainly appreciate the assistance given so willingly by the members of other churches.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Frisby entertained some friends to tea last Sunday evening.

This community was saddened on learning of the death of Mr. James Reynolds on Saturday in the General Hospital, Toronto. Mr. Reynolds was very ill in the hospital for several months prior to his last illness. He had apparently recovered from it but suffered a very heavy cold later which developed into pneumonia and after suffering for two weeks he passed away. Mrs. Whittendon, a sister, who lives in New York, was with him during the last week and when he passed away. Our sympathy is extended to her in the loss of her brother.

Mr. Reynolds had resided in this community for about six years, spending the past three at the home of Mr. R. E. Perkins. Quite a number from here attended his funeral on Monday afternoon. The Sunday School, Y.P.U., Jr. Farmers and Jr. Institute sent flowers.
