HEADFORD
"Winter lingers in the lap of spring" was fully demonstrated during the week-end. However spring seems to be coming back and as Easter approaches surely it will be fine for the spring display on the board walk and elsewhere. The Young People's Union meeting was in charge of Mrs. Acreman this week. After the opening exercises and the reading of a poem by the President the Missionary program was taken by Mrs. Acreman and Peace was the main topic, all readings and remarks being on this subject. Murray Acreman gave the first reading and was followed by Ruth Bice, Melvin Wellman, Mrs. Millen, M. Lilley and Mrs. Freeman Barker gave reasons for the growth of Peace and after reading each printed their reasons on the blackboard on the foundation stones drawn there. Mrs. F. Barker also read a poem "The Litany of Peace." Mr. Fred Clark while in Richmond Hill on Friday morning got his watch from Mr. Jerry Smith's and after making several calls returned home where he discovered he had lost his watch. He returned to Richmond Hill to inquire but heard nothing of the loss until Monday afternoon he was pleasantly surprised to receive a little visitor with the lost watch. It had fallen from Mr. Clark's pocket in Sheardown's driveway and was lost in the snow. Later it was found by "Junior" the younger son of Mr. Lorne Sheardown and he was suitably rewarded by Mr. Clark who was glad of its return as it was a keepsake. The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. G. Stewart and family in the loss this week of a son and brother the late Oswald Stewart.
