To Mark Birthplace Of Samuel Lount

At the meeting of the Aurora Women's Liberal Association held recently the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Pres., Mrs. James Whimster; Treas., Mrs. John Ough; Sec., Mrs. L. F. Lee. The Association decided to investigate the birthplace of the late Samuel Lount, which is stated to have been on the farm at present occupied by Mr. Noah Badger just north of the town. They hope to place a suitable marker to designate the birthplace of the patriot who died 100 years ago. Morgan Baker, M.L.A., addressed the ladies and told of the legislation passed at the recent session. He also referred to the Royal Commission and the revision of the British North America Act.

Special Services Mark Easter in Woodbridge

Easter Sunday was marked by special services in Woodbridge churches. At the United Church the day marked the return of Rev. C. W. Barrett to his charge. In the morning the choir offered an anthem, "Christ is Risen", and a solo by Miss M. Shore. In the evening the choir, under Dr. G. D. McLean, offered the beautiful Easter cantata, "The Easter Angels" by Fearnis. Soloists for the cantata included Mr. J. Matthews, Miss M. Miller, Miss Jessie Watson, Miss M. Bagg, Mrs. Susie Jones, Mr. Andrew McClure, Miss Anne McLean, Miss Thelma Shore, Mr. C. McLean, Mr. Roy Miller, Mrs. Geo. Shore and Dr. G. D. McLean. Duets were sung by Cameron McClure and Miss Mildred Shore, and Bert Shore and Miss M. Shore, also a trio by Mrs. C. W. Barrett, Miss M. Miller and Mrs. Geo. Shore. Previous to the cantata a 15 minute organ recital was played by Mrs. A. E. Kearney. At the Presbyterian Church Rev. J. S. Roe spoke on "The beginning of the Eternal Harvest" at the 11 a.m. service. An anthem by the choir, under Miss Jean Lawrie, solos by Stanley Harper and Mrs. Don McKenzie, and selections by a male quartette composed of Bill Nattress, Jack Nattress, Stan Harper and Bill Lawrie were musical features. Similar musical items were rendered at the 7 p.m. service, Mr. Roe choosing as his subject, "Risen with Christ." At Christ Church Rev. J. H. Kidd celebrated Holy Communion at a special 8 a.m. service and again at the 11 a.m. morning prayer.

Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, present Under-Secretary for War in the British Government is a grandson of the first peer of that name who was well known as a resident of Canada by the name of Donald Smith. Donald Smith came to Canada from Forres, Scotland in 1837 at the age of 18. In the employ of the Hudson's Bay Company he spent 13 years on the bleak coast of Labrador and 17 years in the regions adjacent to the Hudson Bay. In 1868 he was appointed Canadian manager of that company with headquarters in Montreal. He was one of the original directors of the Canadian Pacific Railway and was a first cousin of the first president of the company, George Stephen (afterwards Lord Mount Stephen). These two were the founders of the Royal Victoria Hospital in Montreal to the building of which they contributed one million dollars. He was the first representative of the riding of Selkirk, Manitoba in the House of Commons, where he was elected in 1871 and 1872 as a Conservative, in 1874 as a Liberal and in 1878 as a Conservative again. From 1887 to 1896 he was Conservative member for Montreal West. In 1886 he was knighted and in 1897 was elevated to the peerage. During the Boer War he equipped and maintained the famous regiment known as the "Strathcona Horse" for service in South Africa. In 1896 he was appointed High Commissioner for Canada in London and he held this post until his death in 1914 at the age of 94. He had one daughter from whom the present Lord inherited the title. The fellow who pulls on the oars doesn't have time to rock the boat.

BROWN'S CORNERS

The April meeting of the W.M.S. was held on Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Stover presiding. Mrs. Craig led the devotional service assisted by Mrs. Padgett. Mrs. Walton read a part of our interesting study book. Roll Call was answered by 12 members. A sewing meeting held at Mrs. Read's completed the quilts for the bale in June. Plans are made for the play, "Eyes of Love" in the church on April 21, Thursday, at 8 o'clock, given by the Dramatic Club of Willowdale. The Mission Band will hold their Easter service next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock with lantern slides. Everybody welcome.

HEADFORD

Seeding has commenced. Mr. W. H. Wellman had ten acres in on Monday and at Mr. C. James the report is that the land works good with seven acres seeded. The Y.P.U. held a very interesting meeting on Monday evening. The meeting opened by singing "Spirit of the Loving God" followed by "A General Thanksgiving" in unison and the Lord's Prayer. The lesson was read by Ruth Bice who also gave the explanation. Mr. C. James gave a reading "Hymn of the New Age" followed by a poem on Easter by Gwen Smith. The President, Mr. E. James, then led a very interesting discussion period after which Gwen Smith, who represented Headford Y.P.U. at the Girls' Spiritual Retreat, Whitby, gave a very fine report of the program there. Miss Ellen Boynton entertained a party of girl friends on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Wharton, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ness, Thornhill, Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Clark and Ruth, had tea with Mr. Fred Clark on Good Friday evening. Mrs. Hayden and daughter Mrs. Gordon Force of Burford visited with Mrs. Hayden's brother R. Steele at Mr. Fred Clark's over Sunday and also were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Clark on Sunday afternoon.

TESTON

Miss Doris Cook was guest speaker at Y.P.U. on Sunday evening and gave a splendid address. The best of wishes and good luck to Mr. and Mrs. Melville Anness (nee Katherine Ireland) who were recently married. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Duffey, Oshawa, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ireland over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walker, Toronto, were at their summer home for the holiday. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smylie spent the Easter holiday with Mrs. Smylie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Taggart. Chicken thieves visited the hen house of Mr. E. Carson last Saturday evening and took some of the fowl. Not a very welcome Easter visit.
