Aged Sisters' Deaths Few Hours Apart

Two aged sisters, Mrs. Deborah Rowntree, 79, of Woodbridge, and Mrs. Jeanetta Cowan, 84, of Hamilton, died within a few hours of each other last Monday. Both were widows. Mrs. Rowntree passed away first. She was the widow of James Rowntree, and was a life long resident of Woodbridge. Surviving are two sons, Roy of Woodbridge, and Frank of Weston. Mrs. Cowan died in Hamilton. She was the widow of Wm. Cowan and had formerly lived in Toronto. Surviving are two sons, Edward and Sylvester. Also surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Thos. Cameron De Guerre Baldoock, of Toronto, and Mrs. William Baxter of Hamilton. A double funeral was held from the Woodbridge home on Wednesday afternoon.

CAIN-McCUTCHEON
On Saturday, April 9, the wedding took place of Pauline McCutcheon, niece of Mr. Harry McCutcheon, of Kleinburg, Ont., and Stanley Cain, eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cain of King, Ont. The ceremony took place at the home of Rev. D. I. Ellison, cousin of the bride. Following a reception to their immediate friends at the Arcadian Court, the bride and groom left for a trip to Washington and Atlantic City. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm near Nobleton, Ont.

When a man talks about himself and won't give you a chance to talk about yourself, he is a conceited ass.

Presbyterian Y.P.S.
The regular weekly meeting of the Presbyterian Young People on Monday evening was Literary with Mrs. Donald McKenzie as convener. The program following the business period included a solo by Wm. Lawrie, current events and the reading of the weekly review by Mrs. McKenzie. Response to the Roll Call was made by naming a flower. The Literary feature was presented by Neil Burton who rendered a program mostly composed of his own authorship which took up about an hour and consisted of humour and pathos including "New Year's Resolutions" a dog story, "Trouble at the Corner", a patriotic poem entitled "What I Think of My Country", characters in a country store, a Highland Soldier's Farewell to the Highlands, a poem on Broadway, New York, and as a closing number "Bairnie's Criddle Doon".

Christ Church Young People Hold Music Night

It was music night at Christ Church Young People's Meeting on Monday night with Wilfred Maxey as convener and Miss Vera Smith, president, presiding. The program composed of vocal, instrumental and tap dance music including the following artists: Eleanor McKay, Doris Ring, Audrey Ring, Mrs. Alvin Robb, Gwendolyn Robb, Danny Kitchener, Mrs. Jack Powlesland.

Easter Sunday at the Churches

Easter Sunday at Woodbridge churches was strictly observed with special Easter music and appropriate sermons by the choirs and ministers. The attendance at all morning services was unusually large. The Presbyterian Church pulpit was occupied by Rev. James S. Roe with solo numbers by Miss Queenie Dumbleton and Stanley Harper. Rev. C. W. Barrett returned to the pulpit of the United Church having spent several weeks in Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton with a fractured arm. The evening service was devoted to the presentation of the cantata entitled "Easter Angels" with Dr. G. D. McLean as conductor and Mrs. A. E. Kearney as organist. Solo parts were taken by Misses Mary Bagg, Tilda Miller, Mildred Shore, Jessie Watson, Ann McLean, Mrs. G. W. Shore, Charles McLean, Andy McClure, Bert Shore.

Late Albert Wiley

Word was received by relatives in Woodbridge last week of the death of Albert Wiley at Hudson Bay Junction, Saskatchewan, on Thursday, April 7th. Mr. Wiley, who was 69 years of age, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wiley, pioneer residents of the Toronto Gore. He had lived in the north for about 30 years. Surviving are his wife, the former Minnie Patterson of Nashville; three sons, Irwin and Frank at home in Hudson Bay Junction, and Wray, a teacher at Leader, Sask., and two brothers, Newman of Woodbridge, and George of Brampton. Interment was at Hudson Bay Junction.

Late Mrs. D. E. Rowntree and Mrs. W. G. Cowan

Mrs. Deborah Elliott Rowntree, widow of the late James Rowntree aged 79 passed away suddenly on Monday, April 18th, and was buried in Pine Ridge cemetery, the funeral taking place on Wednesday with Rev. James S. Roe officiating. Deceased was a daughter of the late John and Agnes Reeves Elliott whose residence was on Pine Street. She is survived by two sons, Roy of Woodbridge and Frank at Weston. A sister, Mrs. Thomas Baldoock also survives.

On the same day and almost the same hour Mrs. William G. Cowan, 88 years of age, a sister, died at Hamilton and was buried from the original family home at the same hour with Rev. James S. Roe officiating and interment was made in Prospect Cemetery, Toronto.

GEORGE HOLBORN

George Holborn of King Township died on April 3rd. The late Mr. Holborn was born in Luther Township 69 years ago. Several years ago he moved to the township of Tecumseth where he lived until a little more than a year ago when he moved to the ninth line of King near Nobleton. The funeral took place at Monticello. One brother Robert died a few days before him. James Holborn of Tecumseth is a brother.

COON IN HOLLOW LOG IS SLICED BY SAW

Lawrence Schill, a Peel township farmer recently took a medium-sized log to Seranus Martin's saw mill at Floradale to be reduced to burnable slabs. Milton Glade, operator of the buzz-saw, promptly set to work on the log. The first slab sliced off the log developed a sizeable cavity, but it was not until the second slab fell to the floor that Mr. Glade realized that he had disturbed a coon's winter sleep with fatal result. The animal appeared to have taken up residence in the hollow log last fall to snooze until spring. Not knowing the piece of wood was inhabited, Mr. Schill had carted it to the mill.

NEWTONBROOK

A special feature of the worship service in the United Church next Sunday morning will be Temperance addresses by Norma Graham, Fanny Hudak and Thomas Sheridan who won silver cups in the Oration contest at the North York Federation Convention a short time ago. THORNHILL

Choir Presents Easter Cantata "Darkness and Dawn", a sacred cantata by Fred W. Peace was rendered by the choir of the United Church at the Easter Sunday evening service. The large audience was inspired by the stirring musical representation of the Easter story which told of the closing scenes in the life of Christ and the victory of the cross.

The choir sang of the wonderment of the people at the sudden darkness and quaking of the earth and asked "What can all these wonders be?" They were answered that "Jesus died on Calvary." Miss A. Boyle, contralto, told of the scene in the Garden of Gethsemane, and was ably assisted by a quartette composed of Mrs. L. Hicks, Mrs. A. Brillinger, Mr. Arnott and Mr. Don Davidson. After the laborious march to Calvary, portrayed by the choir, Mr. John Arnott, tenor, guest soloist for the evening, told of the Crucifixion. Mr. Bruce McDonald, bass, told of the darkness that fell upon the earth and the sudden earthquakes and rending of the rocks. Mrs. K. Armstrong, soprano, sang of Joseph, the rich man of Aramatha, begging of Pilate for the body of Jesus, which they gently laid in the new sepulchre. Mrs. Armstrong later sang of the Resurrection. The cantata was capably directed by Mr. Floyd Davies, choir master, while Mrs. Davies presided at the organ.

MORE SIZE— MORE STYLE— MORE SAVINGS!

FORD gives you something really new in the De Luxe Ford V-8 that made its bow to the motoring world this year. Back of it is a line of more than 26,000,000 Ford cars, honestly built. Ahead of it is a new public appreciation of big size, modern style and brilliant performance in the low-price field. It is the biggest, roomiest Ford V-8 ever built. It is offered in eight body types. And it sets a high standard of economy. Owners are reporting 22 to 27 miles per gallon.

"THE CANADIAN CAR"

Then there's the Standard Ford V-8—lower in price than the De Luxe. It, too, is a big and handsomely appointed car. The two cars have many features in common—both are built with the same regard for high quality of materials and workmanship. Like the De Luxe, the Standard has the 85-horsepower engine. There are three body types. Both De Luxe and Standard cars have much "extra" equipment at no extra charge. See them at your Ford dealer's. Drive the one you favor.
