There is no freedom. If you join a group to overcome a tyrant, you soon get licked for not paying dues.

WOODBIDGE

Friends in the community will be sorry to hear that Mrs. William Mainprize, who, at the time of writing, is reported as being seriously ill. Her brothers Rev. George Dix of Truro, Nova Scotia, and Rev. David Dix of Saskatchewan college staff are both at her bedside.

To tax Toronto Bakery concerns who operate in Woodbridge is a commendable move on the part of the council.

Seeding is well on the way. The ground is working extra well and a number of farmers have finished according to reports.

Wheat and hay crops have wintered extra well and should provide an abundant yield.

As it appears now trees will be in full bloom about three weeks in advance of average years.

A well known and familiar figure on the village streets was that of Charlie Elliott, village blacksmith for many years, and who has been confined to his home for several months with an injured limb and has been unable to make the rounds as usual. Hope for his recovery is generally expressed.

The large store of the George Mason Estate on Pine Street so long unoccupied is now in possession of Hugh Lindsay, electrician.
