Residents Turn Down Daylight Saving Time

Meeting in the school on Saturday evening, Kleinburg residents voted to remain on Standard Time. The vote failed to be even close and the Daylight Saving proposal was beaten by an overwhelming majority. The meeting voted to proceed with the installation of hydro in the public school but further action on the proposal for street lighting was deferred pending the completion of a petition which is to be circulated. as Toronto.

NEWTON HAY SPROULE

N. H. Sproule, a well known resident of York County died at Schomberg on Wednesday, April 27th. He was in his 84th year. In early years he taught school at Schomberg. Later he farmed and engaged in railroad work. He was Collector of Customs at Newmarket for 16 years. He was a member of the Orange Association and a Conservative in politics. Surviving are five daughters, Mrs. M. J. McCutcheon, Port Arthur, Hazel in Montreal, Evelyn in Toronto, Iva in New York and Clare at home. The funeral took place on Friday afternoon with service in the United Church and interment in Schomberg Cemetery.

JOHN MURPHY

John Murphy, a well known resident of the Schomberg district died on April 19th after a brief illness. He was in his 87th year. He was a member of St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church. Surviving are one son, Richard and one daughter Sadie, and two sisters, Miss E. Murphy and Mrs. Charles McKanon. The funeral took place on April 22nd with high mass at St. Patrick's Church and interment at St. Patrick's Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Jim O'Neil, Robert Wray, Harry Sutherland, Allan Brown, C. McKale and Jack Cull.

PURPLEVILLE

Plans are again getting under way for the annual re-union picnic of Purpleville School, S.S. No. 11 Vaughan, which is to be held at Huttonville Park on Saturday, June 11th. Basket lunch will be served at 12 noon. All pupils, ex-pupils, ex-teachers and their families are cordially invited. Anyone knowing the address of former pupils, if you just pass the word along, it will make this year's re-union "bigger and better than ever." Officers for 1938 are: President, Miss A. Kerr; Vice-Pres., Mr. W. Peterman; Sec., Miss V. Dooks; Treas., Miss J. McClure.

Ont. Sheep Breeders Field Day June 4th

John D. Patterson, Don Head Farms, near Richmond Hill, extends hearty invitation to all sheep breeders and families—to provide lunch at noon—prize Southdowns and Aberdeen-Angus on display—Baseball, Horseshoe pitching and races for children. Saturday, June 4th, promises to be a red-letter day in the history of Ontario sheep breeders, as John D. Patterson, Don Head Farms, near Richmond Hill, has thrown open his spacious acres for the annual Field Day of the Sheep Breeders of the province. Mr. Patterson has one of the best kept farms in Ontario stocked with Southdown sheep that have won many prizes at leading Canadian and International exhibitions. Mr. Patterson has also one of the best Aberdeen-Angus herds in Canada. Mr. Patterson is leaving no stone unturned to make the Field Day an outstanding success. In addition to providing lunch for the visitors, he is installing several baseball diamonds and horseshoe pitches. There will also be special races for the children. The Field Day will commence at 11 a.m. Standard Time. Don Head Farms are located about midway between Richmond Hill and Maple, two miles west of Yonge St. Highway and about 20 miles north of Toronto. Remember, every sheep breeder with his family is invited.

Another example of a misfit is when a family of five boys and two dogs move into an exclusive neighborhood.

Invite your friends to visit the Fair at Richmond Hill Victoria Day, May 24th.

HEADFORD

The entertainment under the auspices of the Y.P.U. on Wednesday evening, May 4th, was quite successful. Mrs. Dixon of Unionville and her orchestra with the artists from Toronto, Mr. Middleton, baritone; Mrs. Conley, pianist; Miss Lines, elocutionist, were well received and heartily encored. The one act farce comedy "In May with June" was a pleasing finale and drew rounds of applause from the audience. The adjudicator, Mr. Robertson, afterwards gave his criticism placing the play in Class A which gives the Headford Y.P.U. entry to the Drama Festival in Richmond Hill next Wednesday evening.

Council Revise By-law Assessing Poll Tax

Meeting last Monday night Woodbridge council repealed the much debated existing poll tax by-law and passed another to replace it. The change was made to more fully cover present conditions. No date was set for payment of the $5.00 annual levy, but the provisions stipulated that payment must be made within two days of demand. After two days, Constable Geo. Scott, who has been appointed collector, is authorized to initiate distress proceedings. A penalty of $10 and costs is also provided should the tax not be paid within two days. No provision is made for statute labour in lieu of payment, nor is the payer entitled to a municipal vote.

Residence of 30 days will make any single, unassessed man liable to be taxed. If in business, a single man will be called upon to make up his taxes to the sum of $5.00 should his business tax be less than that amount.

SCHOMBERG

Garden lovers heard an interesting lecture in the Institute Hall here on Thursday of last week when the Schomberg Horticultural Society, headed by President Dr. Dillane, sponsored the appearance of the well known authority on the subject, "Dick the Amateur Gardener".

Miss Alexa Baxter, who has made her home with the R. S. MacMillan family for the past several months, left last week for Toronto, where she visited with her sister, prior to leaving for her home in Kerrobert, Sask., on Monday, April 25th.

The Ontario Horticultural Association is sponsoring a series of programs on gardening to be heard over the Canadian Broadcasting stations from 3.45 to 4 o'clock, beginning the latter part of April. The horticultural societies are urged to bring to the attention of our school children the protection of wild flowers, especially the trillium, our floral emblem.

Rev. and Mrs. R. S. MacMillan and family left on Monday, by motor, for their long trip to Kindersley, Saskatchewan, where Rev. MacMillan will assume his new duties on May 1st. Prior to their departure the family were the recipients of many kind tokens of remembrance from the various classes and organizations in Schomberg and Dunkerron.

The W.M.S. of the Presbyterian Church met at the home of Mrs. Fred Graham on Thursday afternoon, April 21st. Mrs. R. Davis occupied the chair. The scripture lesson was taken by Mrs. F. Graham and the prayer by Mrs. R. Davis. Miss Marjorie Burling gave a very interesting account of the life of Mr. J. G. forth, who had spent his life ministering to the Chinese. At the close of the meeting, lunch was served by the hostess.
