

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

"Have more than thou showest, Speak less than thou knowest, Lend less than thou owest, Ride more than thou goest, Learn more than thou throust, Set less than thou throust."

—Shakespeare.
"Here we go gathering nuts in May," might easily be the slogan of the young folk who attended the Junior Farmer and Homemakers Clubs held on Monday evening last in the Township Hall, for there were many kernels of valuable information presented at both meetings. Representatives from the Mount Albert and the Poplar Banks Clubs were guests of the evening. The President, Cameron Kennedy, on behalf of the club expressed appreciation for their attendance and emphasized the benefits derived from such co-operation. Unionville won from Poplar Banks club in the recent Drama Contest by a very small margin.

Nellie Clark presided at the Homemakers meeting and introduced Miss Lulu C. Powney, who very ably demonstrated the Kraft Cheese products, making delicious sandwiches and salads that looked very appetizing.
An instructive paper on Vitamins, given by Alice Darlington, brought many suggestions of proper menus to insure good health. Miss Darlington also won the lucky draw. A debate on the question "Resolved that the unmarried girl is happier than her married sister," with Eva Hunter and Miss Bainbridge presenting the affirmative and Isabel Whitaker and Helen Little defending the negative, resulted in the decision being given to the negative. Rozina Barker, Miss Powney and Mina Somerville acted as judges. The roll call to be responded to by choosing the happiest girl in the club, many were mentioned, which speaks well for the temperament of the girls.

The boys' meeting was favored to have Wm. Watson as the guest speaker, Mr. Watson of the Live Stock dept. of the Dept. of Agriculture and spoke on farming in general. He was introduced by Mr. Hodge, editor of "The Ontario Farmer" magazine.
At the joint meeting which followed the Township Hall was filled to capacity. The President announced the Club Dance to be held on May 23rd in Malvern Hall, also the possibility of hearing the prize drama in the near future. Musical selections were contributed by the visitors and the news sheet was read by Elliot Harrington, the editors of the month being Glen Cole and Marjory Wheeler. Following refreshments dancing was the order of the evening with Don Kennedy and John Moscow supplying good music. And so, another successful event goes on record by the Junior Farmers and Homemaker Clubs.

We offer congratulations to two of our township's most honored citizens when during the coming week Mrs. Susan Gibson of Milliken will celebrate her 90th birthday and Mrs. D. Coulson will turn her eighty-second mile stone in life's way.

Mrs. Gibson, although a partial invalid for many years, still retains her bright and charming personality and portrays keen interest in all worth while affairs. She is a descendant of the "Mother of Scarborough", and a daughter of the late John Glendinning. Mrs. Gibson will be at home to friends on Saturday, May 7th.

Mrs. D. Coulson has lived in Markham Township her entire life and will long be remembered for her homey philosophy and human understanding of folk. A dinner party of relatives and friends is planned for Saturday evening at the home of her son Harvey Coulson.

Many interesting reminiscences will be offered, we are sure, by these two venerable ladies when they meet with many friends on this happy occasion.

The concert held on Saturday evening last under the auspices of Central United Church choir proved veritably to be a musical treat. The orchestra numbers were especially good and reflected great credit on the teacher, Mrs. Stephenson. The ladies' choir from North Toronto gave several splendid numbers, and the interspersed readings gave good entertainment also.

Perhaps the most outstanding number was the violin solo by Mrs. Stephenson accompanied by Mr. Stevens of Toronto. Both are indeed artists of outstanding ability and Unionville music lovers had a real treat in hearing good music so ably performed.

Following the concert refreshments were served the artists and guests by the members of the choir, Rev. Owen expressing appreciation for the entertainment given. Mrs. Stephenson replied in fitting words the pleasure the visit to Unionville had been. Thirty-three ladies were in attendance at the April meeting of the W.A. of Central United Church when Mrs. G. Compton, Mrs. F. Pollard, Mrs. F. Boadway and Mrs. B. Sabiston were hostesses for the afternoon. A delicious supper was served following the program which held many interesting items of entertainment. Mrs. Bewell presided. During the devotional period Mrs. Champion read the Bible lesson and Mrs. A. Coulson gave an inspiring Bible talk on "Stones rolled away" also leading in prayer. The President paid fitting tribute to the late Mrs. John Lunau, a former member of the organization and a memory hymn was sung by the members. The President, Mrs. Bewell, also expressed appreciation to the ladies for their kindly remembrance of her birthday on April 18th. An interesting letter was read from Mrs. Chapin (Nee Etta Flavelle) of Norway House, expressing gratitude for supplies sent to the mission. A start at re-decorating the Manse was reported, which will be continued shortly.

A pleasing solo by Mrs. Clarkston accompanied by Mrs. Reesor along with readings by Mrs. La Rose and Mrs. Champion were appreciated. This live organization has many worth while activities to its credit. The ladies are always willing to give a helping hand in needed places.

Further arrangements for the coming lawn and garden competition to be held in June were discussed at the meeting of the Horticultural Society executive held at the home of the secretary, Mr. A. E. Milner on Tuesday. There will be two divisions on the prize list, Farm and Village, and two classes in each division with first and second prizes in each class. Class 1 will include all entries for Residential Surroundings and Class 2 the Flower Garden. It is hoped that the entire list may include all members and those who are not on the membership list and wish to join the Society are urged to do so as soon as possible. Polyanthus Roses are the premiums to be distributed this year and of attractive varieties. They are expected to arrive shortly so get your membership in and share in joy of having one of these lovely roses in your garden.

Announcement is made that the presentation of the Prize Drama by the Junior Farmers Club is scheduled for May 14th and will be given in Heather Hall, Agincourt. The Junior Farmers Club has challenged the Forward Club, Knox United Church to a debate on the much agitated question, "Legalizing Sweepstakes in Canada". This will be given on the same evening and certainly looks like an O.K. program. Reserve the date, the evening of May 14th.

Mr. Robt. Myers, our trusty mail carrier, has established a reputation that is hard to beat. During his eighteen years as in government service he has never missed a train. Congratulations.

Fact of the matter is few statesmen are misquoted. All the newspaper boys do is to correct their grammar.

What did President Roosevelt mean when he said what this country needed was a return of democracy?

Heard in a theatre: "How far down do you wish to sit lady? Why all the way, of course."

MONDAY & TUESDAY, MAY 9 - 10

WEDNESDAY & THURSDAY, MAY 11 - 12
ANN NAGLE - ANTON WALBROOK - H. B. WARNER in "VICTORIA THE GREAT"

It travels a long way toward a full and clarified explanation of the most popular ruler England ever had. Excellent entertainment for all.
