The Red Cross Society of North York met at the home of Mrs. (Dr.) T. F. Hogg last Thursday afternoon with nearly sixty in attendance. The president, Mrs. A. L. Reeves, presided. Following the business period and the address Dr. F. W. Routley, director of the Ontario division of the Red Cross on behalf of the members of the North York branch made presentations to Misses Mary and Barbara Bathgate who are charter members of the society and who for over twenty years filled the position of treasurer and convener of the Serving Committee. They were the recipients of beautiful petpoint hand bags and corsages of pink roses. Refreshments were afterwards served in the dining room with Mrs. Donald Wheeler and Mrs. W. C. McGregor pouring tea.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Galbraith and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Grisdale attended the S. S. Institute held in Victoria College last Monday evening.

Miss S. M. Stevenson of Toronto spent last week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wells.

Miss Brown is visiting her cousin, Mrs. A. W. Stephenson.

Miss Maida Hutchinson of Toronto is a guest this week of Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Halbert.

A number of young people attended the Festival of Plays held last Wednesday evening in Richmond Hill United Church.

The Golden Rule Mission Band will meet next Saturday at 2.30 in the S. S. hall of the United Church.

The North York Horticultural Society met last Monday evening in the Town Hall with a large attendance. Mr. Curtis, the president, was in the chair. The guest speaker was Mr. George Thompson of Toronto. A questionnaire proved an interesting feature of the meeting when members handed in questions regarding their garden problems which were satisfactorily answered by Mr. Thompson. Very generous premiums are being given out to the members this week which means a great deal of work to the directors in charge.

It was announced that the annual Horticultural Picnic will be held on July 6th to the O. A. College at Guelph.

The Auxiliary of the W.M.S. will hold its regular monthly meeting next Tuesday, May 17th at 2.30 at the Passonage. These will be a shower for the Missionary Bale consisting of hospital supplies, adults and children's good used clothing, games and toys for children in hospitals for Christmas gifts, quilts, etc. The ladies of the church are cordially invited to attend. Visitors welcome.

The Girls' Mission Circle will meet at the Parsonage next Tuesday, May 17th at 8 p.m. They will also hold a shower for the Missionary Bale. Everybody welcome. The Girls' Circle has accepted an invitation to visit the Girls' Circle at Victoria Square on Friday, May 20th and give the programme.

There was a capacity congregation last Sunday morning at the United Church for the Mother's Day Service. Two musical numbers were acceptably received by the S. S. Sextette. These were Jean Stephenson, Dorothy and Audrey Walterhouse, Elsie Wells, Gladys McPhail and Rita Hurd. Two readings were given by Miss Margaret Shaw and Miss Doris Newton. The pastor's message was in keeping with Mother's Day. A special feature of the evening service was a song service of Mother's Favorite Hymns, with many requests sent in by members. A duet by Mrs. Glen Shaw and Mr. Halbert, "Mother's Prayers" and a solo by Mrs. Allan Wiltshire were much enjoyed.

The Young People's Union met last Monday evening with a large attendance. Miss Cora Good, mis-

Mason's Banquet For Grand Master

The six rural lodges of Toronto District "D" honored the M.W. Grand Master W. J. Dunlop at a well attended banquet held in the community Hall in Maple on Tuesday evening. The rural lodges in this district are Maple, Woodbridge, King, Schomberg, Bolton and Caledon East. Large delegations of members were present from each of these lodges as well as many from Richmond Hill and a number of city lodges. After a brief meeting in the Maple Lodge Room the banquet and speaking was held in the Community Hall. The D.D.G.M. acted as toastmaster for the occasion. The toast to the Grand Lodge was proposed by D. B. Davis of Schomberg and responded to by Rt. Rev. Bishop White, Grand Chaplain. The toast to the Grand Master was proposed by Geo. Shore of Woodbridge and responded to by the Grand Master. The toast to the guest by Fred Boys of King and the toast to the visitors by Gordon McGillivray of Woodbridge. A presentation was made to the Grand Master by M. J. Kinnee. Toast to the Rural Lodges was responded to by Jerry Holder, of Caledon East, U. Shunk of Woodbridge, Wm. Egan of Bolton and D. Lockhart of King. The reception committee included Milton Palmer, M. J. Kinnee, M. Wilson, Geo. Brownlee, J. G. Routley, N. McDonald, Robt. Merriott and J. M. McDonald. Between the speeches solos were rendered by Laurence Dafoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Walker Celebrate Diamond Wedding Jubilee

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Walker, residents of Vaughan Township near Maple celebrated the 60th anniversary of their wedding on Saturday, May 7th. They celebrated the occasion at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Milt Palmer in Maple where a very enjoyable time was had by the immediate relatives and friends who were present. Mr. and Mrs. Walker both enjoy splendid health despite advanced years. They were married on May 7th, 1878 at the Methodist Church in Lloydtown. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Jack Clarke. For more than 40 years after their marriage they resided in the south eastern section of Adjala township. For a time they lived in Tecumseth near Penville and of late have been living retired near Maple. Mrs. Walker before her marriage was Susannah Gibson, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gibson and was born on the eighth line of Albion on the farm now occupied by Ernie Patterson. Mr. Walker was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walker and was born at Lot 1, Tecumseth one concession south of Colgan.

One son, Wilfred David Walker, resides at Wainwright, Alta. and another son, Hiram, died about 17 years ago. One daughter, Sarah (Mrs. Wm. C. Lewis) lives at Alliston and another daughter, Annie (Mrs. Milt Palmer), resides at Maple. During their long residence in Adjala, Mr. and Mrs. Walker were active workers at Churchill Methodist Church. Mr. Walker was a very active Orangeman. For several years he was W.M. of Inniskillen Lodge No. 260 and was at one time District Master of Albion. He is an Honorary Member of the Royal Black Institution. We join with their many friends in extending them best wishes for continued health and happiness.
