Record Crowd Attends the Annual Mulock Picnic at Woodbridge Last Saturday

Thousands Enjoy Big Program As Guests Of Col. W. P. Mulock, M.P., And Hear Momentous Address By Canada's Prime Minister

The largest crowd ever to assemble in Woodbridge turned out last Saturday as guests of Col. W. P. Mulock, M.P. at his annual picnic to greet Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Prime Minister of Canada. Well over ten thousand attended and enjoyed the address of the Prime Minister, a big sports program, and many feature attractions which concluded with a monster Street Dance at night. The picnic was an outstanding success and everyone had a good time. The busiest man on the grounds was Col. Mulock who spent all his time greeting friends from all parts of the riding and looking out for the enjoyment and comfort of his many guests.

Sixteen teams competed in the men's softball tournament which was won by Unionville, with Richmond Hill team as runners-up. In the girls' tournament Milliken were the winners and Fisherville girls were the winners of the second prize. The horseshoe pitching contest for the championship which was in charge of Mr. Scott McNair was won by the team of George and Hill of Woodbridge who won nine out of ten games and then played off for the championship with Hall and Murphy of Stouffville who had a similar record. Third prize went to McEachern and Hamilton of Woodbridge, 4th to Orr and Malloy of Teston, and fifth prize to Woods and Scott of Woodbridge.

The pony contest created great interest among the youngsters who were present by the thousands. Col. Mulock donated a handsome Shetland pony from his North York farm to the boy or girl from North York who guessed nearest to the correct number of candies in a large glass jar. Thousands of guesses were put in and each child on making a guess was given one of the popular "Bill" Mulock colored caps, and a generous helping of candy. The correct number, 9240, was handed in a sealed envelope to the judges at the close of the contest and the following were the prize winners: 1st, the Shetland pony winner, Jack Devins, of Pine Ridge, his guess 9267; second the winner of the jar of candy, Gordon Troyer of Vaughan township, his guess 9280; 3rd, T. A. Watson, Woodbridge; 4th, N. Boynton, Kleinburg; 5th, A. Maguire, Schomberg; 6th, J. Bureau, Woodbridge; 7th, M. Grover, Humber Summit; 8th, L. Thompson, Woodbridge; 9th, Bruce Colquhoun, Downsview; 10th, Foss Mallory of Richmond Hill.

Free ice cream by the gallon was given away to the kiddies and a big program of races with handsome prizes was another popular attraction for the young ones. The prize winners in the races which were in charge of Blake Sanders of Stouffville and a willing committee of workers were as follows:

The mantel clock donated by Col. Mulock to the oldest resident of North York riding present was presented to Mr. Luke Gibbons, a staunch supporter, from King Township, smart, alert and active despite his age of 94 years.

The speaker's stand was gaily decorated with flags, bunting and a streamer bearing the message "North York Welcomes the Prime Minister." The Prime Minister was met in Toronto by Mrs. Mulock, Bill Mulock junior, and Mr. John Lawson representing the North York Liberal Association. The car bearing the distinguished visitor was met in the village by Col. Mulock, M.P., Morgan Baker, M.P.P. and J. E. Smith, Dr. G. D. McLean, Cecil Shannon and other representatives of the Riding Association. Headed by the R.S.A. Bugle Band of Newmarket the Premier's car made its way to the grounds and Mr. King and Col. Mulock were given a rousing reception by the assembled thousands.

J. E. Smith, Richmond Hill, acted as chairman for the picnic and in extending a welcome to the Prime Minister on behalf of the North York Liberal Association assured the Prime Minister of the confidence and united loyalty of the Liberals of the riding.

John Whitmore on behalf of the citizens of Woodbridge extended a warm welcome to the distinguished visitor. Morgan Baker, M.P.P., spoke briefly expressing his delight in having the Prime Minister of Canada honor the Mulock picnic with his presence and expressed the hope that all citizens of Canada would stand united as a people in solving our common problems. "Let us stand for democracy, he said, and hope for the day when the nations of Europe would turn back to that form of government which is an expression of the people speaking without fear.

Col. Mulock, host for the day, extended to all a very cordial welcome to the picnic and expressed the wish that all would have a very enjoyable day. He paid tribute to the leadership and qualities of statesmanship possessed by the Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King and said it was a real pleasure and honor to have him as the guest speaker of the day. Before calling on the Prime Minister Col. Mulock introduced a number of the prominent visitors on the platform.

Three hearty cheers and a tiger greeted Rt. Hon. Mr. King as he rose to speak. Addressing the great audience he spoke as follows:

In Liberal VanGuard

"Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, you will not be surprised that I find it somewhat difficult to discover words wherewith adequately to express my appreciation of the warmth of the welcome extended to me this afternoon. I am sure you will not be surprised when I say, as well, that I find it even more difficult to count the number of memories that are awakened by being again in the great old constituency

"RUSTY" WHITE TO GIVE UP LACROSSE

Is Recovering From Injuries Which For A Time Threatened His Life

Eric "Rusty" White, Richmond Hill's pride in the Senior O.A.L.A. has played his last game. Seriously injured in a game with Orillia last week "Rusty" has been in the Fergus Hospital since Saturday in a very critical condition. An infection in a serious injury to his face made medical attendants for a time fear for his life. "Al" White of Richmond Hill visited his brother Wednesday and reports this morning indicate that there has been a decided turn for the better and if other complications do not take place he should soon be on the road to recovery.

"Rusty" started his spectacular lacrosse career with Richmond Hill Young Canadians in the old Tri-County league and from his first game was a star. Later with Fergus Thistles he has earned a place amongst the foremost stars in senior lacrosse in Ontario. From his bed in the Fergus hospital "Rusty" has stated definitely that he will retire from the game.

Lacrosse in Ontario will be the poorer for the retirement of "Rusty" White. He was a true sportsman, who gave of his best at all times, and as a result took more in the way of punishment than most players in the game.

The Liberal joins with his host of friends in Richmond Hill and this district in wishing him a speedy and complete recovery.

Business Change in Richmond Hill

A change in local business circles occurred on Tuesday when Mrs. R. Petch who has conducted the radial and Gray Coach terminal, confectionery and lunch room since the death of her husband sold out to G. A. Donnelly of Elgin Mills who is now in charge. He will be assisted in his new venture by his sister, Miss Mary Donnelly and they will both be pleased to meet all the old customers as well as many new ones.

The new firm are contemplating several changes very shortly, additions to the present stock including the installation of magazines and newspapers. We welcome Mr. Donnelly to the village and wish him every success.

of North York. This constituency has a place in this province and in this Dominion second to none in the whole of Canada; this constituency has been associated with the march of all reform and liberalism for more than a century past, and the opinion of this constituency has spread in many parts of our country.

"Before I begin, however, to say a word about some of the memories that are awakened today, may I immediately thank those who have already spoken for the extremely cordial welcome they have extended to me, and particularly for the words they have used by way of introduction. Mr. Smith, as chairman, has spoken of the confidence and loyalty and friendship of the citizens of North York towards myself. As I seek to acknowledge that great obligation I recall, ladies and gentlemen, that it was all of 21 years ago that you first extended to me the nomination to run in this constituency and that I first contested North York. I remember, too, that it was as many as 19 years ago, or 17 years ago, that I was returned by this constituency to the parliament of Canada in the office of prime minister of this Dominion. It was for this constituency that I sat when I first had the great honor of entering our parliament as leader, not only of my party but also as prime minister of Canada. Could any honor be greater than to come back at the end of a period of years of leadership to the constituency which for five years I had the honor of representing and be told that nowhere in our vast Dominion did I enjoy more of the confidence, more of the friendship, more of a loyal friendship of the citizens of Canada, than I do in this very constituency?

With all my heart, ladies and gentlemen, I thank you for that expression of confidence. Indeed, nothing could mark that confidence more than the presence of the members who are assembled in this gathering this afternoon, and I would like personally to thank those who are present in this gathering and on this platform at this time.

"May I say, Mr. Whitmore, how much I appreciate your words of welcome on behalf of the village of Woodbridge. As I came into the village this afternoon I saw that banner across the street extending its welcome to the prime minister of this country, and I should like to thank you, and through you all the citizens of the village of Woodbridge, for giving me that special welcome, and especially for the kind way in which you have supplemented it in the course of your remarks.

To Follow Grandfathers

"May I say to my friend, Mr. Morgan Baker, how deeply honored I feel that he should have spoken words of welcome such as he extended to me today. In the years I have been associated with North York I remember having the privilege of being a close friend of Mr.

Baker's father. A finer citizen of our country I believe is not to be found in any part of it. He is an example to all of us, a man of keen vision, character and ability, and true conception of citizenship. I remember saying to a good many of our friends at the time when they came to select a candidate for the provincial House that I doubted if they could do better than to choose Mr. Baker. I am sure he is one who will maintain the traditions of the constituency which he has so much at heart, and one who will rise to a great place in the affairs of our province and in the affairs of our country. I tell you today that you have in the person of Mr. Baker, in the provincial House, and your other representative, Col. Mulock, in the federal House, two young men who are going to take an increasingly important place in the public life of our country, and who are going to be as honored as their grandfathers have been before them.

"May I express also to Col. Mulock how deeply touched I have been by his words of welcome. I have been most fortunate, ladies and gentlemen, in the following that I have in the House of Commons, and the feeling is shared by my colleagues and myself that among those who are there, none have been more loyal and true and helpful than those Liberal members from the different constituencies of York and those from the city of Toronto. They are a band of young men second to none among the public men of our day, and all are men of keen intellect, broad vision, men who have at heart the future of their country, and they will all go very far in our public life.

"It is a joy to me to be associated with Col. Mulock at this picnic, and I recall among other things that it was at the residence of his grandfather, Sir William Mulock, many years ago—1896 was the year—that I first had the pleasure of meeting Sir Wilfrid Laurier and becoming acquainted with the one who at that time was the leader of the opposition, soon to become prime minister of our country, and who held that office for 15 years. I remember, too, as I speak, that it was Sir William Mulock who invited me to become his deputy and to work with him in the organization of the department of labor of our country. That work was undertaken long before other people began to show interest in the problems of labor, as they do today. And I always feel that this is one of the outstanding achievements of the Liberal party, which was the first party to recognize the questions relating to labor. And it was due to the Liberal party that we had, both in our province and in our Dominion, the establishment of the first departments of labor in our country.

"I want to thank Col. Mulock very warmly indeed for giving me the in-
