IN MEMORIAM

GALE—In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Ben, who passed away August 27, 1937. Not just today, but every day in silence, we remember. —Sadly missed by Mother, Dad, Louise and Margaret.

IN MEMORIAM

WIDEMAN—In loving memory of Harold Wideman who departed this life August 25, 1937. Just one year ago to-day. Since our dear Harold passed away; Suddenly the call was given From that happy home in heaven. Oh how we miss him everywhere, His cheery smile was ever there; With sweet submission to his Lord He now enjoys that great reward. Some sweet day we too shall be Gathered by the crystal sea; Oh the joy and sweet communion When we share that glad reunion. —Ever remembered by his parents, sisters Cora and Della, and brother Murray, also many relatives and friends.

Beautiful Exhibits Feature Horticultural Flower Show

Featured by a fine display of exhibits and a large crowd of interested visitors the annual Fall Show of the Richmond Hill Horticultural Society was held in the Arena Wednesday evening. All kinds of summer flowers were there in abundance and the color and variety of the wealth of bloom made an array rich in beauty and attractiveness which was greatly admired by the many who visited the show during the evening.

The fine showing of Gladioli might be mentioned as a highlight of the show. There were many entries in the different classes and the striking beauty and color of the many varieties made an impressive showing. In addition to those in competition Reeve J. A. Greene and Mrs. Greene and Mr. F. E. Sims kindly donated huge baskets for display. A lemon tree grown by H. W. Kanis was the centre of much interest.

The juvenile section occupied a major part of the show and the exhibits of flowers and vegetables by the children was evidence of the increasing interest of the youngsters in the art of Horticulture. Much credit for the success of this juvenile section belongs to Mrs. Ungor, teacher of Agriculture at the Public School whose successful work bore fruit in the fine exhibit and the interest taken in the show by the children won the admiration of the crowd.
