

St. Stephen's Church, Maple, To Observe 100th Anniversary Next Sunday

Old St. Stephen's, 1835 to 1911

Present St. Stephen's, opened Dec. 15, 1895

UNIONVILLE

Unionville crashed the "big time" news again when for the second time in eight days the safe from the C.N.R. station was stolen early last Sunday morning. Entrance was gained by forcing a door and the thieves made away with their loot unheard. Sunday afternoon the safe robbed of $21 in cash and about $1500 in money orders was found on the roadside of the fourth concession of Scarborough, about a mile south of Milliken. The safe was previously stolen in the early morning of November 27th, but was recovered in Toronto when the thieves were chased by Toronto police but escaped. It looks more than likely that the nifty thieves made a return visit and this time succeeded in cashing in at least to some extent.

A large crowd featured the annual bazaar and dinner under the auspices of St. Phillip's Anglican Church last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. A. K. Harrington, one of the active workers for the success of the event was presented with a beautiful bouquet of flowers in appreciation of her splendid work.

Dr. Alan Brown, noted child specialist, was the guest speaker at the December meeting of the Junior Farmers organizations. His address on "Prevention of Disease in Children" was very instructive and greatly enjoyed.

The death occurred Sunday evening, December 4th of George Percival Ash at the Private Patients' Pavilion, Toronto General Hospital. He was in his 53rd year and was the husband of the late Katherine Ash. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon from the chapel of A. W. Miles, St. Clair Avenue, Toronto and interment followed in St. Phillip's cemetery, Unionville.

Trustee W. F. Kincaid attended the township council meeting Monday afternoon and impressed the township fathers the urgent need of a township dump.

Despite signs to the contrary rumors of an election for Markham township still persist. This is "election year" seems to be the grounds for basing most of the speculation.

Kelly; Sec., Mrs. J. Beresford; Treas., Mrs. Alexander; Supply Sec., Mrs. Boyington; Glad Tidings, Miss Barker; Welcome and Welfare, Mrs. T. Moore; Home Helpers, Mrs. Blanchard. By the help of the "Thank you" boxes and special projects the funds were greatly augmented. Meeting closed with prayer and praise followed by a social half hour.

LADIES ENJOY COOKING DEMONSTRATION

A crowded house greeted the charming Mrs. Aitken of the Canada Starch Co. who came here Tuesday afternoon under the auspices of the W. A. of the Presbyterian Church to demonstrate some of the whys and wherefores of cooking. The afternoon was very pleasantly enjoyed and a number of prizes including some of the products of the Canada Starch Co. were given away to lucky number holders. Other prizes consisted of the baking done during the afternoon. Mrs. Marion Graham, the oldest lady in the gathering, received a delicious sponge cake. Mrs. A. Teal received a silver cake plate which is given away at each demonstration by the company. A few well chosen words of appreciation were spoken at the close by Mrs. Moore, President of the association. Little Miss Eleanor Smith then presented Mrs. Aitken with a bouquet of red roses, a product of Richmond Hill. These were very graciously received. Everyone left quite happy, having learned a trick or two, and quite emphatic in their opinion that Mrs. Aitken can get a crowded house any time.
