Mrs. Arthur McNeil Honoured On Birthday

The home of Mrs. Nancy McNeil, Pine Street, widow of the late Arthur McNeil, was the scene of a very happy event on Saturday, December 10th, it being the birthday of Mrs. McNeil who reached her 90th milestone. During the afternoon many close relatives and friends called to offer congratulations. Mrs. McNeil's parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Simon Shunk were early settlers in Vaughan Township having crossed the border from Pennsylvania during the latter part of the 18th century and took up land in the Edgeley district where they prospered. Receiving the guests with Mrs. McNeil were her daughter Miss Lilly McNeil and Mrs. J. Staples Senior. Assisting in the living-room were Mrs. E. McClellan and Mrs. E. Brock; in the tea room Mrs. Jesse Keffer, niece of Mrs. McNeil poured tea and the assistants were Mrs. W. Staples, Mrs. A. B. Consins, Mrs. J. W. Dalziel, Mrs. Garfield Farr, Mrs. Wm. Mitchell, Mrs. John Gillan, Mrs. Garnet Keffer. The tea table was beautifully decorated in red and white, a bowl of white Mums surrounded by red and white tulie formed the centerpiece and red and white candles burned in silver holders. Mrs. McNeil was the recipient of lovely gifts and many beautiful bouquets of flowers, among them being bouquets from the L.O.B.A. 982, the Ladies' Aid and Young People's Society of the Woodbridge Presbyterian Church and also from Mr. and Mrs. Donald McKenzie, octogenarians, friends of Mrs. McNeil. A telegram was received from her nephew, Mr. Jacob Shunk in Mt. Dora, Florida. As a fitting close for the occasion the Presbyterian choir rendered the anthem "Angel Voices Singing".

Mr. William Webster of Brampton and Mr. George McKechnie have announced their intention of spending the winter in Florida.
Mr. Thomas Fenwick, a native of Toronto Gore and who as a youth went west to Souris, Manitoba where he farmed and prospered, retiring some years ago, spent a few weeks with old friends before leaving for California.

What a grand old world this would be if the established Christmas spirit prevailed throughout the year and throughout the world.
Late Mrs. George Bagg Sr.
Mrs. George Bagg passed away on Saturday night, December 10th, after an illness of two weeks. Mrs. Bagg who was formerly Miss Mary Jane Shaw was in her 81st year. She was a native of North York Township where she spent her youth coming with the family to Woodbridge about 35 years ago, and where her husband and she farmed and retired to live on 8th Avenue North about 15 years ago. Surviving are her husband, two sons and one daughter, Fred and George Jr. of Woodbridge and Mrs. John McLean, Elders Mills. Two brothers, Martin Shaw of Kleinburg and Andrew Shaw of Etobicoke Township, and one sister, Mrs. Robert Stinson, Toronto, also survive. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon with Rev. James S. Roe officiating and interment followed in Hillcrest Cemetery.

Mr. Alf Harrington, C.P.R. Section foreman for the past ten years was presented with a pleasing gift by the Company when he was promoted to road master with headquarters at Guelph and moved to the Royal City on Monday last. Congratulations on his success are extended to Mr. Harrington.
Car thieves have visited Woodbridge several times during the past few weeks. This last time it was the car of Arthur Banks that was stolen and recovered in Toronto stranded for the need of gas the following day.

Christ Church A.Y.P.A. Holds Opening Dance
Christ Church A.Y.P.A. held its first entertainment and dance in the Orange Hall last Friday evening. A dance program composed of old time, modern and novelty dances was enjoyed. Entertainment features included specialty dances by Miss P. Ashton, comedy and impersonation dances by five youths from St. Chad's Anglican Church, Toronto, together with piano accordion selections by Syd Bone of St. John's Garrison A.Y.P.A. Miss Queenie Dumbleton, local vocalist, sang. The committee in charge included Vic Dumbleton, Alan Mack convener, Vera Smith, Queenie Dumbleton, Wilfred Maxey, Maurice Lennox.

Single unemployed men in North York drew their last cheques yesterday under the "one day a week" work plan started by council just a few weeks ago. In future they will be on relief.
Deputy Reeve St. Clair Hurlbut and Councillor Harold Mountain reported to council yesterday after an interview with Hon. Eric Cross that the government would not aid such a work plan.

The men will therefore go on the relief rolls, without working for the aid they receive. Their vouchers will not be as much as the $3.40 weekly they received for their one day's work.

TESTON

This Sunday, December 18th, is White Gift Sunday, so bring your gifts to cheer somebody's Christmas.

Frank Robson presided at Young People's Union meeting last Sunday evening. There was a good attendance. The meeting opened with Hymn 254 and The Lord's Prayer. The lesson was from page 117 of the Hymnal. Jean Robson read a short story on Steps Downward. The topic was a paper on "Tragedy Around the Bend" and was read by Frank Robson. Hymn 239 and the Benediction brought to a close an interesting meeting.
The cast of the play "Pleased to Meecha" report a very successful evening at Bolton last Friday.
On Saturday, December 10th the marriage of Miss Mary Hart and Mr. Hugh Lightbody, both of Toronto, took place. Mr. Frank Piercey gave his niece away and Mrs. Piercey and Mrs. Lightbody, mother of the groom, attended the bride. After the ceremony they attended the reception at the home of Mrs. Thos. D. Kinneer, Toronto.
Mr. Ed. Bowen who has been ill for several weeks past was able to be out to church on Sunday. Friends were pleased to see him out again.
William Hall is home for a visit with his mother, brothers and sisters.
Many of Teston residents attended the Country Fair at Maple on Saturday and report an enjoyable time.

"Eat good and mind your own business", said a retired farmer at Chatham who recently celebrated his 93rd birthday. For a lot of people the first item in his advice is very easy and the second very difficult.

VANDORF

A.Y.P.A.'s 'At Home' Proves Successful

One of the season's most enjoyable and successful social events, the Christ Church, Woodbridge A.Y.P.A. "At Home", held in the Orange Hall last Friday evening, drew a large attendance despite a continuous downpour of rain. Many local residents and A.Y.P.A. enthusiasts from distant points joined with the local members to enjoy the evening's entertainment. It was the branch's first "At Home".

Dancing to the music of Flaherty's dance band formed the major part of the program but an added highlight was a floor show staged immediately following the intermission. Performers for this feature were all A.Y.P.A. members, the majority from Toronto branches. The acts, in order of appearance were: Miss Pat Ashton, dancer from St. Chad's, in a German Waltz and Mazurka; Mr. Syd Bone, piano accordionist from St. John's Garrison, playing "El Relicario" and "Accordiana"; "Five lads from St. Chad's", in comedy dance creations; Miss Queenie Dumbleton, Christ Church, Woodbridge, singing "Smoke gets in your eyes", accompanied at the piano accordion by Syd Bone, and Miss Ashton appearing again in a tap dance number. Pianist for the acts was Miss Jean Wilson, St. Chad's, and the master of ceremonies, Mr. Victor Dumbleton, Woodbridge. Elaborate hall decorations and special lighting effects were carried out by the committee, Mr. Wilfred Maxey. The full committee responsible were: Mr. Alan Mack, convener; Miss Vera Smith, president and head of reception committee; Mr. Maurice Lennox, business manager; Mr. Wilfred Maxey, decorations; Miss Queenie Dumbleton, entertainment director, and Mr. Victor Dumbleton, treasurer.
Novelty dances were included in the programme and a winner of a rose bouquet was Miss M. Keay.
