

Ford Dealers Sponsor Hockey Juvenile Team

First Practice Called For Friday Night

"Watch the Fords Go By" will be the slogan of Richmond Hill's entry in the Ontario Juvenile Hockey Association this year. At an enthusiastic meeting of the club held Wednesday evening in the Municipal Hall it was announced that Little Brothers, local Ford dealers, would sponsor the team this year. The announcement was a welcome one to the boys who are now looking forward to a successful hockey season. The first practice will be held at the arena Friday evening at 7.30 and all boys desirous of playing are invited to turn out. A town league will be formed and a schedule of games for the season drawn up which should be the means of providing lots of hockey for the local youngsters. James Butler, president of the Juvenile hockey organization presided at Wednesday night's meeting.

WEDDING

HEELS-RUMBLE
Richmond Hill Presbyterian church was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday afternoon, December 24th, when Ruth Isabel Rumble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scott Rumble of Maple, became the bride of Lorne Crawford Heels, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heels of Orillia. The bride's parents were married in the same church. Rev. J. R. MacCrimmon of Maple and Rev. J. D. Cunningham of Richmond Hill officiated.

The church was beautifully decorated with white candles and baskets of white chrysanthemums. Mr. F. Morley played the organ music and Mrs. Reginald Heels, sister-in-law of the groom, sang "Because." The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of green brocade satin with gold trimming, tight-fitting sleeves, with flared cuff extending over the hand. She wore also a matching velvet doll hat and gold sandals and carried a bouquet of carnations, 'mums and lilies of the valley.

Miss Frances Rumble, her sister, was bridesmaid, wearing a floor-length gown of coral beaded satin with short puffed sleeves, rhinestone clips and silver sandals and doll hat to match. She carried a bouquet of talisman roses. Norma Jean Johnston of Orillia, niece of the groom, was flower girl and wore a long cream moire gown, a wreath of flowers in her hair, and carried a nosegay. Mr. Gordon Pratt of Camp Borden was best man. The ushers were Mr. A. Ramsay, Toronto, and Mr. Stewart Rumble of Richmond Hill, cousin of the bride. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. F. S. Rumble and Mrs. Harry Heels received. The bride's mother wore a gown of grape wine crepe with a matching hat and corsage of roses. The groom's mother wore a gown of navy crepe and a corsage of roses.

After the reception the bride and groom left on a trip to Detroit, the bride wearing a two-tone frock of black and teal blue with a teal blue hat and a black wool coat with collar and banding of black fox. On their return they will reside in Commanda, Ont.

MURISON-CHAPMAN
A pretty wedding took place at the bride's home, Langstaff, Ontario, on Wednesday, December 21st, at 3 o'clock when Isabel Georgia Chapman, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chapman was united in marriage to Alexander Murison of Toronto, son of Mrs. Murison and the late James Murison of Peterhead, Scotland. Rev. E. B. Cooke of Thornhill United Church officiated. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Lyman Chapman, was daintily gowned in ivory bridal satin made on princess lines with Victorian skirt and veil with coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of Talisman roses, lily-of-the-valley and fern. The couple were unattended. Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Miss Ruby Clark of Toronto, cousin of the groom, and during the signing of the register Miss Mary Clark of Toronto, also a cousin of the groom, sang "O Perfect Love". A reception followed when the usual toasts and good wishes were expressed. The happy couple left later by motor on a trip to Belleville and eastern points and on their return will reside in Toronto.
