KLEINBURG

A large attendance marked the "Blimey, Bill, I wasn't 'arf tired | Kleinburg United Church annual con-Wednesday evening of last week. The hot dinner, served by the ladies lowed by the business session presided over by the Rev. J. C. Bailey. All reports were of a very satisfactory nature, showing that all branches had completed a very active year, each with a balance on hand.

Reports were given as follows: Y.P.U. secretary's report, Mrs. G. Taylor; Y.P.U. Treasurer's report, Miss Anna Kaiser; Sunday School, Miss Olive Devins; Cradle Roll, Mrs. G. Taylor; Women's Association, Mrs. H. P. Wardlaw; M. and M. committee, Mr. H. P. Wardlaw; and the church treasurer's report, Mr. H. P. Wardlaw. The latter reported a splendid balance on hand to commence the new year. Giving a report of the year's work in the circuit, the Rev. J. C. Bailey stated that an increase in membership had been shown in all three churches. Mission collections were also reported higher than the previous year.

Officers were elected as follows: Historical Custodian of the Church Records, William Wardlaw; M. and M. committee, Miss A. Train, Miss A. Kerr, Miss Anna Kaiser; Auditors, N. Watson, V. Shunk; Organist, Miss Margaret Watson; Assistant Organist, Miss Masel Shaw; Stewards, H. Wardlaw, J. Kellam, M. Wardlaw, D. McLean; Elders, D. McDonald, J. Coward, W. Wardlaw,

N. Watson. Adjournment of the meeting followed a short speech by the Rev. J. C. Bailey in which he voiced appreciation of the congregation's loyalty to himself and Mrs. Bailey.
