> A motion to add eleven dates on which school flags should be flown, commemorating important episodes in Canadian history was passed this week by the Toronto Board of Education. The new events to be honored are the battles of Vimy, Sanctuary Wood, Ypres, Paschendaele and Cambrai. Other dates added to the list are the birthday of Alex-Leaf Forever")., signing of Magna Carter, Battle of Waterloo, defeat of the Spanish Armada and the discovery of North America by John Cabot in 1497. These will be in addition to Victoria Day, King's Birthday, Dominion Day etc. There are many rural schools on which a flag is never seen. Rural trustees might well follow the example of the Toronto Board.

Simcoe County council voted 29-18 against a motion to call on the Dominion and provincial governments to take over the entire cost of relief and its administration. The motion was presented by William Thompson, Reeve of Penetang, and M. J. Asselin, Reeve of Tiny Township.

On the recommendation of the legislation committee, however, council endorsed a nearly similar resolution received from the County of York. Simcoe will petition the Dominion and provincial governments to relieve real estate from taxation for those services which do not contribute directly to the protection and services of real estate, and in particular from taxation for unemploycept to the extent of the administrative costs if such services can be most efficiently and economically administered through the municipali-
