Letters From The People

SUGGESTS FEED PHEASANTS

Editor, The Liberal
Sir:—
When the icy blasts of winter make us shiver to the warmth of our fire-side, let us give a thought to our feathered friends, the pheasants. When conditions are severe the pheasant finds it difficult to obtain food in its usual haunts and it begins to press closer to civilization. The pheasant is not well equipped for the process of scratching for a living, as a result, when the countryside is wrapped in a mantle of snow and shrubs and bushes buried beneath an icy crust rustling for food becomes a difficult task. It is at this time of year you find them in barnyard and orchard eager to pick up the crumbs which fall from the table, so to speak, of the more fortunate domestic animals. It is gratifying that farmers and others interested each year do a great deal to make the winter feeding a little easier. Coarse grain, corn etc. are suitable for winter food. A little help to the pheasants now means a great deal to these feathered friends we are so glad to see next summer.

PHEASANT LOVER.

It is hard enough to understand why a driver is allowed to take a car on the road without any insurance. He can damage the car of another driver and then say he has no insurance and no money. And trying to collect from such an individual is likely to result in even greater loss.—Peterborough Examiner.

The World Day of Prayer Service will be held Friday, February 24th at 3 p.m. in the Salvation Army Hall, Lansing. The various churches of this district will take part in the service.

Don't forget to come this (Friday) evening to the play entitled “Aunt Abbie Answers an Ad”, in Newtonbrook United Church Sunday School Hall at 8.15 o'clock to be presented by the St. Columba United Church Christian Endeavor. It is being held under the auspices of the local Y. P. U.

The United Church choir is conducting a service of music next Sunday evening, February 26 at 7 o'clock in Newtonbrook United Church under the direction of Miss Bertha Smith. The York Bible Class quartet will also sing. A hearty welcome to all.

There was a very interesting S.S. session last Sunday morning in Newtonbrook United Church when seven contestants competed in a Temperance Oratorical Contest. Those taking part were: Ina Johnson, Elise Wells, Jean Stephenson, Wanda Risebrough, Patsy Palmer, Shirley Pope and Dorothy Hurd. It is expected that some of these will take part in the North York Temperance Federation to be held on Friday evening, March 3rd in Queensville United Church, north of Newmarket.

The Mission Band will hold its regular meeting next Saturday at 2.30 p.m. in the United Church S.S. Hall. All the children will be very welcome.

Rev. A. H. and Mrs. Halbert attended the funeral of Rev. J. W. Fox in Toronto last Wednesday.

The Girls' Mission Circle met at the Parsonage last Tuesday evening with Miss Irene Smith in the chair. Mrs. R. F. Hicks gave an interesting address on “The Allocation Window and Christian Stewardship”. Mrs. Harold Summers gave a splendid review of the fourth chapter of the study book which dealt with the new Canadians and learning to live together in a spirit of brotherhood. A report of the annual meeting of the Toronto Centre Presbyterial was given by one of the delegates. A letter of deep appreciation was read regarding the bale which was sent to the West at Christmas time. Several finished blocks were brought in for a quilt in preparation for the bale. A social hour followed with refreshments served by the hostess.

A very successful operetta was presented by the pupils of Earl Haig Collegiate Institute entitled “The rose of the Danube” last Thursday and Friday nights to a crowded house both nights. The operetta was under the direction of the school music director, Miss Davies, and the teachers.

Mr. Allan Moore, 4th vice-president of the Y.P.U. will be in charge of the Young People's meeting next Monday evening. Mr. Davies will speak on music. The attendance is increasing every week. We welcome the new members at the meetings.

The Young People's Union met last Monday evening with a large attendance. Mr. Jack Duggan assisted in the devotional exercises. Mrs. W. T. Wells, teacher of the Young Men's Bible Class gave an informative talk on the “Organizations of the Church” and what they stand for. He urged the young people to link themselves up with the church and its work. If the church is to do its best work in the community we must have young recruits coming along who are willing to take their share of responsibility. Mr. Roy Gurney, the president, was in charge of the meeting owing to the recent bereavement of the third vice-president, Miss Helen Tranter, who lost her father through death last week. The Young People extend to Miss Tranter sincere sympathy. The social hour which followed was under the direction of the social convener, Miss Mary Douglas.

The Auxiliary of the W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. W. T. Wells last Tuesday afternoon and despite the very icy condition of the streets there was a large attendance with three new members added to the roll. The president, Mrs. A. W. Galbraith, presided. The theme of the meeting was Temperance and the worship service followed along that line. Mrs. A. H. Halbert spoke on “How to deal with the liquor problem today” and conducted a discussion on the subject. The third chapter of the study book “The Church Reaches Out” was very ably reviewed by Mrs. C. O. Bales. The Supply Secretary gave out articles of sewing to the members to be made up for the bale. The next meeting will be held at the Parsonage on March 21st. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.
